BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Education for the purpose of further study and possible amendment.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL PASSED OVER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask that House Bill No. 1417, Senate Bill No. 197, Printer's No. 668, be passed over in its order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware asks unanimous consent to have Senate Bill No. 197 go over in its order. Will the House give its unanimous consent?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, see whether his amendments fit Printer's No. 668?

The SPEAKER. That is the purpose of passing the bill over. Will the House give its unanimous consent?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objections and consent is not granted.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I was securing the amendments. I do not know who objected to passing the bill over.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerene, Mr. Yourishin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. YOURISHIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER, Mr. Speaker, I would like to say to the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin, that I have amendments prepared in my desk on Printer's No. 98. The Printer's Number now before us is No. 668. I am certain that the amendments can be changed in a very few minutes, and therefore, I am wondering whether the gentleman from Luzerne wants to prevent me from having an opportunity of offering my amendments purely because I have the wrong Printer's number, or whether under the circumstances he will not withdraw his objection.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I will agree providing we come back when we are through with our special order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman withdraws his objection. The bill will go over in its order.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2334, (Senate Bill No. 199), entitled:

An act to amend section one section three as amended sections seven and thirteen and section seventeen as amended and to repeal section six of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (Pamphlet Laws 1024) entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others by prescribing penalties for violations thereof by defining the procedure in prosecutions and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof as amended by excepting from the provisions of the act certain occupations and professions further regulating the hours of labor eliminating existing provisions permitting over time work in certain cases and the exemption for the canning industry imposing duties on employers and conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry and providing penalties.

The first section was read and agreed to as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (Pamphlet Laws 1024) entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others by prescribing penalties for violations thereof by defining the procedure in prosecutions and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof" is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the term "establishment" when used in this act shall mean any place within this Commonwealth where work is done for compensation of any sort to whenever payable [Provided That this act shall not apply to work in private homes and farming]

The term "person" when used in this act shall be construed to include any individual partnership or other unincorporated association corporation [and municipality] Commonwealth and any political subdivision thereof.

The term "week" when used in this act shall mean any seven consecutive days and the term "day" shall mean any twenty-four consecutive hours.

The second section was read as follows:

Section 2 That section three of said act as amended by the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws 709) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 3 (a) [No] Except as hereinafter provided no female shall be employed or permitted to work in or in connection with any establishment for more than [six] five and one-half days in any one week or more than [fifty-four] forty-four hours in any one week or more than [ten] eight hours in any one day [Provided That during weeks in which a legal holiday occurs and is observed by an establishment any female may be employed by such establishment during three days of such week for a longer period of time than is allowed by this act but no female shall be premitted to work more than two hours overtime during any one of such three days nor more than the maximum hours per week specified in this act.

The employment of such persons at any other time than as stated herein shall be deemed a violation of teh provisions of this section unless it appears that such employment was to make up time lost in the same week in consequence of the alteration repairs or accidents to machinery or plant upon which she was employed and dependent for thirty consecutive minutes shall justify such overtime employment nor shall such overtime employment be legal unless a written report of the same is sent to the Commissioner of Labor and Industry but no female shall be permitted to work more than two hours overtime during any one day nor more than the maximum number of hours per week specified in this act Provided That aforesaid restrictions as to hours shall not apply to females engaged in the canning of fruit and vegetable products And provided further That the one day of holiday in seven may be subdivided into two days of twelve hours each women employes in hotels boarding houses and in charitable educational and religious institutions at the discretion of the Industrial Board of the Department of Labor and Industry Provided That if it should be hereafter held by the courts of this Commonwealth that the power herein sought to be granted to the said board is for any reason invalid such holding shall not be taken in any case to effect or impair the remaining provisions of this section] provided that one day of rest may be subdivided into two days of twelve hours each for women employes in hotels boarding houses and in charitable educational and religious institutions at the discretion of the Department of Labor and Industry with the approval of the Industrial Board.

Where the strict application of the schedule of hours provided for by this section imposes an unnecessary hardship and violates the intent and purpose of this act the Department of Labor and Industry with the approval of the Industrial Board may make alter amend and repeal general rules and regulations prescribing variations from said schedule of hours Provided that if it should be held hereafter by the courts of this Commonwealth that the power herein sought to be granted to the said Department of Labor and Industry is for any reason invalid such holding shall not be taken in any case to affect or impair the remaining provisions of this section.

(b) Whenever any female shall be employed or permitted to work in or in connection with more than one establishment in any one week or in any one day the aggregate number of hours during which she shall be employed or permitted to work in or in connection with such establishments shall not exceed [the number of hours prescribed in this section for such females] forty-four in any one week or eight in any one day.

(c) Nothing in this section or any other provisions of this act shall apply to the employment of females in agricultural field occupations or in domestic service in private homes nor shall any provision of this act which relates to the regulation of hours of employment [The provisions of this section shall not] apply to the work of nurses in hospitals.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any female to be employed or permitted to work in any occupation dangerous to life or limb or injurious to the health or morals as such occupation shall from time to time be determined and declared by the Industrial Board.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 2, page 7, line 17 by inserting at the end of the line the following: "or to the work of females over twenty-one years of age earning at least twenty-five dollars a week in executive positions."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec 2 (sec. 3), page 7, line 11 by inserting after the word "homes" the following: "or to the work of females employed in orphans homes and industrial schools.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 2 (sec. 3), page 7, line 10, by inserting after the word "occupations" the following: "or to the employment of females by the first processors of perishable fruits and vegetables."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I object to the insertion of this amendment in that on page 6 of the bill, starting at line 15 it says "Where the strict application of the schedule of hours provided for by this section imposes an unnecessary hardship and violates the intent and purpose of this act, the Department of Labor and Industry, with the approval of the Industrial Board, may make, alter, amend and repeal the general rules and regulations," which would take car eof any situation of that kind. I ask the House to vote down the amendment.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, as the bill came over the Senate it exempted females engaged in canning and packing of perishable fruits and vegetables, an exemption which they had in the original bill, enacted, I think, in 1913 or 1915. It is true, as the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin says, that an amendment may go before the Industrial Board or before the Department of Labor and Industry, but we have no assurance that such request will be granted by the Department of Labor and Industry, and a condition may arise which makes it imperative that action be taken immediately, because fruits and vegetables may ripen so rapidly that we cannot wait until we go before a board and secure their approval. This amendment is very important. This industry has been growing rapidly in the State of Pennsylvania. A few years ago it was a minor industry. Today it is one of the major industries of the State of Pennsylvania. The packing of fruits and vegetables has brought about the building of numerous canneries in new sections of the State. It is an industry which is bringing very many thousands of dollars to the farmers of the State of Pennsylvania. We have in Pennsylvania great sections today in which vegetables are grown, in which fruits are grown, and it is very important for the preservation of this industry that these amendments be included in the bill, and I ask the members of the House to vote "aye" on these amendments.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, that is one of the reasons why the bill was amended as it was in the committee of the House. There were several amendments proposed exempting several of the industries of the State, for instance, the grocers who have the same complaint that the canning industry has. Hence, the Committee on Labor, thought that the only way to straighten this matter out, the only way to take care of the situation, so that no one may suffer in the State as a result of the forty-four hour bill, was to put in this general amendment, giving the Department of Labor and Industry the right to immediately exempt any one where it may work a hardship with the consent, of course, of the Industrial Board. I cannot see any sense in exempting any particular industry with that one amendment in the bill.

The Department of Labor and Industry does not want to see any of the farmers lose any of their tomatoes or strawberries or anything of that kind, neither does the Department of Labor and Industry want to work a hardship on anyone, nor does labor want to do so. Labor is willing that certain exemptions be granted but you cannot grant an exception to one industry, or one section of an industry, and not grant it to the rest of them. I say to you that the amendment placed in this bill by the Committee on Labor, which gives to the Department of Labor and Industry the right to exempt, the right to stretch the hours, the right to even extent the five and one half day week, where it is going to work a hardship on any industry, is the only amendment that should be in the bill, in order that it may make the bill workable.

I ask the members of the House to vote this amendment down.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the remainder of my amendments to the bill.

An Act to amend sections four hundred ten as amended and four hundred eleven of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" requiring companies of other states and foreign governments to make a provision for loans in policies of life insurance prohibiting any provision by which a policy of life insurance would take effect before the original application was made

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That sections four hundred and ten of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" as amended by the act approved the fifteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (P. L. 1020) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 410 Uniform Policy Provisions No policy of life or endowment insurance except policies of industrial insurance where the premiums are payable monthly or oftener shall hereafter be issued or delivered by any stock or mutual life insurance company in this Commonwealth unless it contains in substance the following provisions

(a) A provision that all premiums shall be payable in advance either at the home office of the company or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by one or more of the officers of the company who shall be named in the policy

(b) A provision that the insured is entitled to a grace either of thirty days or one month within which the payment of any premium after the first year may be made subject at the option of the company to an interest charge not in excess of six per centum per annum for the number of days of grace elapsing before the payment of the premium during which period of grace the policy shall continue in full force but in case the policy becomes a claim during the said period of grace before the overdue premium or the deferred premiums of the current policy year if any are paid the amount of such premiums with interest on any overdue premiums may be deducted in any settlement under the policy

(c) A provision that the policy shall be incontestable after it has been in force during the life-time of the insured two years from its date of issue except for nonpayment of premiums and for engaging in military or naval service in time of war without the consent in writing of an executive officer of the company and that at the option of the company provisions relative to benefits in the event of total and permanent disability and provisions which grant additional insurance specifically against death by accident may also be excepted

(d) A provision that the policy shall constitute the entire contract between the parties but if the company desires to make the application a part of the contract it may do so provided a copy of such application shall be endorsed upon or attached to the policy when issued and in such case the policy shall contain a provision that the policy and the application therefor shall constitute the entire contract between the parties

(e) A provision that if the age of the insured has been mis-stated the amount payable under the policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age

(f) A provision that the policy shall participate in the surplus of the company and that beginning not later than the end of the third policy-year the company will annually determine the portion of the divisible surplus accruing on the policy and that the owner of the policy shall have the right to have the dividend arising from such participation paid in cash or applied to the payment of premium or the purchase of paid up additions to the policy as the policyholder may elect

In lieu of the foregoing provisions the policy may contain a provision that the policy shall participate in the surplus of the company and that beginning not later than the end of the fifth policy-year the company will determine the portion of the divisible surplus accruing on the policy and that the owner of the policy shall have the right to have the current dividend arising from such participation paid in cash and that at periods of not more than five years thereafter such apportionment and payment at the option of the policy-holder shall be had

Renewable term policies of ten years or less may provide that the surplus accruing to such policies shall be determined and apportioned each year after the second policy-year and accumulated during each renewal period and that at the end of any renewal period or renewal of the policy by the insured the company shall apply the accumulated surplus as an annuity for the next succeeding renewal term in the reduction of premiums

(g) A provision specifying the options to which the policyholder is entitled in the event of default in a premium payment after three full annual premiums shall have been paid

(h) A provision that after three full years' premiums have been paid the company at any time while the policy is in force will advance on proper assignment or pledge of the policy and on the sole security thereof at a specified rate of interest a sum equal to or at the option of the owner of the policy less than the reserve at the end of the current policy year on the policy and on any dividend additions thereto less a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy and of any dividend additions thereto and that the company will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness on the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy-year and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy-year which provision may further provide that such loan may be deferred for not exceeding six months after the application therefor is made A company may in lieu of the provision hereinabove permitted for the deduction from a loan on the policy of a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy and of any dividend additions thereto insert in the policy a provision that one-fifth of the entire reserve may be deducted in case of a loan under the policy or may provide therein that the deduction may be the said two and one-half per centum or the one-fifth of the said entire reserve at the option of the company

(i) A provision which in event of default in premium payments after premiums shall have been paid for three years shall secure to the owner of the policy a stipulated form of insurance the net value of which shall be at least equal to the reserve at the date of default on the policy and on any dividend additions thereto specifying the mortality table and rate of interest adopted for computing such reserves less a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy and of any existing dividend additions thereto and less any existing indebtedness to the company on the policy Such provision shall stipulate that the policy may be surrendered to the company at its home office within one month from date of default for a specified cash value at least equal to the sum which would otherwise be available for the purchase of insurance as aforesaid and may stipulate that the company may defer payment for not more than six (6) months after the application therefor is made This provision shall not be required in term insurance of twenty years or less

(j) A table showing in figures the loan value if any and the options available under the policy each year upon default in premium payments during at least the first twenty years of the policy and if the proceeds of the policy are payable in installments or as an annuity a table showing the amount of the installment or annuity payment

(k) A provision that the holder of a policy shall be entitled to have the policy re-instated at any time within three years from the date of default in premium payments unless the policy has been duly surrendered or the extension period expired upon the production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of all overdue premiums and any other indebtedness to the company upon said policy with interest at the rate of not exceeding six per centum per annum

(l) A provision that when a policy shall become a claim by the death of the insured settlement shall be made upon receipt of due proof of death

Any of the foregoing provisions or parts thereof not applicable to single premium or non-participating or term policies shall to that extent not be incorporated therein [and paragraph (h) shall not apply to companies of other states and foreign governments] provided however That the policies of an insurance company organized under the laws of any state or foreign government may contain when issued in this Commonwealth any provision which may be prescribed by laws of the state or government under which the company is organized and the policies of a life insurance company organized under the laws of this Commonwealth may when issued in any other state territory or foreign country contain any provision required by the laws of such state territory or foreign country to be contained in policies issued therein

Section 2 That section four hundred and eleven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 411 Prohibited Policy Provisions No policy of life insurance shall be issued or delivered in this Commonwealth by any stock or mutual life insurance company organized under the laws of any other state or country or be issued by any stock or mutual life insurance company organized under the laws of this Commonwealth except policies of industrial insurance where the premiums are payable monthly or oftener if it contain any of the following provisions

(a) Any provision for forfeiture of the policy for failure to repay any loan on the policy or to pay interest on any such loan while the total indebtedness on the policy is less than the cash value thereof In ascertaining the indebtedness due upon the policy loan the interest if not paid when due shall be added to the principal of such loan and shall bear interest at the rate specified in the note or loan agreement

(b) Any provision limiting the time within which any action at law or equity may be commenced to less than two years after the cause of action shall accrue

(c) Any provision by which the policy shall purport to be issued or to take effect [more than six months] before the original application for the insurance was made if thereby the assured would rate at an age younger than his age at date when the application was made according to his age at nearest birthday

(d) Any provision for a mode of settlement at maturity of less value than the amount insured on the face of the policy plus dividend additions if any less the indebtedness to the company on the policy and less any premiums that may by the terms of the policy be deducted

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendment in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 865, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Elwyn Training School at Elwyn in the County of Delaware Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and prescribing certain conditions upon which the appropriation will be available to the school.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That an appropriation be made to the Elwyn Training School of Elwyn in the County of Delaware and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the maintenance of wards of the State at three hundred and fifty dollars per capita per annum and that the sum of four hundred and twenty thousand dollars ($420,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the said institution for the purpose stated to cover the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven.

Section 2 The appropriation made by section one of this act is made on the condition that each and every mental defective admitted to the Elwyn Training School after the effective date of this act as a ward of the Commonwealth.

1 Shall be selected by the Department of Welfare from a list submitted from time to time to the department by the board of directors of the school

2 Shall in the opinion of the department be susceptible to the training afforded by the school.

3 Shall have been previously investigated by the Department of Revenue for the purpose of determining the extent if any such mental defective or those legally liable for his or her support may be financially able to pay the cost of the maintenance of such person in the school.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time?

Is there objection?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, would the effect of the amendments offered by the gentleman from Delaware be to eliminate on page 2, subsections 1 and 2 all of lines 8 to 12 inclusive?

Mr. TURNER. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that that would deprive the Department of Welfare from making a selection from the list prepared by the Board of Directors of the school.

Mr. TURNER. Absolutely, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. And Mr. Speaker, it would further deprive the Department of Welfare of passing on the eligibility of the training of the applicants?

Mr. TURNER. That is right, Mr. Speaker. It should be.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Delaware know the Board of Directors of the Elwyn Training School agreed to that procedure.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I understand from the Board of Directors that they did not agree to that procedure. What they agreed to is what is contained in the section that the Revenue Department should pass upon the question of the financial responsibility of these people, but to put in this section would mean that the Department of Welfare would pass absolutely on all of the applicants. That was not contemplated in the original amendment as drafted nor was it in the agreement of the Directors with the budget officer upon the occasion that they were here.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, does not the bill as it is drawn require the Department of Welfare to select from a list submitted to them by the Board of Directors of Elwyn Training School?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, it does, and I think that is absolutely incorrect, and I think the gentleman from York will agree with me that the Elwyn Training School has been a remarkably well conducted institution of long standing, and that it is perfectly capable of passing on the qualification of those who should be admitted. To permit this to be done by the Department of Welfare I think would complicate the situation and would be a very unfair proposition to the institution. A question was raised by some one here that they felt that the financial responsibility should be passed upon the Department of Revenue. The Board of Directors discussed that and they were perfectly willing that that should be passed upon by the Department of Revenue, because as I recall it, you raised the same question as to the collections made by the institution from those who were supposed to pay.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, that is all. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I object, and in objecting to the insertion of these amendments I wish to state the following: When I spoke to the Board of Directors of the Elwyn Training School I indicated to them that the Department of Welfare would select from the lists submitted by the Board of Directors of the Ewlyn Training School the individuals who would be admitted to the institution. I might say that we are appropriating to this institution something like $420,000, as contained in the bill, and I feel that the Department of Welfare, in the exercise of their obligation to the needy of the Commonwealth, should have some power in selecting out of a list that had been previously approved by the Board of Directors of the Elwyn Training School.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House I feel that the gentleman from York is very sincere in his belief in this matter. I know that he gave it very careful consideration. I also know from the fact that this institution is from my own county and I introduced the bill that he has been very considerate of the institution. But here is an institution of long standing and experience in handling these problems. Mr. Speaker and members of the House this may seem like a very small proposition in the very extensive program we have before us and the urgency of time, but I trust you will indulge me for just a few moments because I am speaking of a very fine and a very old institution that has for years dealt with the problem of the child who is defective mentally. It is not an institution for delinquents, it is an institution that deals with the defective child, and while the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania pays a part of the support of that child in the institution, a part of the cost is paid by the counties who send these children to the institution, and a large number of them are sent from the City of Philadelphia. There has never been any question raised in the time that I have been in this House and in the time that I have presented the appropriation bills of the Elwyn Training School, as to the character and reputation of this school. Some question was raised in this session as to the control by the Commonwealth of the people who were sent to this institution. I should use instead of the word "sent" the word "admitted". I want to say to you that the Board of Directors of this institution are men of the very highest type in the County of Delaware and in the City of Philadelphia. This institution is a private institution and not a public institution; it has endowment funds and it has private patients who pay large sums of money to the institution for these defective children. I would like to have the opportunity of taking you to this institution in order that you might see the kind of work that they do with these children. They train them. They get them to do many things in basket weaving and in the repair of different articles and things of that kind. They work upon the farm that is connected with the institution. They go to school in this institution. They receive an education. They have a band. They have a girl's hockey team that would be the delight of many an educational institution in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It is a marvelous institution, run by men of the very highest calibre, and it is superintended by a doctor who is a specialist in the problem of the defective child.

Now, in this session of the Legislature questions were raised as to whether there should not be some control from the State. The Board of Directors came here and met with the Budget Secretary, the Welfare Secretary and the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee. It was felt at that time that the Department of Revenue should have some check on the financial responsibility of those admitted to the institution, and under the circumstances the board of directors were entirely willing that the Department of Revenue should have some check. I might say to you that in 1935, when the Democratic group of this House first came into control of the department here, Mr. Swope, who was then the Budget Secretary, sent an investigator to this institution to invesigate its accounts, its manner of handling its finances, and he gave it a clean bill of health after that investigation. This board has nothing to hide. It is perfectly willing to cooperate in every way but it does believe that its vital to this institution that its control over the kind of people that shall be admitted to the institution shall not be taken away from them. I might say to you that I know from past experience that on monay occasions as a member of the Legislature, people have come to me, members of the Legislature have come to me, and asked that certain individuals be admitted to this institution. I know of no occasion when they have not been subjected to the regular process of application and investigation to determine whether they were the kind of persons that they should admit. They do not take children with certain degrees of defective mentality; they do not take children who have certain standards that they believe are higher standards than they can admit. They do not take, for instance, the epileptic, at the institution because they believe the epileptic belongs to another institution. If the Department of Welfare is going to select the boy or girl for admission to the institution from a list, it seems to me that is taking over the control of the institution from its board of managers, whose operation of this institution has never been questioned in the past, and to say that the Department of Welfare shall make the selection I think is putting the State in a position of control of this institution in a managerial position that it should not take. We are perfectly willing that the Department of Revenue shall pass upon the question of financial responsibility. We are perfectly willing that any department shall inspect this institution from any angle. We are perfectly willing that if they think that the proper persons are not being admitted, that that matter be straightened out, to say that they shall be the ones to pass upon the applicants is taking the control away from the institution which has been operating satisfactorily for years in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, a prerogative that I believe belongs to them. Therefore, I think that you should vote in favor of this amendment.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill was transcribed for third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, vote on this motion?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Sproul, vote on this motion?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the nays appeared to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for and one hundred seven members having voted in the affirmative and one in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed second reading be reconsidered.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from York will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that the bill is now in a position that it had been when we first took it up under the special order of business?

The SPEAKER. No, the bill is in reverse, going backwards now.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. How far back, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. About half way back to second reading.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I object to the motion submitted by the gentleman from Delaware, and in substantiation of my objection I wish to call to the attention of the membership of the House some very patent errors in the argument of the gentleman from Delaware. In the first place, it is not the intention of this House, I assure you, in any manner to impinge upon the selection of the delinquents who are to be admitted into the Elwyn Training School. I do not think it will require a careful reading of the bill, but that a casual reading of the bill will indicate that the only function that the Department of Welfare will utilize in this matter is to select the individuals who will be admitted to the Elwyn Training School from a list that has been approved by the board of directors of the Elwyn Training School. Under the bill as it stands at the present time the directors of the Elwyn Training School would select the individuals who they thought would be susceptible to the training that the school had to offer, and after they approve of that list, the list in its entirety would be sent to the Department of Welfare from which the Department of Welfare would make the required investigation and the Department of Revenue would in addition make the required investigation. The reason for the institution of that rule apparently is not patent on the face of the bill and requires some explanation, and I will quote some figures from memory. In the past year, as I recall, the Elwyn Training School had a budget of approximately $280,000. $170,000 was provided by the State; $70,000 was provided by the county and city of Philadelphia, and $40,000 was the income of the institution as the result of the care and treatment of private patients. Out of their total budget requirements more than sixty percent was paid by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; $70,000 came from the city of Philadelphia, and $40,000 was the result from income of private patients. The Elwyn Training School informed the Appropriations Committee that they possibly had available for the care of delinquent children some sixty or seventy or one hundred beds, which could be made available for the treatment of delinquent children. As a result of trying to utilize the available bed space we increased the appropriation over the budget from $340,000 to something like $420,000. We did not feel that it would be necessary to raise any additional revenues in order to make that increased appropriation to the Elwyn Training School because we felt that by the proper investigation by both the Department of Welfare and the Department of Revenue, and by the collections by the Department of Revenue, that would overcome the additional appropriation and would therefore leave the budget of the Commonwealth in balance. We therefore felt we were able to take care of those patients in the Elwyn Training school without the necessity of increasing the taxes of the Commonwealth, and we felt that we could increase the appropriation and simultaneously increase the income. The gentlemen from Delaware has indicated that we should not attempt to take away from the board of managers of the trustees of the Elwyn Training School their power to select the individuals who they feel are susceptible to training in the school. We are not doing that, and I assure the gentleman from Delaware and I assure the entire membership of this House that that thought was farthest from our minds. We realize that the Elwyn Training School only receives a certain type of delinquent child, and as a result of that we allow the Elwyn Training School in the first instance to indicate whether or not the child is susceptible to training in the institution. If the board of directors feel that the child is susceptible to the training then we say, send that list of children who are susceptible to training to the Department of Welfare. The Department of Welfare, acting from a state-wide viewpoint, might feel it is better to have a group of children from Dauphin, York or Lancaster or some of the coal region counties sent to the institution rather than the children that the board of directors might select from the immediate contiguous territory surrounding the institution. They might feel that they might possibly want to go out to Allegheny County and take care of some particular type of defective child. To allow the board of directors of the Elwyn Training School to say whether or not the child is susceptible to training and to select the individual itself, would be giving to the board of directors of the Elwyn Training School a power which I am sure the gentleman from Delaware does not wish to give them. This bill, I feel, as amended and as at present before the House, is equitable and deserves the support of the entire membership, and I therefore oppose any further motion to reconsider any action that has been taken on this side of the House, and to place the bill in a position so it can pass third reading and final passage.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from York is always very adroit in his argument, but he does not quite understand all of the different aspects in this matter, and you can readily see why he does not. He is not in touch with the exact situation. The reason why the institution has asked for an increased appropriation is not because it raises the amount that the institution is to receive itself, but because it enables them to care for a greater number of children and it reduces the per capita cost per child. Therefore, when the gentleman from York says that it will not create a greater burden, may I state that this institution always has more applications than it can possibly take care of. In 1935 I sought to have this appropriation increased. With 550 students the amount was $365 per student. The 1935 appropriation, I think, was $385,000, and that took care of only 514 patients in the institution. With the appropriation of $420,000 it would mean that it would relieve the very great congestion and the very great problem that now exists in taking care of these children. The whole attitude of this Legislature has been to take care of the unfortunate. You can see that the State alone does not contribute all, as the gentleman from York has said, but Philadelphia also contributes and other counties contribute. The Philadelphia contribution, I might say, is very much in arrears because of the financial difficulties of the city of Philadelphia. In the second place, the gentleman from York has failed to recognize that the equipment is privately owned and paid for out of donations, out of the past experience of the institution. This institution moved from Germantown to this location in 1853. The whole issue in this matter started because somebody raised the question that there was politics in the institution. Let me say to you that most of the employes of this institution are Democrats. I have been very severely censured by the Republican leaders of the township where the Elwyn school is located because in the past a great many of the people in this institution voted the Democratic ticket. As far as the organization in Delaware County is concerned, I never knew it to ask a job there. I don't know that they ever had an appointment. There has never been any question raised about the selection of the applicants. If there is no question about the selection of these people why, in Heaven's Name, should the system be changed? These applications come rolling in one and two at a time, and every time an applicant came in they would have to submit it to the Department of Welfare. If you give the selection of the applicants, into the Department of Welfare and that Department gets into the control of men who do not have the high standard which some of our departments have had in the past, and which the Department of Welfare may have at the present time, how can you be certain that politics will not enter into the selection of the people? I think that the gentleman from York will agree with me in this matter if he were not obsessed with the idea on the side that there was somebody here that ought to be further regulated by the State authorities. This institution is a marvelous institution. It is an institution that is administered by a board of directors of the highest type. No one is admitted unless they are of the type that should be admitted, and I think the gentleman from York ought to go along with me on these amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the nays appeared to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, sixty-nine members having voted in the affirmative and fifty-six in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to the title be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the various sections were agreed to be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

The first section was read and agreed to as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That an appropriation be made to the Elwyn Training School of Elwyn in the County of Delaware and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the maintenance of wards of the State at three hundred and fifty dollars per capita per annum and that the sum of four hundred and twenty thousand dollars ($420,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the said institution for the purpose stated to cover the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven

The second section was read as follows:

Section 2 The appropriation made by section one of this act is made on the condition that each and every mental defective admitted to the Elwyn Training School after the effective date of this act as a ward of the Commonwealth

1 Shall be selected by the Department of Welfare from a list submitted from time to time to the department by the board of directors of the school

2 Shall in the opinion of the department be susceptible to the training afforded by the school

3 Shall have been previously investigated by the Department of Revenue for the purpose of determining the extent if any such mental defective or those legally liable for his or her support may be financially able to pay the cost of the maintenance of such person in the school

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 2, page 2, by striking out all lines 8 to 12 inclusive

Amend sec. 2, page 2, by striking out the figure "3."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I just reiterate what I said before.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I have nothing further to say.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appeared to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, one hundred eight members or more than a majority having voted in the affirmative and twelve in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendments were agreed to.

On the questic

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The title was read and agreed to as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Elwyn Training School at Elwyn in the County of Delaware Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and prescribing certain conditions upon which the appropriation will be available to the school

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained permission for the Committee on State Government to meet during the session of the House.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2252, (Senate Bill No. 357), entitled

An Act to amend sections one thousand six and one thousand thirty-five as amended and section one thousand sixty-two of the Act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws five hundred nineteen) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" providing for and regulating the method of making appropriations expenditures employments contracts and purchases by boroughs relating to the preparation of the annual budget on forms to be prepared by representatives of the State Association of Boroughs and Department of Internal Affairs providing for public notice of the preparation of such budget relating to the filing of such budget with the Department of Internal Affairs regulating the preparation of the auditor's statement requiring the controller or secretary to file an annual report with such department conferring jurisdiction of certain cases upon aldermen magistrates and justices of the peace and providing penalties

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

McKinney,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2282, (Senate Bill No. 773), entitled:

An Act relating to the disemination of information pertaining to affairs of the Commonwealth including information pertaining to civil rights and constitutional guarantees and conferring powers and duties with respect thereto upon the Department of State

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask whether there is any one in the House who can explain this bill

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, having just suffered a very stinging defeat I yield to the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw, who will explain the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MOOMAW. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know whether the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw, can explain this bill. I might say in parenthesis that several of us on this side have tried to understand it but we cannot.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, for the benefit of the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, this bill sets up an appropriation of seventeen thousand five hundred dollars to the Department of State for administering the act. The purpose of the act is to give people throughout the State some place to send their complaints, in case there has been an effort on the part of any local authorities, or by coercion, I might say, of any town or community who control some prominent industrial organization, to try to hold up on the freedom of speech, the freedom of the press and things of that sort. This affords a central agency at Harrisburg where they can make their complaints, and those complaints can be investigated by this department to ascertain whether or not those communities are being deprived of the freedom of speech and so forth. Out in one of the steel mill towns in Allegheny County I think the name of the town is Aliquippa, a photographer from some reliable magazine attempted to take same photographs for use in the magazine, and he was mal treated there. I do not know the extent of the injury but I do know he was prevented from obtaining these photographs for us in the publication.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Franklin. I am away down in the depths and so I might as well go on. If that purpose is in the bill I don't know how anybody could ever discover it. This bill starts out by saying "Upon request in writing to furnish or cause to be furnished to any person, association or corporation data and information pertaining to the various affairs of the Commonwealth, "That seems to be all right. Then it says, 'To make public any data or information in the possession of the Commonwealth that is declared by law to be confidential." In other words, if the Governor or some other department has any confidential information, then they have to make it public. I am not always in accord with the Governor, but I will be hanged if I believe that the Legislature ought to stick their fingers into his affairs, and I am not going to be in favor of sticking our noses into the Executive branch of the government. Even though I may have some difference of opinion with the Governor I am still for maintaining the integrity of the Executive branch of the Government. It says "To render or furnish any opinion on any legal matter." I have always thought that all matters pertaining to legal questions belonged to the Attorney General's deparment. Here they are going to set up in the Departmnt of State an office that is to render an opinion or furnish any information on any legal matters. That is infringing on the rights of the members of the Bar and no member of the Bar is going to be in favor of having the Secretary of the Commonwealth render legal opinions. In addition to that, if it pertains to the State, the proper place to go would be to the Atorney General's office. I am no going to invade the prerogative of the Attorney General's office and I do not think that the Legislature should. The Attorney General's office knows how to conduct its affairs.

The bill says this, "upon written complaint filed with the department to refer to such civil groups or organizations as the department deems appropriate alleged violations of the rights of free speech and assembly the rights of labor to organize and bargain collectively and other civil rights and constitutional guarantees". In addition to acting as a protector of the right of free speech and giving to labor under the Wagner Act and the new McGinnis Act which we are going to pass, the right to bargain collectively, we are going to set up an officer in the Secretary of the Commonwealth's office whose duty it will be to run around the Commonwealth and refer to these organizations such alleged violations of the rights of free speech and assembly.

Section 2 provides, "It shall be the duty of the various administrative departments, boards and commissions or other agencies of the Commonwealth to cooperate". That sounds all right.

That means that they are all made subservient to the Department of State on all these questions.

Then lastly, and this is really the worst thing in the bill, it provides as follows: "the Department of State is hereby authorizes to adopt rules and regulations pertaining to its powers and duties under this act.'" You are setting up a Department of State under this bill, and I am sure if Senator Cavalcante ever wrote this bill, he never would want that in it. The Department of State is going to make its own rules and regulations pertaining to its powers, which means the powers under the act.

Last but not least, the sum of $17,500 is appropriated. Senator Cavalcante has always been very kind to me. He has gotten a lot of bills out of committee for me and I do not like to oppose a bill of his. This bill must have been born in some moment when the person who wrote it did not think of what the bill is going to do. Therefore I think the bill ought not to pass.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe that the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, evidently misread the first section of this bill when he pointed out the provision contained therein to authorize the department to render and furnish any opinion or any legal matter. It says that nothing contained herein would permit that to be done. If you read the first part of that section it says, "provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or require the department (1) to make public any data or information in the possession of the Commonwealth that is declared by law to be confidential or (2) to render or furnish any opinion on on any legal matter.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, even if the gentleman from Franklin is right on that, the rest of it is wrong.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House as far as the Secretary of the Commonwealth or the Department of State being able to run over the Commonwealth, I think that you will find that this shall appropriation of $17,500 will be consumed by the handling of the correspondence that comes to the office. There has been no agency in the Commonwealth where people can make their complaints and where they may get justice. I think that the employment of a stenographer and probably one legal mind will consume all of that very small appropriation. I ask the membership of the House to support this bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, Senator Cavalcante explained to me that his real reason behind this bill was that there were a lot of letters that came into the department and nobody knew how to answer them. People got phoney answers to their letters. People do get phoney answers especially anybody that gets a letter from a legislator. I feel that the bill does not carry out what the Senator wants, it does not say what he wanted to say.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1894, as follows:

An Act relating to soil conservation and soil erosion and regulating land use practices contributing to soil wastage and soil erosion providing for the organization of soil consevation districts as governmental subdivisions of the Commonwealth with powers of enacting ordinances and regulations for the prevention and control of soil erosion and the conservation of soil resources prescribing the officers and employes thereof and defining their powers and duties creating the State Soil Conservation Board in the Department of Agriculture and imposing powers and prescribing duties thereon relative to the enforcement of this act providing financial assistance to such soil conservation districts prescribing penalties and making an appropriation

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That

Section 1 Short Title This act may be known and cited as the "Soil Conservation Districts Law"

Section 2 Legislatve Determinations and Declaration of Policy It is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination

A The condition That the farm and grazing lands of this Commonwealth are among the basic assets of the Commonwealth and that the preservation of these lands is necessary to protect and promote the health safety and general welfare of its people that improper land-use practices have caused and have contributed to and are now causing and contributing to a progressively more serious erosion of the farm and grazing lands of this Commonwealth by wind and water that the breaking of natural grass plant and forest cover have interfered with the natural factors of soil stabilization causing loosening of soil and exhaustion of humus and developing a soil condition that favors erosion that the topsoil is being blown and washed out of fields and pastures that there has been an accelerated washing of sloping fields that these processes of erosion by wind and water speed up with removal of absorptive topsoil causing exposure of less absorptive and less protected but more erosive subsoil that failure by any land occupier to conserve the soil and control erosion upon his lands causes a washing and blowing of soil and water from his lands onto other lands and makes the conservation of soil and control of erosion on such other lands difficult or impossible

B The consequences That the consequences of such soil erosion in the form of soil-bowing and soil-washing are the silting and sedimentation of stream channels reservoirs dams ditches and harbors the loss of fertile soil material in dust storms the piling up of soil on lower slopes and its deposit over alluvial plains the reduction in productivity or out-right ruin of rich bottom lands by overwash of poor sub-soil material sand and gravel swept out of the hills deterioration of soil and its fertility deterioration of crops grown thereon and declining acre yields despite development of scientific processes for increasing such yields loss of soil and water which causes destruction of food and cover for wildfire a blowing and washing of soil into streams which silts over spawning beds and destroys water plants diminishing the food supply of fish a diminishing of the underground water reserve which causes water shortages intensifies periods of drought and causes crop failures an increase in the speed and volume of rainfall run-off causing severe and increasing floods which bring suffering disease and death impoverishment of families attempting to farm eroding and eroded lands damage to roads highways railways farm buildings and other property from floods and from dust storms and losses in navigation hydo-electric power municipal water supply irrigation developments farming and grazing

C The appropriate corrective methods That to conserve soil resources and control and prevent soil erosion it is necessary that land-use practices contributing to soil wastage and soil erosion be discouraged and discontinued and appropriate soil-conserving land-use practices be adopted and carried out that among the procedures necessary for wide-spread adoption are the carrying on of engineering operations such as the construction of terraces terrace outlets check-dams dikes ponds ditches and the like the utilization of strip cropping lister furrowing contour cultivating and contour furrowing land irrigation seeding and planting of waste sloping abandoned or eroded lands to water conserving and erosion-preventing plants trees and grasses forestation and reforestation rotation of crops soil stabilization with trees grasses legumes and other thick-growing soil-holding crops retardation of runoff by increasing absorption of rainfall and retirement from cultivation of steep highly erosive areas and areas now badly gullied or otherwise eroded

D Declaration of policy It is hereby declared to be the policy of the legislature to provide for the conservation of the soil and soil resources of this Commonwealth and for the control and prevention of soil erosion and thereby to preserve natural resources control floods prevent impairment of dams and reservoirs assist in maintaining the navigability of rivers and harbors preserve wild-life protect the tax base protect public lands and protect and promote the health safety and general welfare of the people of this Commonwealth

(1) To offer such assistance as may be appropriate to the supervisors of soil conservation districts organized as provided hereinafter in the carrying out of any of their powers and programs

(2) To keep the supervisors of each of the several districts organized under the provisions of this act informed of the activities and experience of all other districts organized hereunder and to facilitate an interchange of advice and experience between such districts and cooperation between them

(3) To coordinate the programs of the several soil conservation districts organized hereunder so far as this may be done by advice and consultation

(4) To secure the cooperation and assistance of the United States and any of its agencies and of agencies of this Commonwealth in the work of such districts

(5) To disseminate information throughout the Commonwealth concerning the activities and programs of the soil conservation districts organized hereunder and to encourage the formation of such districts in areas where their organization is desirable.

Section 5 Creation of Soil Conservation Districts Any twenty-five (25) occupiers of land lying within the limits of the territory proposed to be organized into a district may file a petition with the State soil conservation board asking that a soil conservation district be organized to function in the territory prescribed in the petition Such petition shall set forth

(1) The proposed name of said district

(2) That there is need in the interest of the public health safety and welfare for a soil conservation district to function in the territory described in the petition

(3) A description of the territory proposed to be organized as a district which description shall not be required to be given by metes and bounds or by legal subdivisions but shall be deemed sufficient if generally accurate

(4) A request that the State soil conservation board duly define the boundaries for such district that a referendum be held within the territory so defined on the question of the creation of a soil conservation district in such territory and that the board determine that such a district be created

Where more than one petition is filed covering parts of the same territory the State soil conservation board may consolidate all or any such petitions

B Within thirty (30) days after such a petition has been filed with the State soil conservation board it shall cause due notice to be given of a proposed hearing upon the question of the desirability and necessity in the interest of the public health safety and welfare of the creation of such district upon the question of the appropriate boundaries to be assigned to such district upon the propriety of the petition and other proceedings taken under this act and upon all questions relevant to such inquiries All occupiers of land within the limits of the territory described in the petition and of lands within any territory considered for addition to such described territory and all other interested parties shall have the right to attend such hearings and to be heard If it shall appear upon the hearing that it may be desirable to include within the proposed district territory outside of the area within which due notice of the hearing has been given the hearing shall be adjourned and due notice of further hearing shall be given throughout the entire area considered for inclusion in the district and such further hearing held After such hearing if the board shall determine upon the facts presented at such hearing and upon such other relevant facts and information as may be available that there is need in the interest of the public health safety and welfare for a soil conservation district to function in the territory considered at the hearing it shall make and record such determination and shall define by metes and bounds or by legal subdivisions the boundaries of such districts In making such determination and in defining such boundaries the board shall give due weight and consideration to the topography of the area considered and of the Commonwealth the composition of soils therein the distribution of erosion the prevailing land-use practices the desirability and necessity of including within the boundaries the particular lands under consideration and the benefits such lands may receive from being included within such boundaries the relation of the proposed area to existing watersheds and agricultural regions and to other soil conservation districts already organized or proposed for organization under the provisions of this act and such other physicial geographical and economic factors as are relevant having due regard to the legislative determinations set forth in section 2 of this act The territory to be included within such boundaries need not be contiguous If the board shall determine after such hearing after due consideration of the said relevant facts that there is no need for a soil conservation district to function in the territory considered at the hearing it shall make and record such determination and shall deny the petition After 6 months shall have expired from the date of the denial of any such petition subsequent petitions covering the same or substantially the same territory may be filed as aforesaid and new hearings held and determinations made thereon

C After the board has made and recorded a determination that there is need in the interest of the public health safety and welfare for the organization of a district in a particular territory and has defined the boundaries thereof it shall consider the question whether the operation of a district within such boundaries with the powers conferred upon soil conservation districts in this act is administratively practicable and feasible To assist the board in the determination of such administrative practicability and feasibility it shall be the duty of the board within a reasonable time after entry of the finding that there is need for the organization of the proposed district and the determination of the boundaries thereof to hold a referendum within the proposed district upon the proposition of the creation of the district and to cause due notice of such referendum to be given The question shall be submitted by ballots upon which the words "For creation of a soil conservation district of the lands below described and lying in the county (ies) of .... and ....." and "Against creation of a soil conservation district of the lands below described and lying in the county (ies) of ..... and ....." shall be printed with a square before each proposition and a direction to insert an X mark in the square before one or the other of said propositions as the voter may favor or oppose creation of such district The ballot shall set forth the boundaries of such proposed district as determined by the board All occupiers of lands lying within the boundaries of the territory as determined by the State soil conservation board shall be eligible to vote in such referendum Only such land occupiers shall be eligible to vote

D The board shall pay all expenses for the issuance of such notices and the conduct of such hearings and referenda and shall supervise the conduct of such hearings and referenda It shall issue appropriate regulations governing the conduct of such hearings and referenda and providing for the registration prior to the date of the referendum of all eligible voters or prescribing some other appropriate procedure for the determination of those eligible as voters in such referendum No informalities in the conduct of such referendum or in any matters relating thereto shall invalidate said referendum or the result thereof if notice thereof shall have been given substantially as herein provided and said referendum shall have been fairly conducted

E The board shall publish the result of such referendum and shall thereafter consider and determine whether the operation of the district within the defined boundaries is administratively practicable and feasible If the board shall determine that the operation of such district is not administratively practicable and feasible it shall record such determination and deny the petition If the board shall determine that the operation of such district is administratively practicable and feasible it shall record such determination and shall proceed with the organization of the district in the manner hereinafter provided In making such determination the board shall give due regard and weight to the attitudes of the occupiers of lands lying within the defined boundaries the number of land occupiers eligible to vote in such referendum who shall have voted the proportion of the votes cast in such referendum in favor of the creation of the district to the total number of votes cast the approximate wealth and income of the land occupiers of the proposed district the probable expense of carry on erosion-control operations within such district and such other economic and social factors as may be relevant to such determination having due regard to the legislative determinations set forth in section 2 of this act provided however that the board shall not have authority to determine that the operation of the proposed district within the defined boundaries is administratively practicable and feasible unless at least a majority of the votes cast in the referendum upon the proposition of creation of the district shall have been cast in favor of the creation of such district

F If the board shall determine that the operation of the proposed district within the defined boundaries is administratively practicable and feasible it shall appoint two (2) supervisors to act with the three (3) supervisors elected as provided hereinafter as the governing body of the district such district shall be a governmental subdivision of this Commonwealth and a public body corporate and politic upon the taking of the following proceedings

The two appointed supervisors shall present to the Secretary of the Commonwealth an application signed by them which shall set forth (and such application need contain no detail other than the mere recital) (1) that a petition for the creation of the district was filed with the State soil conservation board pursuant to the provisions of this act and that the proceedings specified in this act were taken pursuant to such petition that the application is being filed in order to complete the organization of the district as a governmental subdivision and a public body corporate and politic under this act and that the board has appointed them as supervisors (2) the name and official residence of each of the supervisors together with a certified copy of the appointments evidencing their right to office (3) the term of office of each of the supervisors (4) the name which is proposed for the district and (5) the location of the principal office of the supervisors of the district The application shall be subscribed and sworn to by each of the said supervisors before an officer authorized by the laws of this state to take and certify oaths who shall certify upon the application that he personally knows the supervisors and knows them to be the officers as affirmed in the application and that each has subscribed thereto in the officer's presence The application shall be accompanied by a statement by the State soil conservation board which shall certify (and such statement need contain no detail other than the mere recitals that a petition was filed notice issued and hearing held as aforesaid that the board did duly determine that there is need in the interest of the public health safety and welfare for a soil conservation district to function in the proposed territory and did define the boundaries thereof that notice was given and a referendum held on the question of the creation of such district and that the result of such referendum showed a majority of the votes cast in such referendum to be in favor of the creation of the district that thereafter the board did duly determine that the operation of the proposed district is administratively practicable and feasible The said statement shall set forth the boundaries of the district as they have been defined by the board

The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall examine the application and statement and if he finds that the name proposed for the district is not identical with that of any other soil conservation district of this Commonwealth or so nearly similar as to lead to confusion or uncertainty he shall receive and file them and shall record them in an appropriate book of record in his office If the Secretary shall find that the name proposed for the district is identical with that of any other soil conservation district of this Commonwealth or so nearly similar as to lead to confusion and uncertainty he shall certify such fact to the State soil conservation board which shall thereupon submit to the Secretary of the Commonwealth a new name for the said district which shall not be subject to such defects Upon receipt of such new name free of such defects the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall record the application and statement with the name so modified in an appropriate book of record in his office When the application and statement have been made filed and recorded as herein provided the district shall constitute a governmental subdivision of this Commonwealth and a public body corporate and politic The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall make and issue to the said supervisors a certificate under the seal of the Commonwealth of the due organization of the said district and shall record such certificate with the application and statement The boundaries of such district shall include the territory as determined by the State soil conservation board as aforesaid but in no event shall they include an area included within the boundaries of another soil conservation district organized under the provisions of this act

G After six (6) months shall have expired from the date of entry of a determination by the State soil conservation board that operation of a proposed district is not administratively practicable and feasible and denial of a petition pursuant to such determination subsequent petitions may be filed as aforesaid and action taken thereon in accordance with the provisions of this act

H Petitions for including additional territory within an existing district may be filed with the State soil conservation board and the proceedings herein provided for in the case of petitions to organize a district shall be observed in the case of petitions for such inclusion The board shall prescribe the form for such petitions which shall as nearly as may be in the form prescribed in this act for petitions to organize a district Where the total number of land occupiers in the area proposed for inclusion shall be less than 25 the petition may be filed when signed by a majority of the occupiers of such area and in such case no referendum need be held In referenda upon petitions for such inclusion all occupiers of land lying within the proposed additional area shall be eligible to vote

I In any suit action or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of or relating to any contract proceeding or action of the district the district shall be deemed to have been established in accordance with the provisions of this act upon proof of the issuance of the aforesaid certificate by the Secretary of the Commonwealth A copy of such certificate duly certified by the Secretary shall be admissible in evidence in any such suit action or proceeding and shall be proof of the filing and contents thereof

Section 6 Election of Three Supervisors for Each District Within thirty (30) days after date of issuance by the Secretary of the Commonwealth of a certificate of organization of a soil conservation district nominating petitions may be filed with the State soil conservation board to nominate candidates for supervisors of such district The board shall have authority to extend the time within which nominating petitions may be filed No such nominating petition shall be accepted by the board unless it shall be subscribed by twenty-five (25) or more occupiers of lands lying within the boundaries of such district Land occupiers may sign more than one such nominating petition to nominate more than one candidate for supervisor The board shall give due notice of an election to be held for the election of three supervisors for the district The names of all nominees on behalf of whom such nominating petitions have been filed within the time herein designated shall be printed arranged in the alphabetical order of the surnames upon ballots with a square before each name and a direction to insert an X mark in the square before any three names to indicate the voter's preference All occupiers of lands lying within the district shall be eligible to vote in such election Only such land occupiers shall be eligible to vote The three candidates who shall receive the largest number respectively of the votes cast in such election shall be the elected supervisors for such district The board shall pay all the expenses of such election shall supervise the conduct thereof shall prescribe regulations governing the conduct of such election and the determination of the eligibility of voters therein and shall publish the results thereof

Section 11 Performance of Work under the Regulations by the Supervisors Where the supervisors of any district shall find that any of the provisions of land-use regulations prescribed in an ordinance adopted in accordance with the provisions of section 9 hereof are not being observed on particular lands and that such non-observance tends to increase erosion on such lands and is interfering with the prevention or control of erosion on other lands within the district the supervisors may present to the Court of Common Pleas of the county wherein such particular land is located a petition duly verified setting forth the adoption of the ordinance prescribing land-use regulations the failure of the defendant land occupier to observe such regulations and to perform particular work operations or avoidances as required thereby and that such non-observance tends to increase erosion on such lands and is interfering with the prevention or control of erosion on other lands within the district and praying the court to require the defendant to perform the work operations or avoidance within a reasonable time and to order that if the defendant shall fail to perform the supervisors may go on the land and perform the work or other operations or otherwise bring the condition of such lands into conformity with the requirements of such regulations and recover the costs and expenses thereof with interest from the occupier of such land Upon the presentation of such petition the court shall cause process to be issued against the defendant and shall hear the case If it shall appear to the court that testimony is necessary for the proper disposition of the matter it may take evidence or appoint a referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same to the court with his findings of fact and conclusions of law which shall constitute a part of the proceedings upon which the determination of the court shall be made The court may dismiss the petition or it may require the defendant to perform the work operations or evidances and may provide that upon the failure of the defendant to initiate such performance within the time specified in the order of the court and to prosecute the same to completion with reasonable diligence the supervisors may enter upon the lands involved and perform the work or operations or otherwise bring the conditions of such lands into conformity with the requirements of the regulations and recover the costs and expenses thereof with interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum from the occupier of such lands In all cases where the person in possession of lands who shall fail to perform such work operations or avoidances shall not be the owner the owner of such lands shall be joined as party defendant

The court shall retain jurisdiction of the case until after the work has been completed Upon completion of such work pursuant to such order of the court the supervisors may file a petition with the court a copy of which shall be served upon the defendant in the case stating the costs and expenses sustained by them in the performance of the work and praying judgment therefor with interest The court shall have jurisdiction to enter judgment for the amount of such costs and expenses with interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum until paid together with the costs of suit including a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court The amount of such judgment shall be a lien upon such lands until fully paid and satisfied and shall be collected by the supervisors of the district in the same manner and under the same procedure as is provided by law for the collection of municipal claims after they have been refused to judgment When such judgment shall be paid or collected the proceeds shall be paid over to the district within the boundaries of which the lands shall lie

Section 12 Board of Adjustment

A Whereas the supervisors of any district organized under the provisions of this act shall adopt an ordinance prescribing land-use regulations in accordance with the provisions of section 9 hereof they shall further provide by ordinance for the establishment of a board of adjustment Such board of adjustment shall consist of three (3) members each to be appointed for a term of three (3) years except that the members first appointed shall be appointed for terms of 1 2 and 3 years respectively The members of each such board of adjustment shall be appointed by the State soil conservation board with the advice and approval of the supervisors of the district for which such board has been established and shall be removable upon notice and hearing for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office but for no other reason such hearing to be conducted jointly by the State soil conservation board and the supervisors of the district Vacancies in the board of adjustment shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments and shall be for the unexpired term of the member whose term becomes vacant Members of the State soil conservation board and the supervisors of the district shall be ineligible to appointment as members of the board of adjustment during their tenure of such other office The members of the board of adjustment shall receive compensation for their services at the rate of six dollars ($6.00) per diem for time spent on the work of the board in addition to expenses including traveling expenses necessarily incurred in the discharge of their duties The supervisors shall pay the necessary administrative and other expenses of operation incurred by the board of adjustment upon the certificate of the chairman of the Board

B The board of adjustment shall adopt rules to govern its proceedings which rules shall be in accordance with the provisions of this act and with the provisions of any ordinance adopted pursuant to this section The board shall designate a chairman from among its members and may from time to time change such designation Meetings of the board shall be held at the call of the chairman and at such other times as the board may determine Any two (2) members of the board shall constitute a quorum The chairman or in his absence such other member of the board as he may designate to serve as acting chairman may administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses All meetings of the board shall be open to the public The board shall keep a full and accurate record of all proceedings of all documents filed with it and of all orders entered which shall be filed in the office of the board and shall be a public record

C Any land occupier may file a petition with the board of adjustment alleging that there are great practical difficulties or unnecessary hardship in the way of his carrying out upon his lands the strict letter of the land-use regulations prescribed by ordinance approved by the supervisors and praying the board to authorize a variance from the terms of the land-use regulations in the application of such regulations to the lands occupied by the petitioner Copies of such petition shall be served by the petitioner upon the chairman of the supervisors of the district within which his lands are located and upon the chairman of the State soil conservation board The board of adjustment shall fix a time for the hearing of the petition and cause due notice of such hearing to be given The supervisors of the district and the State soil conservation board shall have the right to appear and be heard at such hearing Any occupier of lands lying within the district who shall object to the authorizing of the variance prayed for may intervene and become a party to the proceedings Any party to the hearing before the board may appear in person by agent or by attorney If upon the facts presented at such hearing the board shall determine that there are great practical difficulties or unnecessary hardship in the way of applying the strict letter of any of the land-use regulations upon the lands of the petitioner it shall make and record such determination and shall make and record findings of fact as to the specific conditions which establish such great practical difficulties or unnecessary hardship Upon the basis of such findings and determination the board shall have power by order to authorize such variance from the terms of the land-use regulations in their application to the lands of the petitioner as will relieve such great practical difficulties or unnecessary hardship and will not be contrary to the public interest and such that the spirit of the land-use regulations shall be observed the public health safety and welfare secured and substantial justice done

D Any petitioner aggrieved by an order of the board of adjustment granting or denying in whole or in part the relief sought the supervisors of the district or any intervening party may obtain a review of such order by the Coure of Common Pleas of the county within which is located the land which is affected by such order of the board by filing in such court a petition praying that the order of the board be modified or set aside A copy of such petition shall forthwith be served upon the parties to the hearing before the board and thereupon the party seeking review shall file in the court a transcript of the entire record in the proceedings certified by the board including the documents and testimony upon which the order complained of was entered and the findings determination and order of the board Upon such filing the court shall cause notice thereof to be served upon the parties and shall have jurisdiction of the proceedings and of the questions determined or to be determined therein and shall have power to grant such temporary relief as it deems just and proper and to make and enter a decree enforcing modifying and enforcing as so modified or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the board No contention that has not been urged before the board shall be considered by the court unless the failure or neglect to urge such contention shall be excused because of extraordinary circumstances The findings of the board as to the facts if supported by evidence shall be conclusive If any party shall apply to the court for leave to produce additional evidence and shall show to the satisfaction of the court that such evidence is material and that there were reasonable grounds for the failure to produce such evidence in the hearing before the board the court may order such additional evidence to be taken before the board and to be made a part of the transcript The board may modify its findings as to the facts or make new findings taking into consideration the additional evidence so taken and filed and it shall file such modified or new findings which if supported by evidence shall be conclusive and shall file with the court its recommendations if any for the modification or setting aside of its original order The jurisdiction of the court shall be exclusive and its judgment and decree shall be final except that the same shall be subject to review in the same manner as are other judgments or decrees of the court

Section 13 Cooperation Between Districts The supervisors of any two or more districts organized under the provisions of this act may cooperate with one another in the exercise of any or all powers conferred in this act

Section 14 Agencies of the Commonwealth to Cooperate Agencies of this Commonwealth which shall have jurisdiction over or be charged with the administration of any State-owned lands and of any county or other governmental subdivision of the Commonwealth which shall have jurisdiction over or be charged with the administration of any county-owned or other publicly owned lands lying within the boundaries of any district organized hereunder shall cooperate to the fullest extent with the supervisors of such districts in the effectuation of programs and operations undertaken by the supervisors under the provisions of this act The supervisors of such districts shall be given free access to enter and perform work upon such publicly owned lands The provisions of land-use regulations adopted pursuant to section 9 of this act shall have the force and effect of law over all such publicly owned lands and shall be in all respects observed by the agencies administering such lands

Section 15 Discontinuance of Districts At any time after five (5) years after the organization of a district under the provisions of this act any twenty-five (25) occupiers of land lying within the boundaries of such district may file a petition with the State soil conservation board praying that the operations of the district be terminated and the existence of the district discontinued The board may conduct such public meetings and public hearings upon such petition as may be necessary to assist it in the consideration thereof Within sixty (60) days after such a petition has been received by the board it shall give due notice of the holding of a referendum and shall supervise such referendum and issue appropriate regulations governing the conduct thereof the question to be submitted by ballots upon which the words "For terminating the existence of the ..... (name of the soil conservation district to be here inserted)" and "Against terminating the existence of the ..... (name of the soil conservation district to be here inserted)" shall be printed with a square before each proposition and a direction to insert an X mark in the square before one or the other of said propositions as the voter may favor or oppose discontinuance of such district All occupiers of lands lying within the boundaries of the district shall be eligible to vote in such referendum Only such land occupiers shall be eligible to vote No informalities in the conduct of such referendum or in any matters relating thereto shall invalidate said referendum or the result thereof if notice thereof shall have been given substantially as herein provided and said referendum shall have been fairly conducted

The State soil conservation board shall publish the result of such referendum and shall thereafter consider and determine whether the continued operation of the district within the defined boundaries is administratively practicable and feasible If the board shall determine that the continued operation of such district is administratively practicable and feasible it shall record such determination and deny the petition If the board shall determine that the continued operation of such district is not administratively practicable and feasible it shall record such determination and shall certify such determination to the supervisors of the district In making such determination the board shall give due regard and weight to the attitudes of the occupiers of lands lying within the district the number of land occupiers eligible to vote in such referendum who shall have voted the proportion of the votes cast in such referendum in favor of the discontinuance of the district to the total number of votes cast the approximate wealth and income of the land occupiers of the district the probable expense of carrying on erosion control operations within such district and such other economic and social factors as may be relevant to such determination having due regard to the legislative findings set forth in section 2 of this act provided however that the board shall not have authority to determine that the continued operation of the district is administratively practicable and feasible unless at least a majority of the votes cast in the referendum shall have been cast in favor of the continunce of such district

Upon receipt from the State soil conservation board of a certification that the board has determined that the continued operation of the district is not administratively practicable and feasible pursuant to the provisions of this section the supervisors shall forthwith proceed to terminate the affairs of the district The supervisors shall dispose of all property belonging to the district at public auction and shall pay over the proceeds of such sale into the State treasury through the Department of Revenue The supervisors shall thereupon file an application duly verified with the Secretary of the Commonwealth for the discontinuance of such district and shall transmit with such application the certificate of the State soil conservation board setting forth the determination of the board that the continued operation of such district is not administratively practicable and feasible The application shall recite that the property of the district has been disposed of and the proceeds paid over as in this section provided and shall set forth a full accounting of such properties and proceeds of the sale The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall issue to the supervisors a certificate of dissolution and shall record such certificate in an appropriate book of record in his office

Upon issuance of a certificate of dissolution under the provisions of this section all ordinances and regulations theretofore adopted and in force within such districts shall be of no further force and effect All contracts theretofore entered into to which the district or supervisors are parties shall remain in force and effect for the period provided in such contracts The State soil conservation board shall be substituted for the district or supervisors as party to such contracts The committee shall be entitled to all benefits and subject to all liabilities under such contracts and shall have the same right and liability to perform to require performance to sue and be sued thereon and to modify or terminate such contracts by mutual consent or otherwise as the supervisors of the district would have had Such dissolution shall not affect the lien of any judgment entered under the provisions of section 11 of this act nor the pendency of any action instituted under the provisions of such section and the board shall succeed to all the rights and obligations of the district or supervisors as to such liens and actions

The State soil conservation board shall not entertain petitions for the discontinuance of any certain district nor conduct referenda upon such petitions nor make determinations pursuant to such petitions in accordance with the provisions of this act more often than once in five (5) years

Section 16 Appropriations The sum of ten thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated out of the General Fund to the State soil conservation board for its use in administering the provisions of this act during the two fiscal years beginning June 1, 1937 and ending May 31, 1939

Section 17 Allocations to the Districts The State soil conservation board shall make allocations from time to time out of the moneys appropriated to it Among the several soil conservation districts organized in accordance with the provisions of this act for the purposes provided in the act on the basis of the number of acres affected by the ordinances and regulations of the district supervisors or any other equitable basis to be established by the board and payments shall be made under such system of requisition and accounting as the Governor Auditor General and State Treasurer shall determine

The moneys so allocated to a district shall be available for expenditures in that district authorized by the provisions of this act as the State soil conservation board shall determine

Section 18 Separability Clause If any provision of this act or the application of any provision to any person or circumstances is held invalid the remainder of the act and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby

Section 19 Inconsistency with Other Acts Insofar as any of the provisions of this act are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law the provisions of this act shall be controlling

Section 20 Effective Date This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1959, entitled:

An Act to provide for the conservation protection improvement and profitable use of agricultural land resources in the State of Pennsylvania and for cooperation with the governments and agencies of other states and of the United States pursuant to the provisions of section seven of an act of the Congress of the United States known as the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act to assent to and accept the provisions of said act to constitute and establish the Pennsylvania Agricultural Conservation and Adjustment Committee and in conformity with the provisions of said act to designate and authorize said committee as the State agency of this State in conformity with such provisions to formulate submit to the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States and administer State plans to carry out the provisions of this act to define the powers and duties of said committee as such State agency to provide for the selection of its members and otherwise to provide for the administration of this act and making an appropriation

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. We just passed a bill, Mr. Speaker, that did the same thing, the Ganser bill.

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is an entirely different set-up from the bill we passed a few minutes ago. That was soil conservation; this is agricultural adjustment, two entirely different set-ups.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Section 2 The foregoing apportionment is based on the United States decennial census of one thousand nine hundred and thirty Any township borough or ward created since such census and not specifically provided for by this act shall form a part of the district to which the territory comprised within such township borough or ward is allotted by the provisions of this act according to the political division existing at the time of such census

Section 3 The first election under this act shall be held at the general election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight

The Members of the House of Representatives now in office shall continue in such office until the expiration of this respective terms

Section 4 The act approved the tenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws 455) entitled "An act to fix the number of Representatives in the General Assembly of the State and to apportion the State into representative districts as provided by the Constitution" and its amendments is hereby repealed

All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ZAPPALA. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it seems there has been some doubt in the minds of a lot of members of the House as to the constitutionality of this bill. During the week-end I made a study of the provisions of the bill so that there may be no doubt its constitutionality. I will ask the indulgence of the members of the House for just a brief few moments.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is not my purpose at this time, to go into the facts which are well known to all of the members, but I do intend to state a few principles of law which clearly determine that an apportionment act passed at this session of the Legislature is clearly constitutional.

Section 18, Article 2 of the Constitution provides:

"The general assembly at its first session after the adoption of this constitution, and immediately after each United States decennial census, shall apportion the State into senatorial and representative districts agreeably to the provisions of the two next preceding sections."

Section 17 of the same article provides:

"The State shall be divided into fifty senatorial districts of compact and contiguous territory as nearly equal in population as may be, and each district shall be entitled to elect one senator. * * * The senatorial ratio shall be ascertained by dividing the whole population of the State by the number fifty."

Section 16 of the same article provides:

"The members of the house of representatives shall be apportioned among the several counties, on a ratio obtained by dividing the population of the State as ascertained by the most recent United States census by two hundred."

The language of section 18 with reference to apportionment after each United States decennial census, is worthy of repetition. It is:

"The general assembly * * * immediately after each United States decennial census, shall apportion to the State."

The framers of the constitution used the emphatic and mandatory word "shall". No discretion is vested in the members but the duty is obligatory upon them that provisions of the section shall be followed.

The legislature is commanded by the people therefore to re-divide and re-district our State after each United State census.

The only question that can possibly arise at this time is, since the succeeding legislatures have failed to discharge their duty since the 1930 census to re-apportion the State, would an act providing for apportionment according to the 1930 census be unconstitutional at this time? In other words, does the fact that section 18 uses the word "immediately" restrict the duty and power of the legislature to the first session occurring after the decennial census, or does such word mean that the duty then arises, but its time of performance is not restricted until exercised? That exact question has never been decided by the courts of our Commonwealth.

However, we have rulings by our Supreme Court and other authorities which inferentially answer the question and decide in favor of the constitutionality of an apportionment act passed at this session of the legislature. In the case of Commonwealth ex rel Chase v. Harding, 87 Pa. Supreme Court 343, 1878, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in discussing the 14th section of the Schedule to the Pennsylvania constitution, which schedule provides:

"The General Assembly shall at the next succeeding session after each decennial census, and not oftener, designate the several judicial districts, as required by this constitution."

As stated on page 352 of this case: the duty recurs after each census, but not oftener. The Supreme Court emphasizes, thus, the fact that the provisions of that section itself restricted the power by declaring, that not oftener than the next succeeding session of the legislature after a decennial census should the judicial districts be designated. In Article 2, section 18, providing for the apportionment of the senatorial and representative districts, no such restriction or limitation upon the duty and power of the legislature appears. Thus, in applying the court's language in Commonwealth ex rel Chase v. Harding, to the proceeding involving legislative re-apportionment, the duty "recurs after each census," but the power is not restricted by language such as not oftener. Thus the duty and the power remain until exercised.

There is other persuasive authority which sustains the constitutionality of this act. In 59 Corpus Juris section 44 (page 78) appears the following language:

"The duty imposed upon the legislative department of the State government to apportion the State is mandatory, and continues until discharged. However, the Legislature cannot be compelled to act, and, when it fails at the proper time to do so, this duty falls on each succeeding legislature until performed." (underscoring ours)

In the case of Fergus v. Kinney, 333 Ill. 437; 164 N. E. 665 (1928), the Constitution of Illonois provided:

"The general assembly shall apportion the State every ten years beginning with the year 1871."

Fergus filed a bill against the State Treasurer alleging that the last re-apportionment was made in 1901 and that the General Assembly since had refused to perform that mandatory duty. He alleged that inequality through increases and decreases of population, had occurred since the last apportionment. His bill, in effect, was one designed to prevent the State Treasurer from paying the expenses of the 56th General Assembly and the salaries and expenses of that body because that body was illegally constituted due to the failure of previous legislatures to re-apportion the State. His counsel argued that the action was not to coerce the legislative branch but merely to deny it certain prerogatives until such time as it shall obey the constitution. The court at page 665 of 164 N. E. stated:

" * * * The duty imposed upon the legislative department of the State Government by this section of the Constitution is a mandatory one. * * * Neither the language nor the purpose of the section permits an escape from its performance. The duty is a continuing one, and, if it is not discharged at or within the time prescribed, the burden of its performance rests upon successive General Assemblies until the section has been obeyed. * * *

"(2) By Article 3 of the Constitution the powers of the government of this State are divided into three distinct departments—the legislative, executive, and judicial—and no person or collection of persons, being one of those departments, shall exercise any power properly belonging to either of the others, except as expressly directed or permitted by the Constitution. This article includes in its prohibition each of the three departments of the State Government, and it applies with equal force to all. No department can arrogate to itself any control over another department in matters which by the Constitution have been confided exclusively to the other department. Many constitutional duties are imposed upon the legislative and executive departments, and they are responsible to the people for a failure to perform them. Under the prohibition of Article 3, the courts cannot, in the absence of express constitutional provision to that end, coerce the performance of such duties. The Constitution enjoins upon the legislative department the duty to re-apportion the State into senatorial districts at prescribed intervals. The performance of that duty involved the exercise of legislative power, which is vested solely in the General Assembly. Another department of the State Government is powerless to compel a re-apportionment, and, apart from a constitutional amendment, the people have no remedy save to elect a General Assembly which will perform that duty. * * *"

"'Appellant's counsel however, asserts in his brief and argument that the injunction which he seeks 'is not a coercion of the legislative branch but merely a denial of certain prerogatives until such time as it shall obey the constitution.' The Legislature's failure or refusal to re-apportion the State is the sole cause of his complaint. If the next General Assembly should perform that duty, he would not thereafter seek to restrain the payment of the salaries and expenses of its membership. An injunction is the remedy or instrument by which he would compel the legislative department to discharge a particular duty enjoined upon it by the Constitution. He admits that the court cannot compel performance by a direct proceeding, but asks it to do so by an indirect process. Obviously neither is available." (Underscoring ours)

When we compare our constitutional provision, which merely states "That immediately after each United States decennial census" with that of the Illinois Constitution, which required the re-apportionment to be every ten years after the year 1871, and recall that the court despite the language of the Illinois Constitution held that the duty was a continuing one, can it be doubted that under our Constitution that the duty is now mandatory upon this present session of the General Assembly?

If the framers of the Constitution intended that only the next succeeding session of the legislature, after the census had been taken, shall be competent to enact apportionment legislation, why did they not use the language found in section 14 of the schedule to the Constitution which, as stated above, provides as to decennial designation of judicial districts as follows:

"The General Assembly shall, at the next succeeding session after each decennial census and not oftener, designate the several judicial districts as required by this constitution." (underscoring ours)

The framers of the Constitution, by using different language in Article 2, section 18, from that used in section 14 of the schedule, must be concluded to have intended each section to be governed by different rules. Such interpretation is in accordance with sound canons of construction.

In our own State, we have ample and substantial precedent for the enactment of a re-apportionment law several years after a decennial census, where no such law was enacted immediately after such census.

In 1906 Governor Pennypacker, himself a former judge, called a special session of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania. His proclamation stated that the General Assembly was to consider legislation upon the following subjects:

"Third. To re-apportion the State into senatorial and representative districts."

Pursuant to the third paragraph of the Proclamation, the Re-apportionment Act of February 15, 1906, (P. L. 21), was enacted. Section 2 of such act stated that it was made on the basis of the United States decennial census of 1900.

This act stood uncontested until repealed by the Act of May 10, 1921, (P. L. 455).

Thus the legislature, the executive and the people effected by the Re-apportionment Law of 1906 acquiesced in the construction of the Constitution permitting such legislation by the General Assembly of 1906. In 12 Corpus Juris 767, (page 715), the following statement appears:

"Legislative or executive construction of constitutional provisions, adopted and acted on with the acquiescence of the people for many years is entitled to great weight with the courts; and where not manifestly erroneous, it will not be distrubed."

Clearly, an act of re-apportionment passed at this session would not be manifestly erroneous. Again at 12 Corpus Juris 86, (page 714), we find the following statement:

"If the meaning of the Constitution is doubtful, legislative construction will be given serious consideration by the courts."

The legislature of 1906 has placed its construction upon the constitutional provision. Such construction did not forbid the exercise of the power to re-apportion several years after the duty arose.

Although there is no doubt that we cannot be mandamused to enact legislation, nor can our failure to do so be grounds for refusing pay our salary since we are a coordinate branch of the sovereign power, there is a far more cogent reason why this legislation must be passed. It is found in the oath of office which each of us have taken. Article 7 of the Constitution provides:

"Section 1. * * * I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will * * * obey * * * the Constitution * * *" (underscoring ours).

Therefore, we submit, to this House, a law enacted at this session for the purpose of re-apportioning the legislative districts of the Commonwealth in accordance with the United States decennial census of 1930, is constitutional; that the duty of re-apportionment after each decennial census is mandatory upon the members; that although it was not exercised by previous sessions of the legislature since 1930, it is a continuing duty until performed; that the precedent of Governor Pennypacker in 1906 is substantial and convincing precedent for the action of this legislature; that our oaths of office require such enactment.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think if ever there was a case on the point involved, we have a case there that was decided in 1906. I would like the members of the House to realize that this is an absolutely important measure, and I do not like them to delay through my question possibly as to the constitutionality of the act. When Governor Pennypacker called that special session, he called that session for one purpose only; that was to remedy that condition, and we in 1937 are doing exactly what was done by Governor Pennypacker in 1906, therefore, I say to the members of the House that there was no doubt about the constitutionality of the bill. I gave you a precedent established by our own Governor in 1906, and I ask each and all of you, this being a very important bill to the people of Pennsylvania and to the people at home, that you vote in favor of the bill.

Inasmuch as the members of the House are in a pretty good humor, may I call attention to the fact that there is a very prominent man here who knows constitutional law, and that is no other than Mr. Fertig, and he says there is no doubt about the constitutionality of the bill. I want the members of the House to know that he has written to me about the constitutionality of it, and he says that there is no doubt about it.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I know that the time is very late and I should not trespass upon the valuable time of the members of the House, but I assure you that I shall take no longer than ten minutes.

House Bill 1817 in the title of the Act says: "to fix the number of Representatives in the General Assembly of the State and to apportion the State into representative districts as provided by the Constitution."

This bill in Section 1 says "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That until the next decennial United States census and the apportionment be made thereon by law the House of Representatives shall consist of two hundred and nine members and shall be apportioned as follows," etc.

Therefore, if this bill is constitutional, it is constitutional because it re-apportions the districts as provided by the Constitution.

Article II, section 18 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania says: "The General Assembly at its first session after the adoption of this Constiuttion, and immediately after each United States decennial census, shall apportion the State into senatorial and representative districts agreeable to the provisions of the two next preceding sections."

However, the word upon which the construction and interpretation must be placed is that the General Assembly "shall," and it is the only provision in the Constitution whereby the General Assembly has any authority to re-apportion constitutional offices of the State.

In what is known as the "schedule" to the Constitution, in Section 14 it is provided that "The General Assembly shall, at the next succeeding session after each decennial census and not oftener, designate the several judicial districts as required by the Constitution." I submit to you as a matter of law that we have had many acts passed, we have had many constitutional amendments passed that have been acquiesced in by the people, and when acts of the Assembly, or even still further, when constitutional amendments have been passed, although they are in violation of the Constitution, but have been acquiesced in by the people, they then become the supreme law of the land. Therefore, the fact remains that if House Bill 1817 is acquiesced in, it undoubtedly will become a valid law on the statute books of Pennsylvania, as has been stated by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Zappala. Bear in mind, ladies and gentlemen, that in the interpretation of the Constitution of Pennsylvania or the Constitution of any state in the Union, the Supreme Court of that state in which the law is enacted is the authority, and not the Supreme Court of another state.

A very learned judge in a very, very recent opinion handed down this principle as the principle upon which we are to determine whether or not an Act is constitutional, and I quote from his opinion:

"A Constitution is to be construed in the popular and ordinary sense of the language used, and in the light of the circumstances attending its formation, so as to give effect to the intent of the framers and of the people in adopting it, and also with a view to carry out the general principles of government."

May I carry that further? It is the law of the State of Pennsylvania in a long line of decisions that "what the Constitution forbids may not be done, and its inhibitions need not always be expressed for they are equally effective and no less to be regarded when they arise by necessary implication." (58 Pa., 338; 251 Pa., 39; 251 Pa., 39).

I submit to you, ladies and gentlemen of the House, that the Supreme Court has time after time decided that in the making of judicial apportionment the Legislature cannot go beyond the Constitution, and the deciding factor is not the term "not oftener," but the word "shall." If the Legislature cannot violate section 14 of the Schedule of the Constitution in the matter of judicial apportionment, it cannot likewise violate Article II, section 18 as to legislative apportionment, because the same mandatory provisions are found in both sections.

May I quote to you for a minute the law, as I understand it, which has been held in a number of decisions. I quote, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, from Commonwealth versus Heck, 251 Pa., 39. In a very learned opinion of the late Mr. Chief Justice Brown, in speaking of judicial apportionment, he said:

"The manifest purpose of this provision is that the judicial districts of the State shall not be changed by the Legislature, session after session, but only at intervals of ten years, as changes in population may require. Without this provision the legislature might at each session make such changes in the several districts that, at the end of the ten-year period for which the original general designation was intended, or even sooner, there would be a complete judicial re-apportionment. This may not be done and it has been so decided."

It may be argued that the Schedule of the Constitution is not a part of the Constitution. In that connection may I quote to you from the decision of Mr. Justice Clark, in which he says: "This section belongs properly to the body of the Constitution; it is not, in any proper sense, a schedule provision; it was not intended merely to bridge the space between the old and the new systems; it is an important member of the system itself."

If the schedule or this amendment to the Constitution, as I have quoted, wherein you find a paragraph dealing with judicial apportionment, placed a restriction upon the Legislature, how much more would the same provision place such a restriction if found in the body of the Constitution?

I submit to you, ladies and gentlemen of the House, the very learned opinion of the same Chief Justice, found in 259 Pa., page 160, which is a very famous case, and while it deals with judicial apportionment I want you to listen to this language:

"If a judicial apportionment act can be passed at any session of the legislature succeeding the one immediately following such a census, the words, 'the next, succeeding session' are utterly without meaning. They were used for a purpose which is not to be thwarted by giving them the strained meaning of 'at any succeeding session.' They mean, in common parlance, 'immediately succeeding' or 'immediately following.'"

Is there any difference between "immediately succeeding" and the term in Article II, section 18 immediately afterwards? Under all the opinions, upon all constructions that I have been able to find, this bill is clearly unconstitutional. There has been something said about acquiescense; allow me to say, we should not pass laws on the presumption that the people will acquiesce to the law; we should abide by the Constitution. I throw out this challenge, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if we attempt to circumvent the Constitution in one particular, regardless of how important it may be, or how carefully we may think of the matter, we are opening the door and the time will soon come when we will circumvent the Constitution in matters which perhaps may not be to our liking. For that reason I ask you to vote against this bill as I feel the bill is clearly unconstitutional. I am heartily in accord with the facts stated by our floor leader as to the inequities which exist in our legislative districts, but be that as it may, the Constitution is above us all, and until the Constitution is changed by the will of the people and such changes become the supreme law of the land, no exigency can arise whereby we should circumvent it.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, We, the undersigned, raise the question that House Bill No. 1817, Printer's No. 1075 is unconstitutional and in violation of Article II, section 18, therefore request the Speaker to refer this question to the House for its decision.

PHILIP LOPRESTI
DENNIS L. WESTRICK
J. HAROLD LEVY
L. KENNTH HARKINS
ALBERT L. O'CONNOR

On the question,

Will the House sustain the Constitutional point of order?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there is very little that I can add either to the studied argument of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Zappala, or very little I can detract from the learned argument of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown. However, there are three or four points which have been advanced which probably require elucidation. It must be remembered that the constitutional provision pertaining to legislative apportionment differs from that constitutional provision pertaining to judicial apportionment. Up until the present time we have no decisions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on the question of legislative apportionment. The question on judicial apportionment has been decided that no judicial apportionment can be made unless it be made at the session immediately following the census. However, as the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, pointed out, the constitutional provision relative to judicial apportionment contains different language from that of legislative apportionment. In the judicial apportionment constitutional provision it is there indicated that "the General Assembly shall at the next session after the decennial census and not oftener" an affirmative declaration of the fact that judicial apportionment can be made only after the decennial census and not oftener. Those words are not contained in the legislative apportionment section. The only precedent that we can resort to is the precedent of actuality. We can resort to the precedent of 1906, where at a Special Session called by Governor Pennypacker, a Senatorial Legislative Apportionment Act was enacted and no objection was found by any of the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The gentleman from Allegheny says that we should not allow acquiescence to determine the constitutionality. I say to the membership of this House that the only thing we have at present as a precedent in determining what the constitutionality should be is the fact that this Assembly has done just the thing which we are now asking the Assembly to do, and the same reasons that possibly influenced the residents of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1906 to find no fault with the Legislative Apportionment Act in that year are exactly the same reasons that will influence the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to find no fault with our Legislative Apportionment Act in this year of 1937. It is a fact that the inequities that are existing in our legislative apportionment act go farther than even beyond the constitutional law because the constitution should not be written to perpetrate or perpetuate inequities but should rather be written to abolish them, and these legislative inequities that are now existing we have an opportunity to remove by the enactment of this act, and I ask the membership of this House to vote "no"; on this question and to hold this act as both equitable and constitutional.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, may I be permitted to answer our floor leader just on one point so that I will make myself clear? I think that it is a bad precedent to acquiesce in constitutional amendments or in any matters pertaining to the constitution. The timelock amendment is the best case in point I can give you. After the adoption of our Constitution we submitted amendments to the people at various times, these amendments were acted upon, acquiesced in and no test case was taken before the court. Then in 1920 or 1921, I don't remember clearly which, the Supreme Court came along and declared the constitutional amendment that was then before it unconstitutional, and putting us in a situation of having some amendments decided not by the constitution but by having a Supreme Court decision, absolutely at variance with the amendments that had been acquiesced in by the people. I am not discussing the facts of the case. I am saying this, if we have a Constitution, we ought to abide by it. Furthermore, on the question of dealing with judicial apportionment, in the case decided under that provision, the term "not oftener" has no significance whatsoever. The court decided the question on the term of "immediately succeeding" and on the term "shall," and the term "not oftener" is just so much surplusage.

Mr. AUKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Simon, Siegel, Hagerty, James W. Patterson, Jirolanio, Robinson, Broad, Yanoshat, Sarraf, Mellott, Samuel A. Weiss, Elpern, Vogt, Moomaw, Westrick, Finnerty, Hays, McShane, LaRue, Ominsky, Herbert B. Cohen, Nagel and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House sustain the constitutional point of order?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. LOPRESTI and Mr. WESTRICK and were as follows:

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. HARKINS filed the following reason for his vote.

I vote "no" on this bill because I believe that the enacting of a re-apportionment bill at this session of the Legislature is contrary to the provisions of Article II, section 18 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania and because it is contrary to the interpretation placed upon section 14 of the Schedule of the Constitution by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in recent decisions, by which judicial re-apportionment acts passed at sessions, other than those immediately following a decennial census, were declared unconstitutional.

Mr. LEWIS filed the following reasons for his vote:

1. I believe the bill to be clearly in violation of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

2. That its enactment will deprive the City of Philadelphia of the proper number of Representatives to which it is entitled, by the reduction of its present membership from forty-one to forty members, predicated on figures of a census over seven years old, while it is common knowledge that a census taken in Philadelphia at this time would prove our population has greatly increased since the census of 1930.

Mr. SKALE filed the following reason for his vote:

I vote "no" because I believe the bill to be in violation of Article 2, section 18.

Mr. SHEPARD filed the following reason for his vote:

I am afraid the bill is unconstitutional, but as Chairman of the Committee that reported the bill to the House I feel it is my duty to support the measure.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1390, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the General State Authority to defray the costs and expenses of the said Authority in connection with the organization administration and operation thereof

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of one million two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($1,250,000) or as much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the General State Authority for the payment of all salaries and organization and general expenses of every description as provided by the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred fifty-two)

Section 2 Payments from the foregoing appropriation shall be made to the Treasurer of the General State Authority upon requisition by the Governor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I understand that this bill provides for an appropriation of $1,250,000 to the State Authority. I would like to ask the gentleman from York whether he has any assurance that the State Authority will receive the amount of money which is being asked from the Federal Government?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I can only say this, if the gentleman from Delaware should apologize to the members from Philadelphia—

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentlemen from Philadelphia need no apology. They should be complimented.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware asked me what assurance we have that we will receive the money from the Federal Government. I will state to the gentleman from Delaware had he read the Evening Ledger of last night, he would have seen a picture and in that picture he would have seen the smiling countenance of Jack Kelly, Matt McCloskey, Colonel Janeway and Governor Earle coming out of the White House with glee written all over their faces because they had received definite assurance that Pennsylvania was to receive the money. I think that the smiles on their faces clearly indicated more than anything I could tell you that we are going to get the dough.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from York whether it was in writing.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, on advice of my counsel, the gentleman from Northampton, I am obliged to say that under these circumstances we were not dealing with Republicans and it was not necessary to have it in writing.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think I can complete my talk in four minutes. First of all I want to impress upon you you should not put too much confidence in the promises that we have received from the Federal Government. I have no objection to the appropriation to the Authority in the sum of $1,250,000 under ordinary circumstances, because I know that at least two of the members of the Authority are men who I think we can trust to utilize their very great business ability and consideration in every problem that comes before the Authority, but this is a problem that has been worrying me in the last week or so. We are appropriating this money to the State Authority as already set up, a large organization. They are contemplating the occupancy of a very sumptuous office in the city of Harrisburg for the purpose of carrying on the duties of the State Authority. That would be all right if we were to get the $56,000,000 which the Democrats are going to expend, but if the $20,000,000 which the Federal Government is asked to give us under a grant from the P.W.A.—

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know how this baseball team is going to play ball tomorrow.

The SPEAKER. Which team are you interested in?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the answer to that is if anybody knows what they are playing, I would be surprised. But in going back to serious business, after the interruption of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran, whom I have known for a long time, and who at times has lucid moments, but seriously speaking, this is a problem that I feel we ought to consider. I realize that this bill has got to be moved on its way, but there may be difficulties in the way. No one as yet has had assurance from the Federal Government that we are going to get the $20,000,000, which is the very keystone of this whole arch upon which this whole State Authority depends. I don't know whether you understand the setup but unless we get the $20,000,000 in P.W.A. funds there isn't going to be any State Authority program. To give them $1,250,000 without definite assurance of that is something that we on the Republican side do not desire to do. We have heard a lot of talk about the expeditions of the Governor down to Washington with Jack Kelly and Matt McCloskey and the rest of the contractor combine, to find out what they can get to erect the buildings, but we want to know specifically, not any of those promises from Washington, but whether we will get the money. And not like those promises we had, where we were going to get the money for relief, $5,000,000 a month which we didn't get, the $10,000,000 we spent on W.P.A. workers, who didn't get their checks on time, and other instances. Therefore, I would like the gentleman from York to be a little more specific and not to quote newspaper figures and promises of the Governor and statements made after they returned from a visit with the President and so forth. Are we going to get the $20,000,000?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the interrogation of the gentleman from Delaware, I am going to say we are going to get the $20,000,000, we are going to get it, and if he continues to talk he is going to get it.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, all I have to say is if he is going to give it to me, I can use it.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, just asked the gentleman from York to be more specific and not to quote the newspapers. Will the gentleman from Delaware tell us if he did not quote from a letter that he got from a supposed "Oswald" last week. He quoted that all through, and he wondered where the money was coming from. "Oswald" seems to be the fellow that gave him that information.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I don't know what this is all about. Just the same "Oswald" is all right.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

SPECIAL ORDER ON SENATE BILLS RESCINDED

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that that part of my motion making Senate bills special orders be rescinded.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1640, as follows:

A Supplement to the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred thirty-six) entitled as amended "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment establishing a system and schedule of compensation providing procedure for the determmination of liability and compensation thereunder and prescribing penalties" as amended and re-enacted providing for the inclusion of occupational diseases within the scope thereof and providing definitions provisions and procedure related to such diseases and making an appropriation

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That

Section 1 This act shall be known and be cited as the "Occupational Disease Compensation Act"

Section 2 The term "occupational disease" as used in this act shall mean and include the following diseases

(a) Poisoning by lead mercury arsenic or manganese their preparations or compounds in any occupation involving direct contact with handling thereof or exposure thereto

(b) Poisoning by phosphorus its preparations or compounds in any occupation involving direct contact with handling thereof or exposure thereto

(c) Poisoning by methanol carbon bisulphide hydro carbon distillates (naphthas and others) or halogenated hydro-carbons or any preparations containing these chemicals or any of them in any occupation involving direct contact with handling thereof or exposure thereto

(d) Poisoning by benzol or by nitro amido or amino derivatives of benzol (dinitro-benzol anilin and others) or their preparations or compounds in any occupation involving direct contact with handling thereof or exposure thereto

(e) Caisson disease (compressed air illness) resulting from engaging in any occupation carried on in compressed air

(f) Radium poisoning or disability due to radio-active properties of substances or to roentgen-ray (X-rays) in any occupation involving direct contact with handling thereof or exposure thereto

(g) Poisoning by or ulceration from chromic acid or bichromate of ammonium potassium or sodium or their preparations direct contact with handling thereof or exposure thereto

(i) Infection or inflammation of the skin or other contact surfaces due to oils cutting compounds lubricants dust liquids fumes gases or vapor in any occupation involving direct contact with handling thereof or exposure thereto

(j) Anthrax occurring in any occupation involving the handling of or exposure to wool hair bristles hides or skins or bodies of animals either alive or dead

(k) Silicosis or anthraco-silicosis in any occupation involving direct contact with handling of or exposure to dust of silicon dioxide (sio^2)

(l) Asbestosis in any occupation involving direct contact with handling of or exposure to the dust of asbestos

Section 3 The several provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act to which this act is a supplement shall be applicable to this act insofar as they are consistent with terms hereof In applying the Workmen's Compensation Act to this act the Workmen's Compensation Act shall be construed as including in addition to "injury" and "personal injury" by accident "occupational disease" and the resultant effects thereof including death The word "disabled" as herein used means disabled from earning full wages in the employment in which the employe was employed

"Disability" as used herein means the state of being so disabled The date when the disability occurs from occupational disease shall be deemed to be the date of injury or accident

Section 4 When an employer and employe shall be subject to the provisions of article three of the Workmen's Compensation Act as therein provided compensation for occupational disease shall be paid in all cases by the employer according to the schedule provided in such act subject however to the special terms and conditions relative thereto as set forth in this act

Section 5 (a) Compensation for silicosis or anthraco-silicosis or silicosis anthraco-sisicosis complicated by infection and asbestosis shall be paid only when it is shown that the employe has had an aggregate employment of at least two years in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania during a period of eight years next preceding the date of disability in an occupation having a silica or asbestos hazard

(b) Compensation shall not be payable for partial disability due to silicosis anthraco-silicosis or asbestosis Compensation shall be payable as otherwise provided in this act for total disability or death caused by silicosis anthraco-silicosis or asbestosis or by silicosis anthraco-silicosis or asbestosis when accompanied by infection Silicosis anthraco-silicosis or asbestosis in any stage when accompanied by infection shall be deemed to be and shall be compensated as total disability

Section 6 (a) If it shall be shown that the employe at or immediately before the date of disability was employed in any process or employment set forth in section two it shall be presumed that the occupational disease is due to the nature of that employment This presumption however shall not be conclusive

(b) An employer shall be liable for the payments prescribed by this act for the occupational diseases described in section 2 hereof when disability of an employe resulting in loss of earnings shall be due to an employment in a hazardous occupation in which he was employed and such disability results within two years after the last exposure in such employment or in case of death resulting from such exposure if such death occurs within five years following disability from such disease

Section 7 (a) In the case of such occupational diseases as the Workmen's Compensation Board shall determine develope to the point of disablement only after an exposure of five or more years the compensation for disability or death due to such diseases shall for a period of ten years immediately succeeding the effective date of this act be payable jointly by the Commonwealth and the employer as follows If disability occurs or if no compensable period of disability occurs if death occurs during the first year in which this act becomes effective the employer shall be liable for and pay one-tenth of the compensation for such disability or death and the remainder of such compensation shall be paid by the Commonwealth out of moneys to the credit of the Second Injury Reserve Account in the State Workmen's Insurance Fund Thereafter for each successive year of such ten-year period in which disability occurs or if no compensable period of disability occurs if death occurs the employer shall be liable for and shall pay one-tenth more of such compensation and the remainder of such compensation shall be paid by the Commonwealth out of moneys to the credit of the Second Injury Reserve Account in the State Workmen's Insurance Fund After the expiration of such ten-year period the employer shall pay the compensation for disability or death occurring thereafter in full

(b) The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000-.00) is hereby appropriated out of the General Fund to the State Workmen's Insurance Fund to the credit of the Second Injury Reserve Account and is hereby appropriated for the carrying out of the purpose of paragraph (a) of this section The aforesaid sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) shall as soon as practical be repaid into the General Fund of the State Treasury out of moneys to the credit of the Second Injury Reserve Account in the State Workmen's Insurance Fund and such moneys are hereby appropriated to the State Workmen's Insurance Board for this purpose

Section 8 In any action brought after the effective date of this act in any court by an employe against his employer who has elected not to be bound by the provisions of Article III of the Workmen's Compensation Act and such action is based upon a claim by the employe for damages for personal injury resulting from an occupational disease proof on the part of the employe that he had been subjected to a physical examination by such employer and that he had been discharged by such employer within one year after such examination or proof of discharge by such employer and the further fact that the employe was unable to secure other employment within six months of the date of such discharge by reason of the presence of an occupational disease in any stage shall be prima facie evidence of negligence on the part of such employer In any such action it shall not be a defense on the part of any employer

(a) That the injury was caused in whole or in part by the negligence of a fellow employe or

(b) That the employe had assumed the risk of the employment or

(c) That the injury was caused in any degree by the negligence of such employe or

(d) That the employe was exposed to the hazard of such disease in any other employment more than two years prior to the date of such action

The Statute of Limitations in any such action for personal injury resulting from an occupational disease shall commence to run from the date of the last exposure to the hazards of such disease in the employment of the defendant.

Section 9 The employer in whose employment the employe was last exposed in a hazardous occupation and the insurance carrier if any who was on the risk at the time of the last exposure in such employment shall be liable for any payments required by this act the notice of injury and claim shall be made to such employer

Section 10 In all cases involving claims for the occupational disease listed in section 2 hereof except in those cases wherein there are no controverted medical issues between the parties the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee may appoint and in all cases involving silicosis or anthraco-silicosis or asbestosis shall appoint one or more duly qualified impartial physicians or surgeons or experts in accordance with section 420 of the Workmen's Compensation Act to be selected from a panel to be submitted by the Secretary of Labor and Industry which panel shall be made up of names selected from lists submitted by the Deans of all legally recognized Medical Schools in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania The Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee shall order the claimant to subject himself to such clinical pathological and Roentgen examinations as in the opinion of such physicians surgeons or experts may be necessary to determine whether or not the claimant has contracted or is suffering from the disease for which claim has been filed After examination the physicians surgeons or experts so appointed shall file with the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee a written report setting forth their opinion with respect to the following medical questions

(a) Whether or not the claimant is disabled as the result of an occupational disease described in section 2 hereof and in death cases whether or not death was caused by one of such occupational diseases

(b) If the claimant is disabled as the result of an occupational disease described in section 2 hereof their opinion as to the extent of such injury

All proceedings for compensation shall be suspended upon the refusal of a claimant or claimants to submit to such clinical pathological and Roentgen examinations as may be ordered by the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee

Upon the filing of a claim for compensation for death from an occupational disease where an autopsy is necessary accurately and scientifically to ascertain and determine the cause of death such autopsy shall be ordered by the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee upon the written recommendation of the physicians surgeons or experts appointed in such case The Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee may designate in such case a duly licensed physicians who is a specialist in such examinations to perform such autopsy or attend such autopsy if made by any other public authority and to certify his findings thereon Such findings shall be filed with the Workmen's Compensation Board and a certified copy thereof shall be filed with the State Department of Public Health and shall be a public record

The reports and findings of the physicians surgeons or experts so appointed by the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee shall be considered by the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee as medical evidence in said cause together with any other medical evidence offered on behalf of the claimant or employer At the time of any hearing of said cause the physicians surgeons or experts so appointed by the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee shall appear and be subject to examination and cross-examination by the parties to said cause

Section 11 The Workmen's Compensation Board or any Workmen's Compensation Referee shall have power to issue an order authorizing the entry of any physician surgeon or expert upon the premises of the defendent employer in order to ascertain the facts in any case arising under this act

Section 12 It is hereby determined to be the legislative intent that if this act cannot take effect in its entirety because of the decision of any court holding unconstitutional any part hereof the remaining provisions shall be given full force and effect as if the part held unconstitutional had not been included herein

Section 13 This act shall become effective on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from York having rescinded part of his motion, this was one of the bills.

The SPEAKER. It applied only to Senate bills.

Mr. HUNTLEY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, an employe is disabled just the same whether he has received an injury or contracted a disease. It is just as reasonable that he should be insured in one instance as well as the other. I cannot ascribe to the theory that industry cannot take on this insurance and pass it on to the consumer, because it is insuring the man who works, the man who dons his overalls and soils his hands to produce something worth while, the man who digs something useful out of the resources of nature, the man who is the real producer of wealth. In our scheme of economy he is an essential part, and indispensable part. Neither employers nor consumers could function without him. It is just as essential that he be taken care of as the grooming of a beast of burden or the repairs of a machine. It is fair that he receive this care as a share of a part of the wealth which he has helped to create. Society can well afford to bear the burden of that which is so essential to the welfare and preservation of society itself. Neither can I accept the argument that this class of legislation will hurt industry. How can industry be injured by helping the employe who earns all that he gets? Legislation that hurts industry is that which compels them to pay employes for that which they do not earn. They are a special privileged class of quasi-loafers, racketeering to get something for nothing. However, so many of this class have been directly and indirectly legislated on the payrolls that it is questionable whether the men who really work can carry the load. I believe that compensation for occupational diseases is economically sound, it is socially and morally right. I therefore advocate the passage of this bill.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

DISCHARGE OF COMMITTEE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, because of the conditions that exist and the imminency of the closing of the session I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to object but I am wondering if the resolution will provide coffee and sandwiches for breakfast.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia is invited to breakfast in the morning if he can get up at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not want to impose upon you, but this is rather an important matter. I introduced a bill in January providing for the creation of a coal commission with an appropriation of one million dollars. I am not going to go into detail about the matter. I had a prepared statement to deliver tonight, but the hour is so late and I know you men want to go home that I will not impose upon you, but seriously speaking we have had a report from the Coal Commission appointed by the Governor. In substance the Commission agreed upon this, that the bootlegging was caused by unemployment, that bootlegging was wrong, that you could not blame the bootleggers, that something ought to be done about it. That cost us thirty-three thousand dollars. I felt from the beginning of this session—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of order.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware has not stated the purpose for which he has arisen.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman asked unanimous consent to introduce a resolution.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman introducing a verbal resolution?

The SPEAKER. The Chair was wondering about that. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the introduction of the resolution? Are there objections? The Chair hears none and consent is granted.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, my resolution is a privileged resolution.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman asked and received what he asked for.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, it is a privileged resolution. It will only take a minute to read.

The SPEAKER. This is a privileged resolution. The Clerk will read the resolution.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 24, 1937.

Resolved, That the Committee on Mines and Mining be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 129, entitled "An Act creating a Coal Region Restoration Commission to formulate, adopt and put into effect a long range program to alleviate and remedy economic and social conditions in the anthracite and bituminous coal regions of this Commonwealth: defining the powers and duties of said commission and making an appropriation," said bill having been in the hands of said Committee for a period of ten days and more having been referred on January 13, 1937.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

RESOLUTION LAID ON TABLE

Mr. AUKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the resolution be laid on the table.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Downey, who is Chairman of the Committee on Mines and Mining, and myself—

The SPEAKER. The question before the House is on the motion of the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Aukerman, which is not debatable.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, I was just asking the members, in view of the fact that the gentleman from Delaware—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is out of order. The question is not debatable.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. TURNER and Mr. SCHROCK and were as follows:

The uniform budget forms required by this act shall be prepared by the Department of Public Instruction which shall issue said forms and distribute them annually as needed to the school districts

On the question,

Will the House agree to the question?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on State Government.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Harkins.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARKINS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman mind allowing this bill to pass second reading before he does that?

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I do not desire that the bill pass second reading at this time. I desire to make my motion to recommit the bill before it passes second reading.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Harkins.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARKINS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Allegheny Mr. Harkins, advise the House what the State Government Committee has to do with a bill which pertains to education.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, my purpose in making my motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on State Government is because this bill involves constitutional officers and I feel that it should also be studied by the Committee on State Government.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this motion and ask the members of the House to vote against the recommittment of this bill because the bill practically gives tenure to a certain class of people.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I think that the gentleman from Allegheny did not mean it when he said that this pertained to constitutional officers, and I cannot help but think that the only purpose of recommitting this bill at this time is for the purpose of killing the bill. This is a form of tenure. It applies to county superintendents. The gentleman from Allegheny was much in favor—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of order.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, in my opinion the gentleman from Delaware Mr. Turner is discussing the merits of the bill.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The gentleman will confine his remarks to the question before the House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER. All those in favor of the motion give their consent by saying "aye".

MOTION TO TABLE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the motion be laid on the table.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, the question was put to the body and the affirmative vote was taken. I think that a motion to lay upon the table after the affirmative vote has been taken is out of order.

The SPEAKER. The point of order of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tumelty, is well taken. A motion to recommit is a privileged motion, which cannot be laid upon the table.

POLL OF THE HOUSE REQUESTED

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a poll of the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware Mr. Turner asks for a poll of the House. The request is ruled out of order. The House cannot be polled during the taking of a vote.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, I second the request.

The roll was called by the Clerk.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, there is not a constitutional majority or a quorum voting on this motion.

The SPEAKER. The vote has not yet been announced.

Mr. TURNER. I want to be on the safe side, and therefore, I raise the question before the Chair announces the vote.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will have to rule the gentleman out of order. The result has not been announced.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. TURNER and Mr. McDEVITT.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1937. 132d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 21. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 25, 1937. No. 65.

SENATE

TUESDAY, MAY 25, 1937

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Our Father, we offer a psalm of thanksgiving, for blessings without number, moment by moment, flooding our lives.

As the end of our pilgrimage draws near, we thank Thee for things accomplished; grant unto us strength and courage for the unfinished task.

We thank Thee for that tolerance, whereby men of divergent interests and convictions may labor together in good will; and

"Coward he who dare not be In the right with two or three."

Yet teach us to know the virtues of an open mind.

In all things, may Thy wisdom overrule the common good, to the happiness of our people, to the glory of our God. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. RANKIN, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal approved.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I have before me a piece of literature that is headed "State Board News," which appears to be printed by and with the consent of the Liquor Control Board of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and I am informed positively that this literature is paid for by the funds of the liquor stores. A piece of this literature is placed in every package that is sold by the Liquor Control Board through its State liquor stores all over the State of Pennsylvania.

I am calling this to the attention of the Senate in view of the address of his Excellency, The Governor, last night, in regard to lobbyists' presence in these assembly halls, and I wish to state this, that the presence of a certain group of lobbyists in the interest of the Liquor Control Board and the liquor business of this Commonwealth is very much in evidence in these halls, and we who are members of the Assembly feel it very keenly when we leave the railings of this Senate, and we also, many of us, are aware that this powerful group of liqour lobbyists are exerting their influences on the members of this Senate, and I have grown to believe that they are exerting their influences upon the Liquor Control Board, which, in turn is doing all in its power to influence the consideration of these bills here in this Senate.

I wish to read just a few paragraphs from this piece of literature. "The Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, contrary to popular belief, cannot deprive a liquor law violator of his license nor can the Board refuse a license to unfit people. The final say is with the Courts. As a result, in some sections of Pennsylvania unfit places flourish like weeds.

To revoke a license, the Board must petition the local Court. What is the result? Four out of five revocations are refused.

When the Board refuses to issue a license, an appeal can be taken. What is the result of such appeal? Three out of four are granted.

There are hundreds of tap rooms and clubs flourishing in Pennsylvania today which, in the opinion of the Liquor Control Board, have no right to exist, and the Board is powerless to eliminate them. Now, the Board is human, and therefore subject to some mistakes, in fact, in all fairness they should be forgiven. Some mistakes are inevitable. But taken by and large, a Board which knows more about liquor conditions than any other authorities, must be right oftener than the rulings of the Courts would indicate. Now, Mr. President, these words, I say are an awful indictment on the courts of the Commonwealth. From the words that I have read, there is not only the innuendo, but in positive words the assertion that the Courts of our Commonwealth are so degraded and so incompetent that they are assisting liquor law violators to carry on in our Commonwealth.

In another paragraph in this piece of literature we find this: "The direct power to suspend and revoke licenses also is transferred to the Liquor Control Board, under the McGinnis bill. This power now is in the hands of the Courts, who has used it in all too many cases to interfere with the Board's drive against licensees who have violated the law. In numerous instances, the Courts have actually protected the violators from loss of their licenses. We do not believe this will happen with the Control Board entrusted with the power to revoke or suspend licenses."

Another very serious indictment of the Courts of our Commonwealth is that they are protecting violators, and that this little agency here, created by the Legislature, the Liquor Control Board, will be more valuable and dignified to enforce the laws of this Commonwealth. Now,

Mr. President, I am for free speech, and if this literature had been printed by private citizens, or if it had been printed by the liquor interests, at their own expense, and circulated throughout the Commonwealth, nobody could find any fault, but Mr. President, this piece of literature is written or printed by an agency of the Government, the Liquor Control Board, and paid for out of the finances of the people who finance the whole Liquor Control Board. And for what purpose? To stiltify and degrade the Judiciary Department of our Commonwealth, and I would be very recreant to the oath of office that I have taken to defend the Constitution and the laws of this State if a piece of literature like this would pass my attention and not call it to the attention of my colleagues here in the Senate. I say again, and I contend that it is the freedom of speech of any citizen of this Commonwealth to criticize and condem the Courts of this Commonwealth, but I further say that we should not stand idly by and see a commission or agency of the Government stultify and degrade the major department of our Government, that is the Judiciary Department, and, Mr. President, I offer this piece of literature and ask that it be spread upon the minutes of this Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The communication will be made a matter of record in the Senate Journal.

ADDITIONAL POWER TO CONTROL THE LIQUOR BUSINESS IS ASKED FROM THE LEGISLATURE BY THE BOARD

Power to Revoke Licenses Should Equal Power to Grant Liquor License

"What is everybody's business is nobody's business."

That situation in substance applies to the licenses for taprooms and clubs in Pennsylvania. It accounts for a considerable part of such liquor abuses as have existed since Repeal.

The Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, contrary to popular belief, cannot deprive a liquor law violator of his license nor can the Board refuse a license to unfit people. The final say is with the courts. As a result, in some sections of Pennsylvania unfit places flourish like weeds.

To revoke a license, the Board must petition the local court. What is the result? Four out of five revocations are refused.

When the Board refuses to issue a license, an appeal can be taken. What is the result of such appeals? Three out of four are granted.

There are hundreds of taprooms and clubs flourishing in Pennsylvania today which in the opinion of the Liquor Control Board, have no right to exist and the Board is powerless to eliminate them.

Now, the Board is human and therefore subject to some mistakes. In fact, in all fairness they should be forgiven some mistakes as inevitable. But taken by large, a Board which knows more about liquor conditions than other authorities must be right oftener than the rulings of the courts would indicate. The Board knows that conditions in Pennsylvania cannot be improved, that the business cannot be properly regulated unless the responsibility is somebody's business. In several states there is no appeal from Board decisions.

This Board, however, asks no such power. It asks in the proposed changes in its law, that courts be allowed to review the decisions of the Board but that the trial and hearing of evidence be confined strictly with the licensing authority.

The book "After Repeal" sponsored by the Institute of Public Administration says, "The right to revoke is in our opinion the only enforcement weapon needed for the elimination of violations of licensee, and the licensing administration should be the principal law-enforcement agency." It was this Institute, financed by public-spirited men, that wrote the model law upon which Pennsylvania based its present liquor monopoly system. Pennsylvania was the first to adopt this model law and Pennsylvania should be among the first to adopt the change as quoted above and made public in "After Repeal," November, 1936.

The acts (Senate 341, 342 and 343) which embody these changes, are written with due consideration for the opinion of all parties concerned and have substantial approval from leaders in the liquor and beer industry, from taprooms and clubs as well as temperence organizations .The changes have been submitted to the Governor and given the approval of the Administration. Only a minority is making opposition and their argument is based on the theory that no Board should possess such complete control.

Now, a liquor license is not a property right. It is a privilege—a privilege which may be granted and taken away by the state. It is the key to successful liquor control. What will be done about this privilege will be decided by the people in their Legislature.

What much of the press thinks of these changes is embodied in the following editorial from the "Pittsburgh Press" of April twentieth.

MERITORIOUS CHANGES

"The Legislature can strengthen the state liquor control act by passing the McGinnis bills, now before the Senate for final reading.

These measures are designed to eliminate its worst defects and provide teeth where they are now lacking. We believe the bills, if enacted, will do both.

For example, they tighten the regulations governing clubs so that it will be difficult for anything but a bona fide club to obtain a license to sell liquor. Under the McGinnis bills, clubs must be in existence for a year, instead of six months as at present, before applying for licenses. They are prohibited from selling between the hours of 2 a. m. to 7 a. m., the same as other licensees. Records must be maintained in accordance with requirements of the Liquor Control Board. And, finally, the board is empowered to refuse licenses if it appears that the charter of the club "is not in possession of the original incorporators or their direct legitimate successors."

These are important changes in the present law. The Board now is hampered in its drive on "one-man clubs" by legal restrictions of various kinds. The amendments proposed in the McGinnis bills would untie the board's hands and give it the power it should have to cope with violators.

The McGinnis bills also eliminate the county treasurer as the licensing power for beer parlors, transferring this authority to the Liquor Board. This is a desirable change for the Board has been handicapped by the fact that while responsible for enforcement, it has not had complete licensing power. To function effectively ,it should be responsible both for licensing and enforcement.

The direct power to suspend and revoke licenses also is transferred to the Liquor Control Board, under the McGinnis bill. This power now is in the hands of the courts, who have used it in all too many cases to interfere with the Board's drive against licensees who have violated the law. In numerous instances, the courts have actually protected violators from loss of their licenses. We do not believe this will happen with the Control Board entrusted with the power to revoke or suspend licenses.

Finally, the McGinnis measures re-establish the system of permitting licensees to sell beer in bottles for off-the-premises consumption. Beer now must be purchased in case lots or from beer parlors for home consumption. The amendment proposed would once more permit neighborhood stores to sell beer, a system far more convenient to consumers than the present one.

The McGinnis bills were introduced at the request of the Earle Administration and the Liquor Control Board and are based upon careful study of the law's present defects. They merit the Legislature's prompt approval."

BILLS SIGNED

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bills had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

Senate Bill No. 357, entitled:

The seventeenth section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 17 This act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized hereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I move to amend page 14, by inserting between the Lines 21 and 22, the following: "Section 17. No city or borough shall acquire con, demn, construct or begin to operate any plant, system, equipment or other facilities under any provision of this act for the rendering or furnishing to the public of any service of the kind or character already being rendered or furnished by any public sevice company until the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission shall have first found, determined and ordered after public hearing upon notice to all parties affected, that such acquisition, condemnation, construction or operation is necessary and proper for more adequate and sufficient service to the public concerned."

Amend Page 14, Line 22, by striking out after the word "Section" the number "17" and inserting in lieu thereof the number "18."

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. KILGALLEN Mr. President, this bill is an obligation to third class cities and to boroughs, and the bill is also an obligation to investors of capital, and if this law is now in existence, as Chairman of the Committee from which the bill came has stated, I thought it good sense and reasonable and proper that these investments should be protected to the extent that is now required in these amendments.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. KUNKEL and Mr. JASPAN and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—27

Barthold,	Ealy,	Lanius,	Rice,
Cavalcante,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Rupp,
Chapman,	Gilson,	Mundy,	Scarlett,
Dando,	Heyburn,	Owlett,	Sones,

Deitrick,	Jacobs,	Pierson,	Wolfenden,
Dent,	Kahle,	Rankin,	Woodward,
DiSilvestro	Kilgallen,	Reed

Erce,	Jaspan,	Law,	Shapiro,
Frey,	Kunkel,	Ruth,	Stiefel,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The eighteenth section of the bill was read as follows and agreed to

Section 18 The sections and provisions of this act are severable and are not matters of mutual essential inducement and it is the intention to confer the whole or any part of the powers herein provided for and if any of the sections or provisions or parts thereof are for any reason illegal it is the intention that the remaining sections and provisions and parts thereof shall remain in full force and effect

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I move to amend page 14, line 28, by striking out after the word "Section" the number "18" and inserting in lieu thereof the number "19".

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, will the Senator from Blair state the purpose of these amendments?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, the purpose of these amendments and the effect of the amendments are that where a municipality seeks to set up a plant. as referred to in the Act, it shall firt be determined by the Public Utilities Commission whether or not the service being rendered is inadequate, and if the service is inadequate, then the commission would give to the municipalities authority to set up new lines.

Mr. President, it is my understanding that when the committee meeting was called to consider this bill, it was called to be held in the Lieutenant Governor's office, and, without any intention, I was told, not to show any discourtesy, and what I would like them to know is that I was told that the meeting was held elsewhere, and I suggested to the Chairman of that Committee that I had desired to offer these amendments, and the Chairman of that Committee told me that the amendments met with his approval. I just want to make that statement.

The nineteenth section of the bill was read as follows and agreed to:

Section 19 This act shall take effect immediately upon final enactment.

The title of the bill was read as follows:

An Act to authorize the acquisition improvement construction operation and maintenance of electric light and gas systems by cities of the third class and boroughs authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds of such cities and boroughs payable solely from earnings to pay the cost of such systems providing for the fixing of rates and collection of charges for the payment of such bonds and for the cost of maintenance operation and repair of such systems providing for condemnation authorizing the issuance of revenue refunding bonds and providing that no debt of such cities or boroughs shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the title?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I move to amend title, page 1, line 1, by inserting after the word "authorize," the following: "subject to certain conditions." Amend title, page 1, line 9, by inserting after the word "providing" the following: "subject to certain conditions".

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Stiefel, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, as one of the new Senators I have postponed making speeches on the floor, but there are two insurance bills of importance here that the lobbyists are trying to create opinions against the passage of these bills. Now, in good old England, there was a custom that when a fellow violated the law, they would string him to a pole in the middle of the street to make an example of him. I pledge here today that the first lobbyist who complains about Senate Bill 754, I shall follow the example of good old Merrie England.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I would like to have the opportunity of seconding the Senators motion, providing it includes the heads of our administration departments as well.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL NO. 639

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, now that there has been an interruption, I ask unanimous consent to present a report of the Committee of Conference on Senate No. 639 (House Bill No. 2172), entitled:

An Act to protect the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively creating the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board officers of the State government and courts providing for the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively declaring certain labor practices by employers to be unfair further providing that representatives of a majority of the employes be the exclusive representatives of all the employes authorizing the Board to conduct hearings and elections and certify as to representatives of employes for purposes of collective bargaining empowering the Board to prevent any person from engaging in any unfair labor practice and providing a procedure for such cases including the issuance of a complaint the conducting of a hearing and the making of an order empowering the Board to petition a Court of Common Pleas for the enforcement of its order and providing a procedure for such cases providing for the review of an order of the Board by a Court of Common Pleas on petition of any person aggrieved by such order and establishing a procedure for such cases providing for an appeal from the Common Pleas Court to the Supreme Court providing the Board with investigatory powers including the power to issue subpoenas and the compelling of obedience to them through application to the proper court providing for service of papers and process of the Board prescribing certain penalties.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none. The report will be noted on the calendar.

NAYS—0

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 371, as follows:

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the amendment to this bill limits the salaries and fees paid to Registers of Wills in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. When the bill was first introduced, it provided a limitation of fees from an estate to $5,000., which, together with the salaries paid to Registers of Wills in first and second-class cities, would have given $10,000. to the Registers of Wills. The bill has since been amended to increase the limitation of estate fees to $10,000., and you haven't any conflict by the passage of this rate, and there is a provision in it giving the right to the State to collect a certain tax pending against certain corporations.

I am going to vote in favor of this bill, but I want to place myself on record as saying that I do not agree with the same and that I am voting for a principle enunciated by this bill, namely, that there shall be a limitation upon the amount of fees the public officials may receive for performing a State duty in connection with their offices. In my opinion the salary of $10,000 for the Register of Wills in Philadelphia is more than ample to compensate him for the duty he performs in our particular county, and as a matter of fact he performs no duties, he merely keeps an office and pays counsel a salary of $7500., a lawyer who solves all legal problems for him, and, as a matter of fact, the office is only an adjunct of the Orphans' Court, and the Clerk of the Orphans' Court has charge of all those duties, and he performs the duties with less expenses and a smaller payroll.

I hope that when the city and county merger plan is finally consummated and a Commission appointed under the new City Charter Act, it will take into consideration that fact and correct the condition, therefore, I am asking the Senate to vote in favor of the amendments for the reason that I believe that in this jurisdiction the condition should be corrected, and until that is corrected this bill should become a law.

An Act to amend sections twenty-one and forty-seven of the act approved the twentieth day of June one thousand nine hundred nineteen (P. L. 521) entitled as amended "An Act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a nonresident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth or national banking association located therein to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association standing in the name of any such decedent until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid and providing penalties and citing certain acts for repeal" by providing for the filing of bond with the Department of Revenue and by limiting the amount to be retained by registers of wills for their own use for collection of inheritance taxes as agents of the Commonwealth

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That Section twenty-one of the Act approved the twentieth day of June one thousand nine hundred nineteen (P. L. 521) entitled as amended "An Act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a nonresident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth or national banking association located therein to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association standing in the name of any such decedent until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid and providing penalties and citing certain acts for repeal" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 21 The registers of wills upon their filing with the [Auditor General] Department of Revenue the bond hereinafter required shall be the agents of the Commonwealth for the collection of the said tax in the case of resident decedents For services rendered in collecting and paying over the same they shall be allowed to retain for their own use upon the gross amount collected during any year five per centum upon the tax collected if such tax shall amount to a sum of fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars or less three per centum on the amounts collected in excess of fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars one per centum on the amounts collected in excess of one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars and not over two hundred thousand ($200,000) dollars and one-half of one per centum on the amounts collected in excess of two hundred thousand ($200,000) dollars and not over one million ($1,000,000) dollars and one-quarter of one per centum on the amounts collected in excess of one million ($1,000,000) dollars Provided that the total amounts to be so retained by such registers of wills for their own use shall not exceed the total sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) during any year

Section 2 That section forty-seven of the said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 47 The act approved May sixth one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven entitled "An act to provide for the better collection of collateral inheritance taxes" and the amendments and supplements thereto and the act approved the eleventh day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen entitled "An act for the imposition and collection of certain inheritance taxes" and all other acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed but nothing in this repealer shall affect or impair the lien of any taxes heretofore assessed or any tax due owing or payable or any remedies for the collection of the same or to surrender any remedies powers rights or privileges acquired by the Commonwealth under said act approved May sixth one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven entitled "An act to provide for the better collection of collateral inheritance taxes" its amendments and supplements and the said act approved the eleventh day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen entitled "An act for the imposition and collection of certain inheritance taxes" or to relieve any person or corporation from any tax or penalty imposed by said acts Provided That the registers of wills shall not retain any amount for their own use for the collection of taxes under said acts as agents for the Commonwealth which was returned from the House of Representatives with amendments.

Said amendments having been twice read, and printed as required by the Constitution,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 749, as follows:

An Act to amend Section Four Hundred Ten as amended and Four Hundred Eleven of the Act approved the Seventeenth Day of May One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-One (P. L. 682) entitled "An Act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" requiring companies of other states and foreign governments to make a provision for loans in policies of life insurance prohibiting any provision by which a policy of life insurance would take effect before the original application was made

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Represntatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That Sections Four Hundred and Ten of the Act approved the Seventeenth Day of May One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-one (P. L. 682) entitled "An Act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" as amended by the act approved the fifteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (P. L. 1020) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 410 Uniform Policy Provisions No policy of life or endowment insurance except policies of industrial insurance where the premiums are payable monthly or oftener shall hereafter be issued or delivered by any stock or mutual life insurance company in this Commonwealth unless it contains in substance the following provisions

(a) A provision that all premiums shall be payable in advance either at the home office of the company or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by one or more of the officers of the company who shall be named in the policy

(b) A provision that the insured is entitled to a grace either of thirty days or one month within which the payment of any premium after the first year may be made subject at the option of the company to an interest charge not in excess of six per centum per annum for the number of days of grace elapsing before the payment of the premium during which period of grace the policy shall continue in full force but in case the policy becomes a claim during the said period of grace before the overdue premium or the deferred premiums of the current policy year if any are paid the amount of such premiums with interest on any overdue premiums may be deducted in any settlement under the policy

(c) A provision that the policy shall be incontestable after it has been in force during the lifetime of the insured two years from its date of issue except for nonpayment of premiums and for engaging in military or naval service in time of war without the consent in writing of an executive officer of the company and that at the option of the company provisions relative to benefits in the event of total and permanent disability and provisions which grant additional insurance specifically against death by accident may also be excepted

(d) A provision that the policy shall constitute the entire contract between the parties but if the company desires to make the application a part of the contract it may do so provided a copy of such application shall be endorsed upon or attached to the policy when issued and in such case the policy shall contain a provision that the policy and the application therefor shall constitute the entire contract between the parties

(e) A provision that if the age of the insured has been misstated the amount payable under the policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age

(f) A provision that the policy shall participate in the surplus of the company and that beginning not later than the end of the third policy-year the company will annually determine the portion of the divisible surplus accruing on the policy and that the owner of the policy shall have the right to have the dividend arising from such participation paid in cash or applied to the payment of premium or the purchase of paid up additions to the policy as the policyholder may elect

In lieu of the foregoing provisions the policy may contain a provision that the policy shall participate in the surplus of the company and that beginning not later than the end of the fifth policy-year the company will determine the portion of the divisible surplus accruing on the policy and that the owner of the policy shall have the right to have the current dividend arising from such participation paid in cash and that at periods of not more than five years thereafter such apportionment and payment at the option of the policy-holder shall be had

Renewable term policies of ten years or less may provide that the surplus accruing to such policies shall be determined and apportioned each year after the second policy-year and accumulated during each renewal period and that at the end of any renewal period or renewal of the policy by the insured the company shall apply the accumulated surplus as an annuity for the next succeeding renewal term in the reduction of premiums

(g) A provision specifying the options to which the policy holder holder is entitled in the event of default in a premium payment after three full annual premiums shall have been paid

(h) A provision that after three full years' premiums have been paid the company at any time while the policy is in force will advance on proper assignment or pledge of the policy and on the sole security thereof at specified rate of interest a sum equal to or at the option of the owner of the policy less than the reserve at the end of the current policy year on the policy and on any dividend additions thereto less a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy and of any dividend additions thereto and that the company will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness on the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the curret policy-year and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy-year which provision may further provide that such loan may be deferred for not exceeding six months after the application therefor is made A company may in lieu of the provision hereinabove permitted for the deduction from a loan on the policy of a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy and of any dividend additions thereto insert in the policy a provision that one-fifth of the entire reserve may be deducted in case of a loan under the policy or may provide therein that the deduction may be the said two and one-half per centum or the one-fifth of the said entire reserve at the option of the company

(i) A provision which in event of default in premium payments after premiums shall have been paid for three years shall secure to the owner of the policy a stipulated form of insurance the net value of which shall be at least equal to the reserve at the date of default on the policy and on any dividend additions thereto specifying the mortality table and rate of interest adopted for computing such reserves less a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy and of any existing dividend additions thereto and less any existing indebtedness to the company on the policy Such provision shall stipulate that the policy may be surrendered to the company at its home office within one month from date of default for a specified cash value at least equal to the sum which would otherwise be available for the purchase of insurance as aforesaid and may stipulate that the company may defer payment for not more than six (6) months after the application therefor is made This provision shall not be required in term insurance of twenty years or less

(j) A table showing in figures the loan value if any and the options available under the policy each year upon default in premium payments during at least the first twenty years of the policy and if the proceeds of the policy are payable in installments or as an annuity a table showing the amount of the installment or annuity payment

(k) A provision that the holder of a policy shall be entitled to have the policy reinstated at any time within three years from the date of default in premium payments unless the policy has been duly surrendered or the extension period expired upon the production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of all overdue premiums and any other indebtedness to the company upon said policy with interest at the rate of not exceeding six per centum per annum

(l) A provision that when a policy shall become a claim by the death of the insured settlement shall be made up receipt of due proof of death

Any of the foregoing provisions or parts thereof not applicable to single premium or non-participating or term policies shall to that extent not be incorporated therein [and paragraph (h) shall not apply to companies of other States and foreign governments] Provided however That the policies of an insurance company organized under the laws of any State or foreign government may contain

when issued in this Commonwealth any provision which may be prescribed by laws of the State or government under which the company is organized and the policies of a life insurance company organized under the laws of this Commonwealth may when issued in any other State Territory or foreign country contain any provision required by the laws of such State Territory or foreign country to be contained in policies issued therein

Section 411 Prohibited Policy Provisions No policy of life insurance shall be issued or delivered in this Commonwealth by any stock or mutual life insurance company organized under the laws of any other State or country or be issued by any stock or mutual life insurance company organized under the laws of this Commonwealth except policies of industrial insurance where the premiums are payable monthly or oftener if it contain any of the following provisions

(a) Any provision for forfeiture of the policy for failure to repay any loan on the policy or to pay interest on any such loan while the total indebtedness on the policy is less than the cash value thereof In ascertaining the indebtedness due upon the policy loan the interest if not paid when due shall be added to the principal of such loan and shall bear interest at the rate specified in the note or loan agreement

(b) Any provision limiting the time within which any action at law or equity may be commenced to less than two years after the cause of action shall accrue

(c) Any provision by which the policy shall purport to be issued or to take effect [more than six months] before the original application for the insurance was made if thereby the assured would rate at an age younger than his age at date when the application was made according to his age at nearest birthday

(d) Any provision for a mode of settlement at maturity of less value than the amount insured on the face of the policy plus dividend additions if any less the indebtedness to the company on the policy and less any premiums that may by the terms of the policy be deducted

which was returned from the House of Representatives with amendments.

Said amendments having been twice read, and printed as required by the Constitution,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 894, as follows:

An Act to ratify and adopt a compact or agreement negotiated by commissioners designated by the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and commissioners designated by the Governor of the State of Ohio relative to the development use and control of the Pymatuning Lake and the State owned land surrounding said lake for fishing hunting and park purposes

Whereas Commissioners for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and Commissioners for the State of Ohio negotiated a compact or agreement relative to the development use and regulation of Pymatuning Lake and the State owned land surrounding said lake for fishing hunting recreational and park purposes and

Whereas Such compact or agreement has been executed in duplicate one for each State on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by and through the Water and Power Resources Board and on behalf of the State of Ohio by and through the Conservation Division which compact or agreement is contained in the following words

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA AND THE STATE OF OHIO RE PYMATUNING LAKE

THIS AGREEMENT made and concluded between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania acting by and through its lawfully authorized agency namely the Water and Power Resources Board as party of the first part and the State of Ohio acting by and through its lawfully authorized agency namely its Director of Conservation as party of the second part

WITNESSETH

Whereas By act of Assembly of Pennsylvania approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 1503) as amended by the acts approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 84) the twenty-fourth day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws 67) and the ninth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws 619) the Department of Forests and Waters of Pennsylvania acting through the Water and Power Resources Board was authorized inter alia to complete the work begun and continued under an act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P L 1270) entitled "An act providing for the erection of a dam at the outlet of Pymatuning Swamp and the establishment of a reservoir to conserve the waters thereof providing for the taking of land and materials necessary thereto vesting certain powers and duties in the Water Supply Commissoin and making an appropriation" and did duly complete said work whereby there was created a lake or reservoir now known and hereinafter called Pymatuning Lake extending in part across the boundary line between said States of Ohio and Pennsylvania into the State of Ohio and

Whereas The primary purposes of the project by which said lake was created was to conserve water draining said swamp all of which has its source in Pennsylvania as well as control floods and regulate the flow of water in the Shenango and Beaver Rivers and secondary thereto permit the water and the land surrounding the same to be used for fishing hunting recreational and park purposes under such terms and conditions as the Water and Power Resources Board might determine in such way or ways as in the opinion of the said board will not materially interfere with the primary purpose in said acts of assembly and hereinbefore specifically referred to and

Whereas In view of the fact that a certain part of the lake extends into the State of Ohio whereby it is necessary and desirable that the use of the lake for the secondary puropses namely hunting fishing and recreational use be uniformly provided for as well as to guard against inconveniences and mischiefs which might hereafter arise from the uncertainty or jurisdiction within and on said lake to the end that the lake may be adequately policed and conflicts of jurisdiction for the arrest and punishment of offenders be avoided

Now then Therefore In order that law and justice may in all cases be executed and take effect upon said lake from shore to shore in all parts and places thereof where the lake is a boundary between said states the said parties hereto do agree for and in behalf of their respective states in the manner following

1. General Use

It is hereby agreed that the entire Pymatuning Lake or Reservoir subject to the primary use thereof by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for regulating the flow of the water in the Shenango and Beaver Rivers as in Paragraph 9 hereinafter more specifically mentioned shall be open for recreational use equally to the citizens of both contracting parties save as restricted as to hunting fishing and boating in this agreement set forth or hereafter mutually agreed upon by both parties but no person shall be permitted to hunt or fish therein or thereon unless the lawful holder of a fishing or hunting license authorizing him or her so to do issued by the proper authorities of Pennsylvania or of Ohio

2. Arrest and Prosecution of Offenders

That each state shall enjoy and exercise a concurrent jurisdiction upon the water (but not upon the dry land) between the shores of said lake including the islands therein with respect to the arrest and prosecution of offenders but in such sort that any boat or vessel fastened to or aground on the shore of either state shall be considered exclusively within the jurisdiction of said state but that all capital and other offenses trespasses or damages committed on or over said lake the judicial investigation and determination thereof shall be exclusively vested in the state wherein the offender or person charged with such offense shall be first apprehended arrested prosecuted or first brought to trial it being the intent of this agreement that an offender may be pursued and arrested anywhere on or over said lake or shores thereof or islands therein regardless of the boundary line by any peace officers or persons of either state authorized to make arrests whether the offenses be committed on or over any part of the lake on the shores or islands therein regardless of the state in which the place where the offense was committed lies

3 Islands

All islands within the lake shall be considered as part of the State of Pennsylvania

4. Pollution of Water

The lake shall forever be protected against pollution of its waters by industrial trade waste individual or municipal sewage from shore or boat and the discharge of any noxious or deleterious substance liquid or solid into the waters of the lake which is or may become inimical or injurious to public health or to animal or aquatic life is hereby expressly forbidden

No sewage may be discharged into the waters of the lake except after complete treatment and then only upon permit first approved by the Health Department of both States

5 Boats and Vessels

No power or motor boats nor hydroplanes or aquaplanes shall be permitted anywhere on said lake except such police or administration motor boats to the number which shall be mutually agreed upon by the parties hereto Sail boats row boats and canoes shall be permitted provided they first obtain a license from the respective state of which the owner is a resident under such regulations as each party to this agreement may now have or hereafter adopt

6 Fishing

Any person possessing a duly issued fishing license by either state shall be permitted to fish anywhere on the entire lake (except such portion thereof as is closed to shing by Paragraph 8 hereof or such further portion as may hereafter by regulatiin be mutually agreed to by the parties hereto) but no fisherman shall be entitled to fish from the shores of the state of which he is a nonresident unless he complies with the non-resident fishing license law of said state

In order to permit the fish to fully propagate and develop no part of the lake shall be open for fishing until the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven and thereafter shall be closed in each year between the tenth day of December and the thirtieth day of June

Until otherwise mutually agreed to by both parties hereto the creel size and season limits for the respective kinds of fish caught shall be such as may hereafter be agreed upon between the two states

7 Reciprocal Hunting Rights

Reciprocal hunting rights are hereby granted to the licensed hunters of each state on the water of that portion of the lake both in Pennsylvania and Ohio over the area bounded on the south by an east and west line crossing the State boundary five-tenth of a mile north of Simons Ohio and on the north by a line drawn between the point at which the Padanaram Road crosses the State boundary and a point formerly known as the Polleck Bridge but such reciprocal hunting rights hereby granted shall extend only to such wild migratory birds as are covered by the Federal Migratory Bird Treaty and Federal Laws adopted thereunder

Hunting in such portions of the lake as are not included in the area above described and designated shall be and remain under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

No permanent blinds shall be erected anywhere on the lake and shores thereof but these provisions shall not be interpreted as forbidding the use of a boat as a blind temporarily moored to or grounded on the shore of the lake or islands thereof

8 Wild Game and Fish Sanctuaries

A The Game Commission of the State of Pennsylvania having established a wild migratory bird and game sanctuary or refuge in that part of the lake located southeast of the Pennsylvania Railroad Crossing it is expressly agreed that nothing herein contained shall be interpreted as entitling the residents of either state whether licensed to fish or hunt or otherwise to fish or hunt trespass or enter upon said sanctuary for any purpose whatsoever Anyone so doing shall become amenable to prosecution therefor under the Game Laws of the State of Pennsylvania applicable to game refuges

B The Conservation Division of the Department of Agriculture of the State of Ohio having established a fish sanctuary and game refuge in the following portion of the lake

Being the southerly parts of Lots Numbers 79 and 80 Richmond Township all of Lot Number 41 and all of Lot Number 42 except the westerly 1000 feet thereof in Andover Township Ashtabula County Ohio

Beginning at a point in the west line of Lot Number 79 that is 1523 feet south of the north line of Lot Number 79 also being the center line of Padanaram Road thence southerly along the County Highway along the westerly side of Lot Number 79 1869.5 feet to the north line of Andover Township thence westerly along the northerly line of Andover Township 939.7 feet to the northwest corner of Lot Number 41 thence southerly along the highway that marks the westerly line of Lot Number 42 1000 feet to a point thence of Lot Number 42 thence easterly along the north line of Lot Number 42 1000 feet to a point thence in a southerly direction parallel to and 1000 feet easterly from the westerly line of Lot Number 42 2734 feet more or less to the southerly line of Lot Number 42 thence easterly along the said southerly line of Lot Number 42 5180.4 feet to the Ohio and Pennsylvania State line thence northerly along the said Ohio and Pennsylvania State line 7297.6 feet more or less to a point that is 1523 feet southerly from the north line of Lot Number 80 thence in a westerly direction 1523 feet southerly from and parallel to the north lines of Lots Numbers 79 and 80 5260 feet more or less to the place of beginning

It is expressly agreed that nothing herein contained shall be interpreted as entitling the residents of either state whether licensed to fish or otherwise to fish in hunt trespass or enter upon said sanctuary for any purpose whatsoever Anyone so doing shall become amenable to prosecution therefor under the laws of the State of Ohio applicable thereto

9 Reservation of Pennsylvania's Right to the Body of the Water

It is expressly agreed that nothing herein contained shall operate to deny limit or restrict the right of the Water and Power Resources Board of Pennsylvania or any authority established hereafter by said state to exercise such power to at any time now or hereafter raise or draw off so much of the waters of the lake as in their sole judgment may be necessary to maintain or regulate the flow of the Shenango and Beaver Rivers in furtherance of the primary purpose for which said lake was established and said Water and Power Resources Board shall without let or hindrance have the full right irrespective of other considerations to release so much of the water as they may deem proper to maintain the flow of the Shenango and Beaver Rivers irrespective of its effect on the level of the lake or use thereof for other purposes

In witness whereof The parties hereto have hereunto set their respective hands and seals by for and under the authority of their respective states this 28th day of October 1936

B Except as otherwise provided in the by-laws each director shall be elected for a term of one year If the articles or by-laws of a beneficial society so provide the directors thereof may be classified in respect to the time for which they shall severally hold office In such case each class shall be as nearly equal in number as possible the term of office of at least one class shall expire in each year and the members of a class shall not be elected for a shorter period than one year or for a longer period than three years At each ensuing election of directors after such classification only the number of directors equal to the number of the class whose terms expire at the time of the election shall be elected and such directors shall be elected for the longest term for which any class may have been elected as provided in this section

C Except as otherwise provided in the by-laws vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled by the remaining members of the board and each person so elected shall be a director until his successor is elected by the shareholders or members who may make such election at the next annual meeting of the shareholders or members or at any special meeting duly called for that purpose and held prior thereto

D Except as otherwise provided in this act the business and affairs of every beneficial society shall be run and regulated in accordance with the provisions provided by existing law relating to insurance companies

Section 4 Holding Management or Agency Corporations The business and affairs of each beneficial society shall be conducted and managed by its elected officers No contracts or agreements shall be entered into by any society with any holding management or agency corporation by which the control of the management of the society would pass to such holding management or agency corporation nor any person or persons holding management management or agency corporation by which the control of the management of the society would pass to such person or persons holding management or agency corporation nor through which percentages or portions of the members due and other payments would be paid over to them

Section 5 Reserves A A beneficial society doing business in this Commonwealth shall hereafter at all times maintain reserves as follows

(1) On the life portion contained in all policies or contracts hereafter issued reserves shall be based upon a standard table of mortality approved by the Insurance Commissioner with interest at a rate also approved by the Insurance Commissioner and such reserves shall be computed in accordance with the requirements provided by law for the computation of the reserve liability for life insurance

(2) On the disability portion contained in all policies or contracts hereafter issued reserves shall be computed in accordance with the requirements provided by law for the computation of the unearned premium reserve liability for casualty insurance

(3) For all definite and outstanding claims reserves shall be calculated in accordance with the requirements provided by law for the computation of reserves against unpaid losses in casualty insurance other than compensation or liability insurance

B A sum equal to the amount of the reserves required by this section shall be invested in those investments authorized by law for the investment of the reserve funds of life insurance companies

C The Insurance Commissioner shall each year approve the computation of the reserve liability as of the thirty-

first day of December of the preceding year of every beneficial society authorized to make insurance on lives in this Commonwealth

D Whenever any beneficial society doing business in this Commonwealth has not on hand the net value of all policies in force after all other debts and claims against it have been provided for the Insurance Commissioner shall notify such beneficial society to issue no new policies until its funds become equal to its liabilities

Section 6 Investment of Surplus The surplus of a beneficial society or a re-incorporated mutual beneficial society shall be invested in accordance with the requirements provided by law for the investment of the surplus of life insurance companies

Section 7 Annual Statements Penalties A Every beneficial society doing business in this Commonwealth shall annually on or before the first day of March file in the office of the Insurance Commissioner a statement which shall exhibit its financial condition as of the thirty-first day of December of the previous year and its business of that year Such statement shall be in the form prescribed or on forms furnished by the Insurance Commissioner and shall contain such information as shall seem to the Commissioner best adapted for the purpose of eliciting from the beneficial society a true exhibit of its financial condition It shall also within thirty days after requested by the Insurance Commissioner render such additional statement or statements concerning its affairs and financial condition as the Insurance Commissioner may in his discretion require

B Any beneficial society which neglects to make and file its annual statement in the form or within the time required by this section shall forfeit a sum of not more than one hundred dollars for each day during which its failure to file a statement continues and upon notice from the Insurance Commissioner its authority to transact new business shall cease while its default continues

C A beneficial society and the persons who make an oath or subscribe to a false annual statement in its behalf shall severally be punished for wilfully making a false annual statement by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars or more than five thousand dollars A person who makes oath to such false statement with the knowledge that it is false shall be deemed guilty of perjury

Section 8 Examinations The Insurance Commissioner or any person or persons he may appoint shall have the power of visitation and examination into the affairs of every beneficial society He may employ such additional assistance from time to time as he may deem necessary or expedient for the purpose of such examination and he or any person or persons he may appoint shall have free access to all the books papers and documents that relate to the business of the society and may summon and qualify as witness under oath and examine its officers and employes or other persons in relation to the affairs transactions and conditions of the society Such examinations shall be made every three (3) years or oftener as he deems it to be necessary and the costs of such examinations as determined by the Insurance Commissioner shall be imposed upon each society so examined

Whenever after examination the Insurance Commissioner is satisfied that any beneficial society is exceeding its powers or is transacting business fraudulently or is in such condition that its further transaction of business will be hazardous to its members or to the public or shall determine to discontinue business the Insurance Commissioner may present the facts relating thereto to the Attorney General who shall if he deems the circumstances warrant proceed against such society in the method prescribed by the laws of this State providing for the liquidation of insolvent or delinquent companies orders or associations transacting any class of isurance

No such proceedings shall be commenced by the Attorney General against any such society until after notice has been duly served on the chief executive officers of the society and a reasonable opportunity given to it on a date to be named in said notice to show cause why such proceedings should not be commenced No application for injunction against or proceedings for the dissolution of or appointment of a receiver for any beneficial society or branch thereof shall be entertained by any court of this Commonwealth unless the same is made by the Attorney General

Section 9 Copies of Policies Contracts and Certificates of Membership to Be Filed With and Approved by The Insurance Commissioner No policy contract or certificate of membership shall be issued or delivered by any beneficial society in this Commonwealth nor applications riders or endorsements used in connection therewith until the forms of the same have been submitted to and formally approved by the Insurance Commissioner under such reasonable rules and regulations as he shall make concerning the terms and provisions contained in such policies contracts or certificates of membership and their submission to and approved by him

Section 10 Qualifications of Solicitors and Agents Solicitors or agents for beneficial societies shall meet the same prerequisites as existing law requires of agents for insurance companies

Section 11 When Application Constitution By-Laws and Rules are Considered Part of Policy All beneficial certificates issued by any beneficial society in which the application of the member the constitution by-laws or other rules of the society form part of the certificate or contract between the parties thereto or have any bearing thereon shall contain or have attached thereto correct copies of the application as signed by the applicant or the constitution by-laws or other rules referred to and unless so attached and accompanying the certificate or contract such application constitution or by-laws or other rules shall not be received in evidence in any controversy between the parties to or interested in the certificate or contract nor shall such application constitution by-laws or other rules be considered a part of the certificate or contract between such parties

Section 12 Penalties A Any person or beneficial society violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars for each violation thereof

B Upon satisfactory evidence of the violation of any of the sections of this act by any beneficial society the Insurance Commissioner may in his discretion pursue any one or more of the following courses of action (1) Suspend or revoke the certicate of authority of such offending beneficial society (2) refuse for a period of not to exceed one year thereafter to issue a new certificate of authority to such beneficial society (3) impose a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each and every act in violation of this act

Before the Insurance Commissioner shall take any action as above set forth he shall give written notice to the beneficial society accused of violating the law stating specifically the nature of such alleged violation and fixing a time and place at least ten days thereafter when a hearing of the matter shall be held After such hearing or upon failure of a duly authorized representative of the accused beneficial society to appear at such hearing the Commissioner shall impose such of the above penalties as he deems advisable The beneficial society may appeal from any action by the Commissioner pursuant to the section to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County

Section 13 Scope of Act Provisions of this act shall not apply to

(1) Beneficial associations which are formed by or for the exclusive benefit of those who at the time of becoming members of such associations are engaged in educational work in any department or district of the public school system of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or in any college or university therein and which issues beneficiary certificates only to such members

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence,

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to explain my reason on the record for voting 'aye' on this bill. This bill attempts to correct a condition which exists in Philadelphia and I am quite sure all over the State, where a man who lives on one side of Pine Street pays a $90 rate for insurance and the man who lives on the other side pays $60, and the man who lives in the northern end of the city pays a lesser or greater rate than the man who lives within a few miles of the place. This was a bill framed by the Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, who is charged with the duty of seeing to it that Insurance companies maintain the rate which is fair in the first place, and which. secondly, would permit them to maintain a solvency for the benefit of those persons who carry insurance and particularly for the benefit of people who may be injured by financially irresponsibile persons who want to carry insurance. Of course, this bill is not as important as the anti-barber bill and this bill is not as important as the bill to regulate paperhangers, this bill was only framed by the man who is charged with that responsibility, the man who is the commissioner of the insurance, after a careful study and after a public hearing, at which both sides were represented and their views expressed, and therefore it is logical and proper that this bill should receive the treatment that it has on the floor of the Senate. I am recording my reasons for voting 'aye' on this bill, so that when the people of Pennsylvania read the record they will not think that the ten members who voted against this bill were in the ridiculous position of voting for the bill.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 754, entitled:

An Act to amend the title and to add a new sub-division (h) and two new sections six hundred and seventy-six and six hundred and seventy-seven to the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws six hundred eighty-two) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" by establishing one or more rating bureaus for the classification of risks underwriting rules premium rates and schedule or merit rating plans applying to all classes of insurance except fidelity surety accident and health which may be transacted by any stock or mutual casualty company or exchange.

An Act to repeal the laws relating to the Lancaster County Prison, and relating to the election of a board of inspectors to manage said prison.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, as I said last night, and I say again that I have no personal interest in this bill whatsoever; it does not affect the county which I represent. So that the bill would be put on the calendar, I agreed with the sponsor of the bill that this bill was to be recommitted for further study after second reading. I made a motion last evening to put this bill on the postponed calendar, but the motion was defeated, and I then asked that the bill be recommitted to the Committee from which it came. In compliance with an agreement made with the sponsor, in Committee, I ask that this bill go over in its order.

The President. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 966, (House Bill No. 731), entitled:

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1310, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two and four of the joint resolution approved the twenty-ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Act No. 127) entitled "A joint resolution authorizing the appointment of a commission to make a thorough and impartial investigation into the operation of the oil industry in this Commonwealth with special reference to the adequate efficient and economical supplying of lubricating oils and gasoline to the people of this Commonwealth conferring upon the commission full power to issue subpoenas requiring the commission to make a report of its findings to the Governor together with its recommendations as to such regulatory legislation as may be needful to correct any abuses and evils connected with such industry which are prejudicial to the interests of the citizens of this Commonwealth authorizing the commission to employ counsel and employes and making an appropriation" by authorizing the several Courts of Common Pleas upon application to adjudge persons refusing to comply with subpoenas of the commission in contempt of court and by increasing the appropriation to the commission.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to inquire whether this bill was in the Committee on Appropriations?

I would like to call the Senate's attention to the fact that this is another $50,000 for an investigation of some kind.

I would like to have this bill go over in its order.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, the interrogation was whether or not this item was in the Appropriation Committee. I would say that the record shows that this bill was reported from the Committee of Appropriations.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask whether Mr. Keyes will soon be through with his work for the committee, and whether this $50,000 is to take care of him?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Berks, Mr. Ruth, answer the question of the Senator from Tioga?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President. if the question is directed to me, I would say that from the evidence we have, there is plenty of room for Mr. Keyes and for half a dozen of his calibre to investigate.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I want to say that this will be given to the same commission which employed Mr. Keyes, and the question of how the money will be spent will be left to a commission of distinguished citizens appointed by the Governor, or three of them, one by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and one by the Speaker of the House.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I do not like to take up the time of the Senate unduly on this, but I have before me here a letter addressed to the Governor and to the Members of the General Assembly, which are signed by the commission which was appointed to investigate the oil industry, by the Chairman, and three other members, which reads as follows:

"OIL INDUSTRY INVESTIGATION COMMISSION"
Authorized by the Act of April 29, 1937.

To The Honorable George H. Earle,
Governor, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and
The members of the General Assembly,
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:

In authorizing the creation of the Oil Industry Investigation Commission you directed that it should be a commission "whose duty it shall be to make a careful, thorough and impartial investigation into the operation of the oil industry in this Commonwealth," with special reference to:

1—"The adequate, efficient and economical supplying of lubricating oils and gasoline to the people of this Commonwealth at reasonable prices not inconsistent with the fair costs of production and distribution," and

2—"To ascertain and report to the Governor as soon as possible its findings as to whether or not the oil industry is so affected with the public interests as to require statutory regulation," and

3—"(To report to the Governor as soon as possible) its recommendations, if any, as to legislation needful to correct any abuses and evils connected with the whole operation of the oil industry in this Commonwealth which are prejudicial to the interests of its citizens."

Your commission is ready and willing to carry out those instructions, which involve, however, a detailed study of a highly complex industry, with special reference to the production covering seven or nine counties; the transportation across Pennsylvania and importation into Pennsylvania of crude petroleum, involving a tremendous financial and business set-up; the refining, involving not only the large companies but a number of independent operators; and the great marketing and distributing organizations scattered in every corner of the State of Pennsylvania.

To do a good job here requires that a study be made:

1st: Of the production field, including the type of production lease; the equity with which producers are being treated by the large companies; the methods by which they may dispose of their raw product; and the opportunities for further development in this field, having in mind the protection of the Pennsylvania crude petroleum product.

2nd: Next it will be necessary to study the refining end of the business, which involves not only the seven large combinations, but forty or more independent refineries, with a view of determining not only the cost of production, the various methods used, the chemical analysis of the product, but also a determination of the qualities under which they operate and the tendency toward monopoly, which it is alleged is very evident.

3rd: There are more than 30,000 retail dealer outlets in Pennsylvania. The Commission has already received reliable written complaints about price cutting, unfair competition, attempts on the part of large organizations to drive out the independent businessmen, the use of fake leases, the subsidizing of gasoline stations and other practices which, if true, cannot but destroy the independent businessman and lead to the maintenance of an improperly maintained high price and the milking of the public.

4th: It will be necessary to make a study of all the law in Pennsylvania relating to the crude petroleum industry, as well as a comparative study, of the law in neighboring competitive states, such as New York, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia and Ohio. In addition, a study must be made of the Federal law, insofar as it would tend to limit the field of action of an individual state.

5th: Hearings will be necessary to give he people an opportunity to present to the Commission the information they have regarding conditions in the industry, and, in addition, to afford opportunity to representative groups within the industry to present their side of the case. Those hearings will be held, in all probability in Philadelphia, Scranton, Erie, Oil City, Franklin, Pittsburgh and such other places as later developments may show advisable.

These are only a few of the questions which under your instructions will need thorough and careful investigation.

To do that work will require the hiring of lawyers, stenographers, clerks, engineers, certified public accountants, petroleum experts, statisticians and a large group of investigators. That you must have realized this necessity to some extent is evident from the bill creating the Commission, a portion of which reads: "The Commission may employ and fix the compensation of such counsel, experts, clerks and assistants as may be deemed necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the Commission." That is an excellent recognition of the fundamental necessity. The rub comes in the next sentence: "The sum of $5,000.00, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby specifically appropriated" not only to hire all of the people necessary as counsel, experts, clerks and assistants, but for the purpose of paying all of the other expenses of the Commission, such as the expenses of the members, telephone and telegraph charges, witness fees, the cost of supplies and printing and any other expense necessary.

A brief consideration of this entire problem, it is submitted, will convince you of the utter impossibility of carrying out your instructions with so limited financial means. The undertaking which you have assigned the Commission is fundamental, wide-spread in its significance and of the utmost importance to the people of Pennsylvania. We of the Commission desire to do a good job. It is impossible even to do a fair job with the resources you have so far allowed. We have, therefore, requested that the appropriation be increased to $50,000.00, the clear necessity for which is evident in the matters set forth.

In one sentence, Gentlemen—you cannot investigate a Five Billion Dollar industry with Five Thousand Dollars.

Respectfully submitted,

Ralph H. Smith, Chairman.
Wiliam H. Godfrey
John E. McComb
Edward Jackson Thompson

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I feel constrained to say a few words about this bill, for the reason that I represent one of the oil producing districts of Pennsylvania.

As everyone in this Senate knows, a very small proportion of the oil and petroleum products sold within the State of Pennsylvania is produced in this State. We of Pennsylvania, are peculiarly fortunate in the out put of oil from Pennsylvania for lubricating purposes is of the highest grade in this country. Mr. President, and members of this Senate, I want to point out the fact that the oil business in all its ramifications covers the whole territory of the United States. It is a physical impossibility, it is a practical impossibility, for any commission with $50,000 or $100,000 to make any kind of an investigation that would be worth one iota to the citizens of this State. Now we all know that this matter has been investigated time and again in Washington, it is an inter-state proposition and for us to throw away the money of this State, $50,000 to a commission which can only touch the surface of an industry involving this whole country, these whole United States, it seems to me perfectly silly. Of course, this commission wants more money, they want to employ experts and they want to employ accountants, and when we get through the report of this commission will be just like so many other reports, it will be filed away and nobody will ever see it again.

Mr. President, I think it is a shameful waste of the taxpayers money to spend $50,000 for an investigation of an industry that involves this whole country, and which is not a state problem, it is a national problem as we all know. We up in the oil section of the country are not at any state loss to protect that industry, as I know you are all anxious to protect that, as the letter of the commissioner states. It cannot be done by this kind of a commission and I ask the Senate to vote down this bill.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I want to say that I cannot agree with the Senator from Tioga, as to the position of the people on this. I represent an oil producing territory of Pennsylvania, I represent the city which was the birth-place of the oil industry in the United States and in America, the City of Titusville, and the people of the oil district want an investigation. One of the things that he has referred to is the fact of the high grade of the oil produced in Pennsylvania. I have talked to some of the members of this Commission and one of the things that they propose to do is to investigate the question of the sale of oil not produced in Pennsylvania, as Pennsylvania Oil, which is one of the abusives that is working against the interests of the oil producers of Pennsylvania, and in view of all this, I ask the members of the Senate to support this bill to give real power and their financial assistance to this committee.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I think the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, has made the best speech in support of the bill that can be made. I certainly would not want to concede to the Senator from Tioga that there is any business so big that it is bigger than the Government of Pennsylvania, and I certainly would not concede to the Senator from Tioga that some of the concerned who were importing oil into this state to the disadvantage of the Pennsylvania oil producers, distributors and retailers, that they should be so far above the action of this State Government as to be not even subject to investigation. We all realize from the discussion that has taken place on this floor here before, that this is a big job and needs a big appropriation. The committee is substantially powerless to do the work with the appropriation as it was in the original bill. If we are going to try to protect the oil industry from some of the people who have gotten into it, people who have no interest in the State of Pennsylvania, we have to have some money to work with. The commission I know, wants to do a good job, and I may say that the vast majority of the people interested in the oil business in this State are so much interested in this business today, Mr. President, that they have voluntarily agreed that they shall be subjected to a small tax which came over here this morning in House Bill 2057, which the House passed, which will furnish ample finances to take care of this appropriation.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I want to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Centre, whether he is a member of the commission to investigate the oil industry.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Centre what experience he had.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I have had no experience in drilling an oil well or anything like that, but I have got a little experience in buying gasoline and oil.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, has the Senator from Centre had any experience in the refining industry?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, no, I have had no experience in refining oil.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Adams, the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Adams, Mr. Rice, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee whether he knows that New York State has just completed an investigation of this situation and they spent $200,000.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I did not.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, does the Senator from Adams know that they have introduced what they consider corrective legislation as a result of that investigation.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I am not aware of that.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I understand that investigation has been made and I understand that another investigation has been made in California. I would suggest that the findings of that commission be used or at least be read before we spend $50,000. I think you will find that the bill to which the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, referred, is similar to a bill introduced in the Legislature in the State of New York, and that bill is the result of an investigation. I suggest that the bill be voted down or go over in its order.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I think the fact that New York has seen fit to spend $200,000, and has from that spending obtained a study of the oil situation in New York State, upon which a good bill will be made, certainly is an additional jurisdiction of Pennsylvania spending $50,000 to take care of our situation.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I believe in commissions and I believe in investigations. This Senate right now is cutting the appropriations to hospitals right down to the bone, without regard to humanity, and at the same time I cannot see the logic of sitting here and giving the commission $50,000 or $5,000, $10,000, $15,000 or $50,000 to create a commission that God knows who may read the report. I am opposed to making this kind of an appropriation to any commission.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1322, entitled:

An Act to further amend section one of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws 275) entitled "An act to provide for the appointment of county and city inspectors of weights and measures providing for their compensation and expenses prescribing their duties prohibiting vendors from giving false or insufficient weights and fixing the penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof" by eliminating certain conditions of removal of inspectors and providing for their appointment in counties of the first class

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws 275) entitled "An act to provide for the appointment of county and city inspectors of weights and measures providing for their compensation and expenses prescribing their duties prohibiting vendors from giving false or insufficient weights and fixing the penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof" as last amended by the act approved the nineteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen (Pamphlet Laws 1102) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the mayors of cities of the second and third class and the several boards of county commissioners shall respectively appoint one or more competent persons as inspectors of weights and measures in the respective county or city whose salary shall not be less than one thousand dollars per annum to be paid out of the respectice revenues of such county or city Provided however That the payment of a minimum salary shall not apply to counties having a population of fifteen thousand or less In addition to the salary provided by law the said county and city inspectors shall be entitled to receive the actual expenses incurred by them personally in performing the duties of their office such as transportation hotel livery telephone telegraph and postal charges to be paid by the boards of county commissioners of their respective counties and by the proper officers of their respective cities in such proportion as may be agreed upon by said boards of county commissioners and proper officers of cities on bills itemized and properly sworn to Provided however That nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent two or more counties or any county and city from combining the whole or any part of their districts as may be agreed upon by the board of county commissioners and mayors of cities with one set of standards and one inspector upon the written consent of the chief of the bureau of standards Provided further In cities of the first class the inspectors shall be appointed by the county commissioners of the county in which the said city may be located Any inspector appointed in pursuance of an agreement for such combination shall subject to the terms of his appointment have the same authority and duties as if he had been appointed by each of the authorities who are parties to the agreement The county and city inspectors of weights and measures as appointed by the respective counties and cities shall hold their office during good behavior [and shall not be removed discharged or reduced in pay or position except for inefficiency incapacity conduct unbecoming employes or other just cause and until the said officials shall have been furnished with written statements of the reason for such removal discharge or reduction and shall have been given reasonable time to make written answer thereto Nor shall such removal discharge or reduction be made until the charge or charges shall have been examined into and found true in fact by the appointed power of such county or city at a hearing upon reasonable notice to the person charged at which time he may be represented by counsel and offer testimony or witnesses in his own behalf] It shall be unlawful for any sealer or inspector of weights and measures or any of his deputies to perform clerical or other services for the county or city of their respective districts

All the appointments made under the provisions of this act by the county commissioners in counties of the first class shall be equally divided between the majority commissioners and the minority commissioners so that the majority commissioners shall name one-half of all appointees and the minority commissioners shall name one-half of all the appointees The provisions of this act apply to persons presently employed as well as to persons to be employed in the future and the county commissioners shall comply therewith within thirty days of the passage of this act.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, and members of the Senate this bill, 1322, is the twin sister to Bill 856, which was defeated a few moments ago. This bill of itself has no value, because it depends on the passage of No. 856. If Bill 856 had passed, the County Commissioners would have been able to divide the patronage in our county. This bill would simply fix the rules and regulations under which that patronage could be disposed of. The bill by itself has no value to anybody, neither Republican or Democrat, and I hope the members of the Senate will follow the precedent just established in the previous bill and vote against it.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, does not Senate Bill No. 856 have to deal with the matters of election officers?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, no, Senate Bill No. 856 has to do solely with the question of employees in the county commissioners office, and has absolutely nothing to do with the election of officers.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, is Senate Bill 856, not a bill amending a bill dealing with election officers?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, that bill is not before the Senate. At this time bill No. 1322 is before the Senate. Bill No. 856 has been voted on and defeated.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, is not Senate Bill No. 1322, a bill dealing with the matter of inspectors of weights and measures, and not inspectors of elections?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, it is a matter dealing with the inspectors of weights and measures, that is correct. The other bill, 856, that we have put back to committee, was on the question of patronage, and in the patronage that would have been obtained or given out by the county commissioners would be included two men who are employed in the Department of Sealers of Weights and Measures. This present bill provides in the case of employees who are employed by the county commissioners. This will put rings around the county commissioners and tell them why, how and under what conditions these particular employees might be dismissed. This bill has no value whatever without the other bill, unless you want to strengthen the hands of the Republican Commissioners. If you pass this bill, and I want to be honest and fair with you, all you do is, where a majority of the commissioners are Republicans, you are strengthening their hands as to what disposition will be made of the employees of the county commissioners office.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I do not see any connection between the two bills, except that the word 'inspector' may occur in both of them, and one is 'inspector of elections' and the other of weights and measures.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I want to say to the members of this Senate, and in all honesty, if they want to pass this bill as it is in its present form I have no objection and I have no objection to every member of this Senate voting for this bill, because I want to be frank and honest, at least to some extent, even if my friends may think to the contrary, this bill will do nothing now, after the other bill has been defeated, but strengthen the hands of the Republican commissioners in our county and give them a power and authority which they are not entitled to, and if this Senate wants to pass this bill now, I find no fault with it.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 856

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, in view of the discussion here on the bill that we have just passed, that it has some connection with Bill No. 856, on page 11 of the calendar, which we have just defeated, I feel that we should not permit the bill we passed to go to the House without the bill we have already defeated; so, therefore, I move to reconsider by which Senate Bill No. 856 was defeated.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, before we adopt this motion, I would like to explain to the Senate what this bill means, and I think they understand what it does mean: It means that the county commissioners in Philadelphia

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, my point of order is that the motion to reconsider is not debatable.

The PRESIDENT. It is not debatable, but it is not prohibitive. I think the Senator has a right to explain.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, they have in Allegheny, County Commissioners, we have in Philadelphia, County Commissioners. The County Commissioners in Allegheny and the County Commissioners in Philadelphia County are very nearly similar. Now, here this morning many of the Allegheny County Senators voted against the bill that was on the Calendar, and no doubt they voted against this bill because there was some spirit of fair play in their makeup. Now, all the City of Philadelphia asks is to be given the same privilege that Allegheny County has; if this bill is good for Philadelphia, it should be good for Allegheny County. There was an amendment put in the bill last evening including cities of the second class. The Commissioner from Allegheny County, Senator Rankin, said that this was not a bill that he could support or would support for his own county, and that he would not want second-class cities attached to this bill, the reason for it being, as we all know, that the majority of the commissioners are Republicans in Philadelphia County, and, naturally, they have the patronage; in Allegheny County they are Democrats and they control the patronage; on the political horizon that seems to be fair play, and the way the game should be played. Now, what is this bill supposed to do? In Philadelphia, the Republicans take control of the Republican patronage, only, but in Allegheny County, where it is controlled by the Democrats, the Republicans are to get no patronage. This is simply another one of those bills where, regardless of what the citizens may have done at the election by their votes, it is consistent with the legislation that has been passed during this entire session, for our Democratic friends have, little by little, taken every vestige of patronage they could from the Republican organization of Philadelphia, regardless of the right and will of the people, and this patronage has all been grabbed up right and left. It does not even seem to have the semblance of fairness to it. I was very much pleased when I heard the returns on the vote on this bill. I thought possibly some of our friends on the Democratic side had been brought to their senses, and had come to the conclusion that fair play was part of their game, and I am convinced that they had that in mind, and I am further convinced that they had that in mind, and I am further convinced that they voted in accord with the American spirit of fair play, but after the vote was cast and the bill defeated, there was an exodus of certain Senators who immediately reported to powers that be that some of the Democratic Senators had used their own opinions and voted according to the dictates of their consciences, with the spirit that binds the American people in the performance of their public duties and pay heed to the will of the people, but I still have confidence that manhood is still within their bodies and that they still have the spirit of fair play and common justice in trying to do the right thing. On a matter that is so obviously wrong as this attempt to discredit and in reconsidering the bill at this time, I will be very much disappointed if the votes of the members who voted against this bill will now be changed.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is to reconsider the vote by which this bill was defeated.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, my record shows that the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Stiefel, voted 'aye' on this bill this morning.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I voted 'aye' and then I changed it to 'no'.

The PRESIDENT. That is the recollection of the Chair.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I did not get that.

The PRESIDENT. The recollection of the Chair is that the Senator voted 'aye' on the first vote taken, and then changed it from 'aye' to 'no'.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I have here a copy of the roll made directly from the copy on the table by the Clerk and in my copy the records shows that the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Stiefel, voted 'aye'.

The PRESIDENT. The record at the desk shows that the Senator voted 'aye' and then changed it to 'no'.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, if there be some doubt as to how the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Stiefel, voted, there is no doubt that I changed my vote to 'no', therefore, Mr. President, I will second that motion.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is legitimate and in order.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SALUS and Mr. CAVALCANTE and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—25

Barthold,	Haluska,	Lanius,	Rupp,
Cavalcante,	Henney,	McCreesh,	Ruth,

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1357, as follows:

A Joint Resolution creating a commission to study the practice of chiropractic defining the powers and duties of said commission and making an appropriation

Section 1 Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met That a commission is hereby created which shall consist of nine members seven of whom shall be appointed by the Governor as follows four shall be chiropractors one shall be a doctor of medicine one shall be an osteopath and two shall be citizens not engaged in the practice of any of the healing arts The chairmen of the committees of appropriations in the Senate and House of Representatives shall be ex-officio members of such commission It shall be the duty of the commission to study the situation with respect to the licensing of chiropractors in this State and to report thereon to the next session of the General Assembly including drafts of legislation for the permanent licensing of chiropractors in this Commonwealth and the regulation of said profession The commission shall have power to sit after the adjournment of the session of the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven

Section 2 Each chiropractor now practicing in this Commonwealth shall be required to submit to the commission within six months after the effective date of this act on a form prepared and furnished by the commission on request a statement under oath showing (a) his or her name age residence and place where he or she is practicing (b) the name of the school or college from which graduated and the date of graduation (c) the length of course taken (d) the length of time practiced and (e) such other information as the commission may require

Section 3 The word "chiropractic" as used in this act shall be construed to mean the examination of the human spine by observation palpation or X-ray and the adjustment of any and all misalignments of the vertebrae or adjacent bones or tissues through the use of the hands

Section 4 The sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the commission created by this resolution for the payment of the expenses of the commission and for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this resolution

Section 5 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 6 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President. this bill or joint resolution brought before us, I do not think needs very much investigation. They want $5,000 and we already know the status of what they are asking for. Here is a group of people who have been trying year after year to have the State license them and permit them to practice the healing art in the State of Pennsylvania, when they have no qualifications whatever to do it. There is a law today whereby those people are governed, they are governed by that law, and they can get a license and practice legally. The osteopaths have their licenses, the allopaths have their licenses covering their requirements, and why should we spend five cents, let alone $5,000, to investigate something that we know is illegal and unjust. Do you want, or do I want, or anyone else want men illegally practicing the healing art, as I have said, taking the lives of your families in their hands, and placing them in jeopardy. You do not know it, but we do know that, and that is the reason that it should go back to the committee, I say, and why should we spend $5,000 for an investigation of that kind, when five cents would make that investigation, and I think we should cut it down about $4,000.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I realize that the motion is not debatable, but possibly I can reach out a little further than the motion goes. If I were a doctor, I would never have it appear that this is competition. There is nothing in this resolution stating anything about any regulation whatsoever. We are trying to determine whether or not these men have qualifications, and if they have qualifications, we feel that it is our duty to license them in the same manner as we have licensed the medical doctors, and I see no harm in this. I have the privilege, if I so choose, of going to any medical doctor or any other kind of a doctor, so again I ask my colleagues for a favorable vote on this resolution, except the doctors.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, it is not a matter of ignorance, it is commonly known today among the authorities of the State that are medical men are registered. We have a department that looks after that. The osteopathic group of the healing art, they have registration, the dentists have their registrations, but these people do not have registration. Last year, or two years ago, the State of New York passed laws whereby the chiropractors in the State of New York have flooded into this country, and they want licenses to go out, as I said before, and take the lives of our people in their hands, without knowing how much surgery they have, how much anatomy they know, and how much materia medica they have. They know nothing about the active practice. They even go so far to say that there is no virtue in certain preparations such as we have today for diphtheria toxin and that, there is no such thing as a germ theory. Just think how many hundreds of these men are going over our country spreading such ideas as this; it is wrong. Let them abide by the law that they already have, and let them take their own human beings. I am not objecting to these people as far as practice is concerned, it does not interest me one bit. I have practiced medicine for so long and I have seen the folly of the men who are and have been doing this, but it is time for humanity's sake that we restrict them, we must do something even if we have to arrest them and make them abide by the laws. They must be qualified to do this work the same as the allopath and medical practitioner, or else they will have to cut it out.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I just want to call attention to an error in this bill, or rather in this resolution. It seems to me that this resolution will have to go back to committee. This resolution provides for a commission to be created consisting of nine members, seven of them whom are appointed by the Governor and four of whom should be chiropractors, one should be a doctor of medicine, one should be an osteopath, that makes six members, and two citizens, making a total of eight. They say that seven will be appointed by the Governor and then they provide for two more members and still they create a commission of only nine. It will have to go back to the committee to be amended.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask for a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska , will state his point of information.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, do we have a quorum here? I would like to have a call of the House.

The PRESIDENT. There is nothing in order but the roll call. The Clerk will proceed.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HALUSKA, and were as follows, viz:

The PRESIDENT. I see there are 17 nays and 17 ayes, and in view of the statement of the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, the Chair votes "no."

So the question was determined in the negative.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I now move that this bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I move that the bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, 27 Senators voted in the affirmative and 9 in the negative, whereupon the question was decided in the affirmative.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Armstrong will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I would like to have the opportunity of voting for Senate Bill No. 1357 some time, for this reason: The osteopaths, I understand, are licensed, and it is within my recollection when the good old-fashioned medical doctors claimed the same thing about the osteopaths as they now do about the chiropractors; therefore, I think it might be well to have an investigation to see whether or not the chiropractors should be licensed. Many of the gentlemen who have come to my office are against the granting of licenses, some of them are osteopaths and some of them medical doctors, but I feel that this investigation should be made, and, if necessary, license the chiropractors.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1358, entitled:

An Act to amend section six of the act approved the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six (Pamphlet Laws thirteen) entitled "An act to carry into effect section five of article fourteen of the constitution relative to the salaries of county officers and the payment of fees received by them into the state or county treasury in counties containing over one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants" by providing that in counties of the first class salaries of respective county officers shall not exceed the amount fixed by the tax levying body of such county for such offices.

NAYS—0

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I call up at this time for consideration Senate Bill No. 1240, on second reading.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1240 (House Bill No. 947), entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 465) entitled "An act to provide for the safety of persons employed housed or assembled in certain buildings and structures not in cities of the first class second class and second class A by requiring certain construction and ways of egress equipment and maintenance providing for the licensing of projectionists requiring the submission of plans for examination and approval providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry and in certain cases by the chiefs of fire departments in cities of the third class providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act and repealing certain acts" as amended requiring buildings to be equipped with certain equipment in connection with gas meters to prevent or retard the escape of gas

The first section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That Section three of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 465) entitled "An act to provide for the safety of persons employed housed or assembled in certain buildings and structures not in cities of the first class second class and second class A by requiring certain construction and ways of egress equipment and maintenance providing for the licensing of projectionists requiring the submission of plans for examination and approval providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry and in certain cases by the chiefs of fire departments in cities of the third class providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act and repealing certain acts" as amended by the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 1523) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 3 Special Requirements There shall be installed such emergency lighting systems sprinkler systems [and] fire alarm systems and gas shut-off valves in such of the buildings enumerated in this act as the Department of Labor and Industry may specify and which in its judgment are necessary to give the proper protection from fire and panic to those employed assembled lodged or housed therein No such systems shall be installed unless they are of a type approved by the Department of Labor and Industry

All buildings enumerated in this act which may be supplied from some outside source with gas shall be equipped by the builder or owner of such building with a gas shut-off valve attached to the gas supply pipe or pipes on the inside of the building at a point where said pipes enter the building and before they reach the gas meter which valve shall be connected with a conspicuous and conveniently accessible control box at a place on the exterior of the building so arranged as to allow the gas supply to be shut off by any member of any fire department immediately whenever the necessity arises. The fire department of any municipality shall have the exclusive use of gas shut-off valves and their operation in the event of fire or other emergency. Such shut-off valve and said control box for the shut-off valve shall be so marked as to indicate their respective purpose. The gas shut-off valve shall be so constructed as to automatically shut off the gas when subjected to sufficient heat.

All existing buildings and every building hereafter erected subject to the provisions of the act shall be equipped with such device and necessary appliances within eighteen months after the approval of this act.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I move to amend Section 1, (Section 3), page 3, line 7 by inserting after the word "systems" the following: or devices; amend Section 1, (Section 3), page 3, line 20 by inserting after the words "in this act" the following: as the Department of Labor and Industry may specify; amend Section 1, (Section 3), page 4, lines 10 to 14 inclusive by striking out: all of said lines; amend Section 1, (Section 3), page 4, lines 17 and 18 by striking out the following: "within six months after the effective date of this act" and substituting in lieu thereof: at the discretion of the Department of Labor and Industry.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question, Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The title of the bill was read as follows and agreed to.

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 465) entitled "An act to provide for the safety of persons employed housed or assembled in certain buildings and structures not in cities of the first class second class and second class A by requiring certain construction and ways of egress equipment and maintenance providing for the licensing of projectionists requiring the submission of plans for examination and approval providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry and in certain cases by the chiefs of fire departments in cities of the third class providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act and repealing acts" as amended requiring buildings to be equipped with certain equipment in connection with gas meters to prevent or retard the escape of gas.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 638.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I call up at this time Senate Bill No. 638, recalled from the House, entitled:

An Act to further amend section four of the act approved the eighteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 498) entitled "An act defining consolidation of schools providing for the establishment and regulation of consolidated schools and providing for the transportation of pupils to and from consolidated schools" by making certain changes in the provisions for reimbursements by the Commonwealth.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the Senate non-concurred in the amendments made by the House to said bill.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I voted "no."

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I voted "no."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate concur in the amendments?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed finally.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend sec. 1 (sec. 4), page 3, line 7, by striking out the heavy-face bracket before the word "To"; amend sec. 1 (sec. 4), page 4, line 7, by striking out the heavy-face bracket after the figure "(5%)."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I would like the Senator to tell us the effect of the amendment.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I was on the point of making an explanation that this bill pass the Senate and the House. The House put a number of amendments in, to which we agreed, but the printer inadvertently put brackets in bracketing out the new amendments and it is simply to correct a printer's error. The amendments which I put in were agreed to, but the printer bracketed out the new amendments.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1324.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1324, entitled:

An Act to amend section five of the act approved the third day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred forty-two), entitled "An act to promote the public health and safety, by providing for examination and registration of those who desire to engage in the occupation of beauty culture; defining beauty culture, and regulating beauty culture shops, schools, students, apprentices, teachers, managers, and operators; conferring powers and duties upon the Department of Public Instruction; providing for appeals to certain courts by applicants and licensees; and providing penalties," by providing for limited certificates of registration for operators and managers engaged in particular types of beauty culture subject to rules of the Department of Public Instruction.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I voted "no."

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I voted "no."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. McGINNIS and Mr. KUNKEL and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—24

Cavalcante,	Jaspan,	McGinnis,	Rodgers,
Dando,	Kilgallen,	Mundy,	Ruth,
Frey,	Kunkel,	Pytko,	Shapiro,

Bean,	Eroe,	Jacobs,	Scarlett,
Buckman,	Gelder,	Owlett,	Sones,
Chapman,	Henney,	Pierson,	Wolfenden,
Deitrick,	Heyburn,	Rupp,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

And the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the idea is suggested to me that in view of the fact that many of the members are not here and it might be well to put the bill on the postponed calendar. I would like to make a statement in connection with this bill so that the members of the Senate will know just what we are voting for. This is probably the first bill that I have had anything to do with that deals with beauty parlors, and there is a specific reason for this bill. Before I introduced this bill I took it up with Dr. Ade, who is in the Department of Public Instruction. The purpose of this bill is not to change the act dealing with beauty parlors, but it permits a certain type of women who are engaged in a recognized profession to avoid the necessity of taking an examination for something which they do not intend to practice. It is no secret that this bill is intended to take care of a situation that arises in places like what is well known as the "Elizabeth Arden" parlor. They have women who work or apply certain cosmetics in places of business, and they give only facial massages. If those women want to get a license, they have to take an examination and prepare themselves for hairdressing, manicuring and a complete curriculum to engage in a business in which they do not desire to engage. We notice that in this particular bill there is an exception and a limited certificate issued to those people who desire to engage in manicuring, they do not have to take the hairdressers' examination, and so the business houses engaging in that business have requested that the law be amended so as to enable a limited certificate to be issued by the Department of Public Instruction upon rules and regulations and in accordance with the provisions of the act to allow those persons to give merely facial massages in the place of business in which they are engaged and it seems to me that there can be nothing objectionable to that bill. For that reason I am trying to call up this bill at this time for action, because unless this is up now, it will have little or no chance to pass in the House in the remaining days left in the session.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I confess that I know very little about this bill, and I would like to interrogate the Senator, the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask if this bill is opposed by the organized beauticians of Pennsylvania.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, not that I know of. I do not see how it could be opposed by them if they get no more than a limited certificate, which is permitted.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, we have letters on our desk signed by recognized officers opposing this bill, that is why I voted against it, I do not know anything about it.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, if it is true, I do not know whether they are or not, but I am quite sure that the opposition to this bill in the Senate and everywhere arises from this impression that it is an attempt to change the 'Evans' Act. It is not, it merely attempts to take it away from a group of people who practice as beauticians and gives them a board provided by law.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1324, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. RICE.

That Rule 38 which requires nominations made by the Governor to lie on the table one day be dispensed with, and the Senate do now resolve itself into executive session, for the purpose of acting on the foregoing nominations.

Which was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The first matter upon which the roll will be called will be the advising and consenting to the nomination of J. Dress Pannell, Harrisburg, Dauphin County as Judge of the Orphans' Court of Dauphin County.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. RICE.

That the Senate do advise and consent to said nomination.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. DEITRICK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. DEITRICK from the Committee on Legislative Apportionment reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1422, (House Bill No. 1817), entitled:

An Act to fix the number of Representatives in the General Assembly of the State and to apportion the State into representative districts as provided by the Constitution.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SIPE from the Committee on State Government reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1399, (House Bill No. 1194), entitled:

An Act creating a joint legislative commission to be known as the Joint State Government Commission, providing for the appointment of its members and defining its powers and duties.

Also, from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1369, (House Bill No. 2113), entitled:

An Act providing for the reciprocal enforcement of violations of the fishing laws in boundary waters between Pennsylvania and the States of New York and New Jersey.

Also, from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1366, (House Bill No. 1615), entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to acquire by purchase or gift or lease or condemnation on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the property of the Seventh Day Baptists of Ephrata in whole or in part to provide for the control management and supervision of the property when acquired by the Pennsylvania Historical Commission authorizing the commission to maintain the same and make and enforce rules and regulations for its preservation and visitation thereof and making an appropriation for such acquisition and maintenance.

Also, from the Committee on State Government, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1330, (House Bill No. 1173), entitled:

An Act to insure and protect fair trade practices in distribution defining such practices prohibiting the advertisement offer for sale or sale of merchandise at less than cost and fixing a penalty for such advertisement offer for sale or sale and investing the courts with jurisdiction to prevent and restrain violations of the act.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 1259.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, On the Calendar for May 20, on Page 18, Senate Bill No. 1259, was defeated and I now move that the vote by which said bill was defeated be reconsidered.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I voted "no."

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I voted "no."

The motion was agreed to.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I just want to be sure that the Senate understands that this is the bill which gives another $25,000 to the Ruth Committee to employ an Illinois lawyer at $12.500 for two months. The Committee has spent $25,000, and this is to give $25,000 more, and the members of the Senate will remember that when this bill was up and defeated last week, it was explained that they had employed a lawyer from outside the State at $21,500 to conduct an investigation of the court procedure in Pennsylvania, for a period from April first to June first.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—31

Barthold,	Henney,	Lanius,	Rupp,
Cavalcante,	Heyburn,	Law,	Ruth,
Dent,	Huffman,	McCreesh,	Scarlett,

Haluska,	Kunkel,	Rice,

NAYS—13

Buckman,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Salus,
Chapman,	Homsher,	Owlett,	Sordoni,
Deitrick,	Howell,	Pierson,	Wolfenden,
Ealy.

Reed present.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I call up at this time Senate Bill 856, on page 11 of the Calendar, on third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 856, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the eighteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 549) entitled, "An act to permit the use of voting machines for recording and computing the vote at all elections, including primaries in any county, city, borough or township of the Commonwealth, at the option of the electors thereof; prescribing regulations with reference to the adoption, requirements, examinations, purchase, installation, preparation, custody and demonstration of use of voting machines; providing rules and regulations for the conduct of elections held with voting machines; prescribing the qualifications, number and duties of election officers in election districts in which voting machines may be used, placing duties upon county commissioners and the Secretary of the Commonwealth; providing for redivision of wards of cities and boroughs into election districts, and the consolidation of election districts; providing for the payment of expenses incident to the purchase and use of voting machines by the counties in which they are used; and providing penalties for violation of the provisions of this act," by adding a new section thereto 11-A, providing that in counties of the first class, all appointments shall be equally divided between majority and minority commissioners.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, and gentlemen of this Senate. This is the County Commissioners' bill and before we vote on it I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SALUSA. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, if it is not a fact that during the investigation of county officers in Philadelphia they did not investigate the County Commissioners' office?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I also want to ask if he did not publicly announce that the office was conducted in a manner that the commissioners should receive the commendation of the public.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is correct, but I did not announce that they should receive the commendation, I said that there were no criticisms to offer, except on the question of politics. It was a matter for him to decide, and the gentleman said as long as he was County Commissioner, notwithstanding the fact that there was a minority representation, they were Republicans, and he would appoint nobody else on the Commissioners' staff.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, but he found no fault with the conduct of his office.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is true.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I want the members of the Senate to realize the situation. This matter is a matter of great importance to the City of Philadelphia because none of your investigating committee, headed by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, has said openly to the newspapers, and to the public generally, that this office is not properly conducted, and if it is properly conducted by Republicans, by Republican office holders, and the citizens of Philadelphia are receiving full value for their money and good loyal service, then why should this institution be ripped apart? I am very much interested in this bill, very much indeed, because of the fact that our people are entitled to this service. I am, however, much more interested in what the Senate will do with this bill, and the Senate of Pennsylvania is composed of men of high standing, men of character, men of reputation, men who having once passed their word on this floor and said my word is my bond, I know no master insofar as my honor and integrity is concerned, I am monarch of all I survey, and I believe that is the past history of Pennsylvania's Senators, and I hope that this night there will not ring the death knell of the honor of this institution. The men on this floor, both Democrats and Republicans, know what is contained in this bill, and know what it means, and then the hand unseen, a hand of authority has called some of them together and in that call have they lost their manhood? Has the honor and dignity of Pennsylvania fallen to such a low degree that men become the puppets of a ring-master with whips and now for the sake of victory, for the sake of putting over something that we know is wrong, a depredation to the citizens of this Commonwealth, you must sink your manhood, you must sink your reputation in the Senate of Pennsylvania, and become part and parcel of a punch and judy show?

Now, gentlemen of this Senate, I still have faith in you, I think you are Senators of Pennsylvania, I think you are men, and made after the image of God Almighty to do justice to your fellow man, and above all things else do not sink your manhood, do not let me, after twenty-seven years in this Senate, leave this Senate with a different impression. I know you are men and I know you have courage and let the honor and the glory of this institution be such that its flag may fly, that all the world may say that you are real men and that there is honesty in your body, that you mean well, that this is political robbery and nothing else, and that you will not be part and parcel to it, or be whipped into it by the master mind. Follow Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation of the colored man, do not let any man, white or whoever he may be, take from you your liberty and above all do not lose your manhood or your honor as men in this Senate. I believe in you, I have faith in you, and I hope when I quit this Session I will go home with the same feeling in my body that I have had for twenty-seven long years, that the men in the Senate of Pennsylvania are men, they are not puppets, they are not men who will lose their honor and reputation. I believe, and honestly believe, and will not be convinced until this vote is passed, that each of you men who voted "no" on this bill today are going to vote "no" tonight.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the purpose of this, in spite of what the Senator from Philadelphia says, is not as bad as he makes it sound. The provisions of the bill are that there shall be minority representation in fact, as well as by act of Assembly, in the County Commissioners. In the Registration Commission of Philadelphia there is minority representation by law, and actually in fact. The minority commissioners have the right to say who shall and who shall not be chosen, and they have a certain proportion of the appointments in the County Commissioners' office. In the election before the last, the County Commissioners had charge of the ballot and the voting machines, and in connection with the voting machine the numbers on the machines have to be reset so that they will properly count an election vote. In the numbering on the machines it was found that there was a discrepancy of five, ten, fifteen and up to possibly twenty-five votes between the votes and the votes registered on the machine. In the appointment of the custodian of those machines, while the budget in the City of Philadelphia provides for $75,000 for employment during the election period, extra help for the custody of those machines, the actual expenditures ran in the neighborhood of $150,000 to $180,000 each year, and Council, after the budget is made up, transfers from funds, or otherwise, presents to the County Commissioners the additional $100,000. This bill will strip them of all of the excitement that was created by the Senator from Philadelphia about the bill, provides that the minority commissioners shall have the right to appoint some of these men so that custodians of the machine shall actively be represented by the other party, and by both parties. If that is unfair, and if that is unjust, I fail to see it, and this bill on which we are voting now will give us the right to have some check on the voting machines, and that, for one purpose, in my opinion, is a logical purpose.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia if the same condition of which he complains is not now existing in the County of Allegheny, or in the City of Pittsburgh, namely, that the patronage of the County Commissioners is controlled by the majority party, which happens to be the Democratic party at this time.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am interested in the situation in Philadelphia only. When I am elected a Senator from Pittsburgh, or have anything to do with that function I will be able to discuss that question. I can only answer that by hearsay and I do not think that argument solves the problem, that it is merely throwing in what we call a "red herring," shall I say?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, has the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, declined to answer?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, my answer is that I only know by hearsay, and I am not paying attention to that.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, did I understand the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, to say he does not know what the condition is in Pittsburgh?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, this bill seems to be like the height of nerve. There might be some justification that this bill provides that the patronage the County Commissioners of Philadelphia be divided according to the number of County Commissioners, namely, that one-third of the patronage should go to the minority members, the Democrats, if you please, and two-thirds of it should go to the majority party, the Republican, but to say that notwithstanding that the majority of the County Commissioners are Republicans they can only have fifty percent of the patronage, as I understand this bill to say, it seems to me to be un-American and unfair, and not according to the way we like to play the game in Pennsylvania. I do not represent Philadelphia as a Senator, but I am interested in the whole State of Pennsylvania, and I hate to see a bill passed by the majority party of this Legislature merely because they have the power to do so. That is unfair and is un-American, and that is what this bill is.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to hear from the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh, who introduced the bill. The Senator from Bucks claims that this bill is un-American and I think the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh, is an American, and, therefore, the bill having his name as sponsor, I thing is an American bill. When I voted on this bill at the time it was defeated I voted under a misapprehension. I voted against it because I thought it was just another bill, and after much thought, after the bill had been defeated and I gave it some serious thought, I discovered that it was a real good Democratic bill, a bill that I found was a real "ripper" bill and I took stock of myself, and only after the heated arguments here in these last three or four days on the ripper bills, I thought I had made a mistake, and the Philadelphia rippers especially, I do not know how many ripper bills we have passed, I like to do the job well, I don't want to leave anything undone there. If there is anything to be ripped out, we ought to rip it out and in ripping all these officers out, I think I am going to go on record as being for the salary raisers, because if we rip a lot of them out, there would only be a few left, and they would have so many days to decide, and I think we should pay them more money, and I want to call up the old proverb "if you give a calf a little rope," you know what would happen to the calf. So I want to give the Philadelphia boys all the rope they want, and I think it is a very good Democratic feeling, but not a good ripper bill. The one I voted against would only give the Democratic party one-third of the patronage, but this gives more patronage, and I am just a little sorry that it does not take all of the patronage away from the Republicans, because then it would be a real good ripper bill and be a good Democratic bill. I am going to vote for the bill, for I would sooner take half a loaf than none at all.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, all the world loves a good sport. I merely want ot rise to congratulate the majority party on having some members of this Senate that are good sports. This bill, as has been pointed out, changes the law with respect to appointment by Commissioners with reference to first-class counties only and provides for first-class counties, namely, Philadelphia, but in all other counties the commissioners are left free to make their choice but in Philadelphia County half of them must be Democrats and half Republicans. Now, there ar true Democratic Senators in this Senate that have counties in which we Republicans likewise have a majority in the county from which they come. Why they were not included in this bill, those other counties, I assume is because of the fact that they recognize that there are certain lengths to which you cannot go, even in politics. This is the rankest political measure that any organization ever had the nerve to introduce, and for Democratic Senators from Philadelphia to have the gall to ask the other Democratic Senators in this Senate to support a bill like this, that has no sportsmanship in it, simply a grabbing of jobs, and as I say again, I congratulate the State of Pennsylvania that we have some Senators that are good sports on the Democratic side.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I would like to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that one member of the Governor's staff is on one side of the rail watching the vote on this bill, another member of the Governor's Cabinet in speaking about the Commissions of the City of Philadelphia he said it was some of the best offices he had ever expected. That is the Honorable Thomas Logue of the Department of Interior. Thank God we have Thomas Logue, I wish we had more of them in the Cabinet.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, so that there may be no misunderstanding, I want to again ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, whether he has found any misconduct of any kind in the conduct of the County Commissioners' office in Philadelphia.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is a good question to answer. I told the Senator before, and I repeat, that so far as the running of the office was concerned I suggested to the chairman of the committee that I have no criticism to offer except that I thought some of the functions that were performed by the County Treasury were functions that properly belonged in other offices, except that I found whereas the budget was a certain sum and the taxpayers were told that they would be obliged to spend for the county, then thirty or forty days after the budget was made additional transfers were made to the County Commissioners office and additional expenditures incurred and that so-far-as last year's budget is concerned there was a deficiency bill of $266,000 that the taxpayers will have to raise by additional taxes this year.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator one more question then I will be through. If those $266,000 was spent does the Senator from Philadelphia mean to say that a single penny of it was dishonestly spent?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not know what the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, means by dishonestly spent, I know that the County Commissioners had a large sized payroll right around the latter part of the year, at the end of the year, when there is some money about to be left over that has not been spent and the number of persons on the payroll increases at the end of the year, or before the fiscal year ends, and there are possibly more people on the payroll than they need, but I do not think I am in a position, nor is the committee in a position, to definitely say that there were so many more, or a definite number.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I am going to say just one more word. Gentlemen, are you going to rip out this honorable institution because your Democratic leader over there told you this? Your Democratic leader, Senator Shapiro, Chairman of the Investigating Committee, tells you it is an honorable institution. Are you going to rip out this institution because probably somebody is employed there for too long a time? Are you going to virtually convict these people because when the Senator cannot give you any concrete facts of any misdoings in his office, he says, probably something may be wrong.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

YEAS—26

Barthold,	Gilson,	Lanius,	Rupp,

Section 13 The provisions of this act are severable and if any of the provisions hereof are held to be unconstitutional the decision shall not be construed to impair any other provision of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included herein

The fourteenth section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 14 The provisions of this act shall not apply to any railroad of fifty miles or less in length or any railroad in the hands of a Receiver or in process of re-organization under any Federal Law or to any railroad operating without profit at prevailing scales of wages or unable to pay dividends upon its common stock

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, I move to amend sec. 14, page 9, by striking out all of lines 15 to 20 inclusive

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, may I ask the sponsor of these amendments or some other Senator on the floor to explain the effect of them?

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, these amendments simply strike out amendments in the bill presented by Senator Rupp the other night.

Mr. BUCKMAN. May I ask whether they strike out the entire amendment, or whether they still leave in the length of the railroads, or strike out the entire amendment as inserted on motion of Senator Rupp?

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, they strike out the entire amendment.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BUCKMAN and were as folows, viz:

YEAS—32

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The fifteenth section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 15 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, I move to amend sec. 15, page 9, line 21, by striking out the figure "15" and inserting in lieu thereof "14"

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The sixteenth section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 16 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, I move to amend sec. 16, page 9, line 23, by striking out the figure "16" and inserting in lieu thereof "15"

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The title of the bill was read as follows and agreed to.

An Act to promote the safety of employes and travelers upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to man locomotives trains and other self propelled engines or machines with competent employes to provide the least number of men that may be employed on locomotive trains and other self propelled engines or machines to provide the qualifications of certain employes and to provide a penalty for the violation thereof and the enforcement thereof by the Public Utility Commission.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILLS DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill 585, on third reading, postponed, entitled:

An Act concerning reciprocal agreements for the interstate transportation and the support of poor and indigent persons; and to make uniform the law with reference thereto.

be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I want to call up a certain bill, but before calling it up I rise to a point of inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, will state his point of inquiry.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, it seems to be the habit of the members of this Senate, when some important bill comes up, they have a happy faculty of backing up, and I would like to know, if possible, before I call up this bill whether the members will be in their seats.

The PRESIDENT. That is a very difficult question to answer.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I call up from the postponed calendar, on page 20, Senate Bill No. 1357.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume consideration of Senate Bill No. 1357, on third reading postponed, entitled:

An Act creating a commission to study the practice of chiropractic; defining the powers and duties of said commission; and making an appropriation.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, earlier in the day I expressed a hope that I might have an opportunity to vote for this resolution, and probably some of my friends in the Senate misunderstood me. I mentioned that I was actuated with a general desire to have a real investigation of these practitioners to see whether or not, for the information of the legislature, they were an injury or a help to society. In my statement I did not mean that I was going to vote so and so. I simply wanted the information. I have since learned that the commission set up to do the investigating contains a majority of those in the system of chiropractry, and it would therefore seem to me would do self investigating. I do not have a great deal of confidence in commissions that investigate themselves, so if it is true that the majority of this commission are members of the chiropractic profession, I shall be obliged to vote against the resolution, because I do not have a great deal of confidence in self-investigation.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—16.

Barthold,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Rupp,
Cavalcante,	Heyburn,	Rankin,	Shapiro,
Dando,	Jacobs,	Rice,	Sordoni,
Dent,	Kilgallen,	Rodgers,	Huffman,

Ealy,	Howell,	Mundy,	Scarlett,
Eroe,	Kahle,	Owlett,	Sipe,
Frey,	Kunkel,	Pierson,	Thompson,
			Wolfenden,

Less than a majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the negative.

RECESS

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for ten minutes.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. EROE from the Committee on Finance reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1401 (House Bill No. 2242), entitled:

An Act to amend section six of the act approved the twenty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred forty-nine) entitled "an act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power, providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof, requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records, imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers, county commissioners and such distributors, providing for rewards, imposing certain costs on counties, conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments, providing for refunds, imposing penalties and making an appropriation," by making further provision regarding the discount allowed to distributors if reports are filed and taxes paid on time.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to report from the Committee on Labor and Industry a bill that has been lost in transit from the committee to the floor of the Senate, Senate Bill No. 1127, House Bill No. 1246, and I want to offer as a report of that committee a duplicate copy of that bill, and also to report, as amended, Senate Bill No. 488, House Bill No. 99, known as the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make reports from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. DENT, from the Committee on Labor and Industry, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1127 (House Bill No. 1246), entitled:

An Act to prohibit the recruiting or the securing or offering to secure employment for persons to take the places of employes where a labor strike is pending or a lockout exists.

Mr. DENT, from the Committee on Labor and Industry, re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 488 (House Bill No. 99), entitled:

An Act to re-enact and amend the title and the act approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and thirty-six), entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment, establishing an elective schedule of compensation and providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder," by changing, adding to and increasing the schedules of compensation prescribing and changing certain presumptions and rules of evidence, increasing the requirements to be met by employers desiring to be self-insurers, conferring certain powers and duties upon the Department of Labor and Industry, imposing additional duties and liabilities upon employers and insurance carriers, including the cost of administering the workmen's compensation system, including the rehabilitation of employes, providing for the payment of compensation for certain second injuries and for the rehabilitation of injured employes and for the payment of re-opened cases after a certain lapse of time by the Commonwealth out of moneys required to be paid into the State Treasury by certain emplyoers and insurance carriers in death cases where there are no dependents, imposing new and changing certain existing penalties and generally amending, clarifying and changing the provisions of said act.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I know it is late and I am not going to take the time to read all of this, but I want to state that this Commission has made three reports. That commission, set up as a fact-finding commission, wishes to offer these reports as non-partisan and non-political, however, some of the newspapers have seen fit to make political capital out of it, and I want to say this, that this committee wants to function in that respect, and, therefore, wants to clarify and remove any misconstructions that have been placed upon this committee by certain politically-minded newspapers in this State.

I, therefore, wish to offer a report, as Chairman of that Commission, which will clarify our position insofar as our reports are concerned, and I do not want to take the time to read the report, but I want it spread upon the journal.

The PRESIDENT. The statement of the Senator from Westmoreland, together with his comments made in connections with the report filed here concerning the Tax Commission, will be spread upon the Journal.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Westmoreland if this is a report of the whole committee, or is a report of the Chairman?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, my report as Chairman and agreed to by the committee.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, by the whole committee?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I could not say that it is a report of the entire committee. I spoke to four of the members about it and they agreed to the report. There is nothing in the report as individuals. For instance, the report creates an impression that a company had bought land in New Jersey, and we find that a member of our commission who made that report has been illy advised and the truth was not told; therefore, we want to clarify the fact that the company has not bought land in New Jersey and I do not want any misstatements made about it.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, the interrogation of the Senator from Tioga is concerning the alleged report of the commission investigating the tax situation in Pennsylvania. I want to say that the report is not a report from the members of that committee as a committee. The members of the committee have not made a study of the tax situation, and even less a report, and certainly some of the members of the committee would not sanction the report, as I saw it a few moments ago, as a report of the committee. It is very distinctly the report of the Chairman and not the report of the Committee.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I stated it was not my report.

THIRD PRELIMINARY REPORT OF THE TAX STUDY COMMISSION

May 17, 1937.

Senators: John H. Dent, Chairman; Israel Stiefel, Frederick T. Gelder.

Representatives: Harry E. Trout, Vice Chairman; Samuel A. Weiss, Secretary; James E. Lovett.

It may be recalled that in the preamble of the Resolution under which this Commission was appointed, it was stated that there was uncertainty in the mind of the Legislature as to the accuracy of arguments against certain of our State taxes, which arguments were to the effect that those taxes were driving many industries out of Pennsylvania.

The preamble then continued:

Whereas, The members of the Legislature desire to have presented to them facts and figures gathered by persons who have no interest in the conclusion to be reached, so that they may know if Pennsylvania has taxed any industry more than any of its adjacent industrial States that enjoy equal economic advantages incident to the costs of the operation of any industry, such as nearness to markets, raw materials, cost of power and available labor and

Whereas, The members of the Legislature desire to have presented to them a complete set-up of all the taxes imposed upon industry both by local governments and the State, and then to have similar figures compiled for the States enjoying similar economic advantages; Therefore be it Resolved, etc.

And from the several separate resolution paragraphs we quote:

Resolved, That the said Joint Legislative Committee shall conduct an investigation to ascertain the number of industrial or mining concerns which have left our State, and the reason given therefor, and to ascertain the total tax burdens imposed by the States to which the said industrial or mining concerns have moved.

The First Preliminary Report of this Committee was made to the Senate on April 19, 1937, by Senator Dent, Chairman. It dealt with the bituminous coal industry in Pennsylvania and is now a part of the Legislative Journal.

The Second Preliminary Report likewise was made to the Senate on May 17, 1937, by Senator Dent, Chairman, and dealt with the anthracite coal industry of this State. That report also is a part of the Legislative Journal.

This Third Preliminary Report of the Committee, presented to the House by Representative Trout, Vice Chairman, will deal with certain branches of manufacturing industry, in certain sections of our State.

In presenting to the Legislature the important and significant facts here submitted, the Committee wishes to emphasize that it has been functioning but a very short time. What we set forth in this report, therefore, is little more than a scattered scratching of the surface of this very serious situation.

We do desire, however, to give the Legislature some convincing evidence that its Committee is industriously pursuing its task. And even at this early date we are in a position to say that the migration of industries from Pennsylvania has reached a point where all thoughtful citizens, and especially those entrusted with the making of our laws, well may pause to give serious consideration to the causes of these removals, and the painful consequences of this continued exodus of production, employment and payrolls from our State.

As a part of this present statement, we give the names, former addresses, number of workers that were employed, and the approximate payrolls, of 24 concerns in a single branch of manufacture that have moved out of Pennsylvania from a single city in this Commonwealth within the last two years.

We concede that this list is not complete, even for this single branch of enterprise, in only one city, for the period of only two years. But we do contend that it is deeply significant of a tragic trend which we of Pennsylvania cannot longer ignore, or accept without some drastic efforts to remove the causes and stop these losses which are draining employment and purchasing power away from our State.

The 24 plants which we are listing in this report furnished regular employment to about 6,720 workers, at an annual payroll of $9,828,000. That is the yearly amount of actual wages that has been lost by labor in that one city, through the removal of those concerns to other States. It is the sum, therefore, that has been taken from the purchasing power of that community and this State, and which consequently has been lost to a great variety of other enterprises, because those businesses found it to their advantage to leave this Commonwealth and locate elsewhere.

All of these concerns were manufacturers of hosiery in the City of Philadelphia. Among those that still remain, the largest are now shut down by labor conflicts. Your Committee, therefore, has no reason to doubt the considered statement of one who is in a position to know, and who says that "there isn't a hosiery manufacturer in that city who isn't anxious, and in most instances preparing, to get out of Pennsylvania."

Here is the partial list of departed industries which your Committee reports at this time—all of these liquidations or removals having occurred during the last two years:

Windsor Hosiery Mills, formerly located at Second and Westmoreland Streets, Philadelphia; moved in December, 1936, locating one part of plant in Tennessee and the other part in New York State. Employed 700 workers, at a weekly payroll of $21,000, or $1,092,000 a year.

Northwood Hosiery Mills, formerly located at Second Street and Wyoming Avenue, Philadelphia; moved during 1935 and 1936 to Charlotte, North Carolina. Employed 80 workers, practically all highly skilled, at a weekly payroll of $4,000, or $208,000 a year.

Thomas W. Buck, formerly located at Jasper and York Streets, Philadelphia; liquidating during 1935 and 1936. Employed 500 workers, at an approximate weekly payroll of $10,000, or $520,000 a year.

Gatham Hosiery Mills, formerly located at Second and Norris Streets, Philadelphia. Employed 1,000 workers at a weekly payroll of $30,000, or $1,560,000 a year.

Cadet Hosiery Mills, Second Street and Allegheny Avenue, Philadelphia; moved to Decatur, Alabama. Employed 300 at an approximate weekly payroll of $7,500, or $390,000 a year.

Rodgers Hosiery Company, formerly located on Price Street, Philadelphia; moved, during 1936 and 1937, to Athens, Georgia. Employed 200 workers, at an approximate weekly payroll of $5,000, or $260,000 a year.

Ellis Hosiery Mills, formerly located in Kensington, Philadelphia; sold at auction in 1936. Employed 70 workers, at a weekly payroll of $2,100, or $109,200 a year.

Thomas W. Brown's Glenn Mills, formerly located at Twenty-first and Lippincott Streets, Philadelphia. Employed 1,000 workers, at an approximate weekly payroll of $25,000, or $1,300,000 a year.

Warburton Hosiery Mills, formerly located in Kensington, Philadelphia, liquidated and equipment sold to a concern in Pulaski, Virginia. Employed 100 workers, at a weekly payroll of $2,500, or $130,000 a year.

Granite Hosiery Mills, formerly located at Frankford Avenue and Ontario Streets, Philadelphia; liquidated in 1935 and 1936. Employed 1,200 workers, at an approximate weekly payroll of $30,000, or $1,560,000 a year.

The Bla-Shone Hosiery Mills, formerly located at Allegheny Avenue and Mascher Street, Philadelphia; sold out in 1936. Employed 200 workers, at a weekly payroll of $4,000, or $208,000 a year.

The Kaplan Mills, Hancock and Huntingdon Streets, Philadelphia; removed 25 machines to Salisbury, Maryland, in 1936, displacing 60 workers at a weekly payroll of $1,500, or $78,000 a year.

Owen Osborne, formerly located at Third and Somerset Streets, Philadelphia; removed to Gainesville, Georgia. Employed 100 workers, at an approximate weekly payroll of $3,000, or $156,000 a year.

The Marshall Field Mill, Torresdale, Philadelphia, removing to Fairfield, Virginia. Employed 150 workers, at an approximate weekly payroll of $6,000, or $312,000 a year.

Colonial Knitting Mills, Clearfield and B Streets, Philadelphia; continues to do its finishing there, but has removed the employment of 400 workers to Cape May Court House, New Jersey, and Mohnton, Pennsylvania. The lost payroll was $14,000 a week, or $728,000 a year.

Harron Hosiery Mill, formerly located at 3360 Frankford Avenue, Philadelphia; liquidated in 1935. Employed 75 workers, at a weekly payroll of $2,250, or $117,000 a year.

Real Art Hosiery Company, formerly located at 6020 Palmetto Street, Fox Chase, Philadelphia; moved, in January, 1937, to Georgia. Employed 60 workers, at a weekly payroll of $2,400, or $124,800 a year.

Purple Stripe Hosiery Company, formerly located on Hellerman Street, Frankford, Philadelphia, removed to Georgia in 1936. Employed 40 workers, at a weekly payroll of $1,200, or $72,400 a year.

A hosiery mill located in the Frankford section of Philadelphia (name withheld for obvious reasons) has its new location, outside of Pennsylvania, ready for occupancy, and is prepared to move at the first opportunity. It employs 60 workers, at an approximate weekly payroll of $1,800, or $93,600 a year.

Another, in the Fox Chase section of Philadelphia, has its plant ready at Middletown, Delaware, and is ready to move. It employs 40 workers, at an approximate weekly payroll of $1,600, or $83,200 a year.

Nickels and Lauber, Broad Street near Huntingdon, Philadelphia, has transferred to a new branch, at Berlin, New Jersey, the employment of about 70 workers, at an approximate weekly payroll of $2,100, or $109,200 a year.

The Proper and McCallum mill, at 191 Roosevelt Boulevard, Philadelphia, is to be sold on May 12th. It employs about 200 workers, at an approximate weekly payroll of $8,000, or 416,000 a year.

The Quaker Hosiery Company, 22nd Street and Lehigh Avenue, Philadelphia, is starting a new plant in South Carolina, and the Cambria Silk Hosiery Company, of 176 W. Louden Street, Philadelphia, is transferring a part of its work to Georgia. It is estimated that these two transfers will displace about 130 workers, at a total annual wage of $200,600.

As already has been stated, the removal of those 24 plants represents 6,720 lost jobs, and the complete evaporation, therefore, of a total annual payroll amounting to $9,828,000. If this situation were confined to our largest city, it would be cause for deep concern; but unfortunately it is not confined to any one section, but prevails practically throughout our State.

For example, we regret to report that one of the largest concerns of its kind in the world, unable to continue business successfully in Pennsylvania, already has opened two new plants in Georgia and is building a third, and is said to contemplate the eventual complete break-up of its present huge plant in this State.

We report, also, that a hosiery mill in Quakertown, Pa., is about to liquidate, which will throw out of employment about 40 workers whose total annual wage has amounted to approximately $70,000.

Likewise, we call attention to the fact that the permanent closing of the Ajax Hosiery Company, at Phoenixville, eliminated about 630 jobs, and a payroll of $20,000 a week, or $1,040,000 a year.

It is definitely known that current State taxes caused a large third class city in Pennsylvania to lose a bona fide industrial prospect, which would have given employment to 1,500 workers, at an annual payroll of approximately $1,500,000.

A plant in Lehigh County, employing 2,000 workers, already has invested more than $1,000,000 in the erection of a new plant in another State.

Another Pennsylvania concern, originally employing 1,000 workers, is progressively transferring its activities out of this State.

Still another, employing 500, was preparing to expand its Pennsylvania plant. Two hundred additional jobs would have been created. Pennsylvania taxes caused a change of plans, and New Jersey got the 200 jobs.

All that has been set forth here cannot be regarded as more than a cursory glance at the Pennsylvania situation; yet these specific migrations, liquidations, transfers and closings, account for a total annual payroll, lost or displaced, amounting to more than $16,000,000 a year.

But, to say that Pennsylvania labor has thus lost $16,000,000 in wages, is to present only a part of the picture. It is $16,000,000 of purchasing power no longer circulating in our communities and State. It is $16,000,000 of purchasing power that is no longer maintaining jobs in many other lines. Actually, therefore, the loss to Pennsylvania is not $16,000,000, but several times that figure—plus a wholly additional double cost that the general public must bear. For the general public not only must support the jobless and their dependents, but the removal from Pennsylvania of those concerns which previously paid taxes here, leaves a lesser number of taxables to bear the increased load.

Hence, the very condition which has arisen at least in large part from placing excessive taxes upon production, operates to make more taxes necessary, and thereby drive more industries out of the State. There can be no doubt, therefore, that the situation is so critical as to demand a thorough investigation, and the application of the earliest possible remedies.

As an illustration of the manner in which Pennsylvania taxes upon business are now operating, in comparison with nearby industrial States, we submit the following letter of the Armstrong Cork Company, Lancaster, Pa., in response to an inquiry by a member of this Committee. The essence of the whole problem is in that line of figures which is captioned "Tax, per $1,000 of investment."

The letter sets forth the facts of the financial set-ups of the company's plants in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and Massachusetts. In New Jersey, the total of its States taxes amounts to 71 cents per $1,000 of investment. In Massachusetts it is $3.48; and in New York $5.95. But in Pennsylvania it amounts to $18.12. In other words, on the investment basis, that company's taxes in Pennsylvania are three times the rate prevailing in New York; five times the rate in Massachusetts; and 25½ times the rate in New Jersey. The figures are all for the year 1936.

Here is the letter in full:

ARMSTRONG CORK COMPANY
LANCASTER, PA.

April 24, 1937.

The Honorable Harry E. Trout,
Box 5, House of Representatives,
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Dear Mr. Trout:

In accordance with your telephone request of this week, I have had prepared comparative figures showing the Company's capital investment and State tax bills for 1936 in the various States in which we have factories. In Pennsylvania, of course, we have by far the largest investment and the greatest number of employees. The Pennsylvania State tax bill in relation to the State tax bills in other States speaks for itself:

	Pennsylvania	New Jersey	New York	Massachuetts
Capital Invested	$21,303,871.00	$3,486,775.00	$1,009,083.00	$385,810.00
Net Income	3,430,239.00	280,754.00	88,292.00	18,200.00
Volume of Business	26,589,877.00	2,177,211.00	682,464.00	141,667.00
Accured State Taxes	386,000.00	2,500.00	6,000.00	1,300.00
Taxes, per $1,000 of Investment	18.12	.71	5.95	3.48

The above figures are all for the year 1936. Following is a list of the State taxes paid in the States mentioned:

Pennsylvania State Taxes

Corporate Income Tax	$265,000
Corporate Loan Tax	21,000
Capital Stock Tax	100,386

New Jersey State Taxes

Franchise Tax	$2,500

New York State Taxes

Franchise & Income Tax	$6,000

Massachusetts State Taxes

Excise Tax	$1,300

Taxes for unemployment relief were omitted because these are not for purposes of State revenue and the rates are practically the same in all of the States in question.

I hope that these figures will answer your inquiry adequately, but if there is anything further that you would like to know, please call on me.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) H. W. P.
President.

We also present here a statement prepared by the comptroller of Raybestos-Manhattan, Inc., of Passaic, N. J., showing the Pennsylvania State taxes upon the U. S. Asbestos Division, located at Manheim, Pa., for the years 1932 to 1936, inclusive.

The comptroller points out that the total increased from $1,770.77 in 1933, to $39,798.72 in 1936, and that is between 1934 and 1936 the increase is 2,372%.

He also sets forth that whereas, in 1933, the total of Pennsylvania State taxes upon that plant amounted to $1.50 for each thousand dollars of net worth, the load in 1936 amounted to $22.60 for each thousand dollars of net worth. Also, that while the 1933 taxes amounted to $1 for each thousand dollars of net sales, the 1936 ratio was $9.40 of State taxes for each thousand dollars of net sales.

In an accompanying notation, he emphasizes the fact that New Jersey has not any taxes comparable with the Corporation Net Income Tax or the Franchise Tax of Pennsylvania, the sum of which will cost the United States Asbestos Division, at Manheim, approximately $28,000 for 1936—these two taxes alone representing $15.91 per thousand dollars of net worth, and $6.62 per thousand dollars of net sales."

Following is the tax chart:

The two cases already cited give added significance to the startling disparity between the Pennsylvania State taxes upon the Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia, for 1936, as compared with the total State taxes which that company, with the same financial set-up, would have paid for the same year in either of three adjoining States —New Jersey, Delaware or Ohio.

Disregarding the Social Security taxes, which would be the same in any State, the Curtis Publishing Company prepared for this Committee the following estimate of its 1936 tax bill to the State:

Capital Stock Tax, based on 1935 valuation of $90,000,000	$360,000
Additional Tax due to Cohen Act, if enacted	46.000
Total Penna. Capital Stock Tax	$406,000
State Income Tax—estimated	$310,000
Total Pennsylvania State Taxes, as reported to stockholders	$716.000

But as between the time that estimate was prepared, and its being forwarded to the Committee, the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue made an audit which indicates that those figures will have increased by $35,000, so that the total for 1936 will be $751,000.

That figure is almost precisely 100 times the total State taxes that would have been imposed upon the Curtis Publishing Company by New Jersey, to which State the company now is making ready to move.

Here is the company's statement of the taxes it would have paid for 1936 in that State:

New Jersey—Estimated on basis of 1936 condition

Franchise Tax—Based on capital stock issued and outstanding up to 20,000 shares @ 3c	$600
20,000 shares to 30,000 shares or 10,000 shares @ 2c	200
30,000 " " 40,000 " " 10,000 " @ 1c	100
40,000 " " 50,000 " " 10,000 " @ ½c	50
2,650,000 shares @ ¼c	6,625
Total Franchise Tax	$7,575
Income Tax	None
Business License Tax	Not Applicable
Sales. Tax	None

In Delaware, the total would have been slightly less than New Jersey, or a trifle more, depending upon whether or not the concern would be subject to the Manufacturers License Tax of that State. Here is the estimate for Delaware:

Delaware—Estimated on basis of 1936 condition

Franchise Tax—Based on authorized capital stock on first 250 shares	$ 5
251 shares to 1,000 shares	10
1,001 shares to 3,000 shares	20
3,001 shares to 5,000 shares	25
5,001 shares to 10,000 shares	50
Each additional 10,000 shares @ $25. 2,690.000 share equals	6,725
Total Franchise Tax	$6,835
Income Tax	None
Business License Tax	Not Applicable

Manufacturers License Tax

This is a tax on the carrying on of the business of working raw materials into products of a different character, finished or unfinished; or of effecting any combination or composition of materials, the inherent nature of which is changed; or of finishing by hand or machinery, goods, wares or merchandise, or any article or material. If it is possible to subject Curtis to this tax then the yearly tax would be about $8,000.

In Ohio, where two of its principal competitors—the Crowell and the McCall publishing companies—are located, the total of State taxes upon the Curtis Publishing Company would be between 40 and 50 thousand dollars a year. In other words, as an official of the Curtis Company put it to a member of this Committee, "the company starts off with a competitive handicap of $700,000 a year as a consequence of being located in Pennsylvania."

Officers of that company have been perfectly candid, and, we believe, wholly truthful, with this Committee. They state frankly that at no time have they wished to move from Pennsylvania. The sentimental motive alone is a strong one in behalf of this State. Also, removal entails many legal bothers.

Nevertheless, the demand of the stockholders to get out of Pennsylvania cannot much longer be disregarded, unless substantial relief from the present tax burden is in sight; and the company has, as a consequence, not only bought the site for its new plant in Burlington County, N. J., but has the completed plans for its manufacturing and office buildings.

Here are the figures which tell the story of the Curtis Publishing Company's impending removal from Pennsylvania: Irrespective of Social Security taxes, it pays the State about $750,000 a year; and, to the City of Philadelphia, realty taxes upon its Independence Square and Washington Avenue plants, about $150,000 a year—a total of approximately $900,000.

The Independence Square building, while a magnificent monument, is 25 years old and no longer adapted to the needs of the concern. It can build adequately to its requirements for about a million and a half dollars in Burlington County, N. J. Its State taxes, as shown, would be about $7,500 a year, or approximately one one-hundredth of those imposed by Pennsylvania. The Dorrance Estate tax not only cleared Burlington County of public debt, but gave it a surplus. Its realty tax rate, therefore, is infinitesimal as compared with that of Philadelphia. In short, the company figures that the total cost of removal, constructing the new plant, etc., would be cancelled off in from two to three years out of the tax savings. And its transportation problems would be simplified by the change.

About 75% of that company's employees now live in Pennsylvania, and the other 25% in New Jersey. The company estimates that within from two to three years after its removal to New Jersey, those figures would be reversed. The number of its employees now living in Pennsylvania is 3,580, and to these Pennsylvania residents, for the year 1936, the company paid total wages of $6,128,000.

Another concern that has been driven to serious preparations for leaving this State—and which is in a position to do so without any great difficulty—is the Dixie-Vortex Company, of Easton, manufacturers of sanitary drinking cups.

This company was prevailed upon to move into Pennsylvania from New York about 15 years ago, because of conditions more favorable to industry in this State. It put up a plant which, added to from time to time, has cost about $1,000,000. It started with 200 employees, and now averages 750 the year around, with an annual payroll of approximately 1,000,000. And the important thing about this concern, from a community viewpoint, is that it generates between 10% and 20% of the entire purchasing power created in the Easton industrial area. Also, it was the only concern in that section which was able to maintain virtually fulltime employment throughout the entire period of the depression.

In 1934 the total of Pennsylvania State taxes paid by that company was $1,700. For 1936 the total was $65,000. Not only does that tax increase within a period of two years amount to more than 3,823%, but inasmuch as the concern only does about $450,000 of its business in this State, its Pennsylvania States taxes for the year 1936 amounted to 14 cents out of every dollar's worth of business it did in this State. More significant than that is the company's statement that only 10% of its profits were derived from the business done in Pennsylvania, and the 1936 State taxes amounted to 50% of this profit.

The Dixie-Vortex Company also has plants in Chicago and Toronto, Canada—the main offices being in the former city. It is known that the president of the concern has ordered the managers of the Easton plant to prepare to leave Pennsylvania.

In Delaware the total State tax upon that concern, as is, would have amounted to the infinitesimal sum of $125. But it is probable that the company will elect to move less than two miles—across the river into Phillipsburg, N. J.—to escape its terrifically increased Pennsylvania tax burden.

As has been said, the Easton plant cost approximately $1,000,000. Allowing for depreciation and decreased values, it is carried on the books of the company at $750,000. The management informs this Committee that if it has to dispose of this plant for only $250,000—one-quarter of its cost, and one-third of the value at which it is now carried on the books—the company nevertheless can, out of the tax saving to be had from moving across the river into New Jersey, completely amortize the cost of the New Jersey plant in from five to seven years.

We add one more case at this time. About 51 years ago the Nodle and Horst Company, manufacturers of full-fashioned women's and seamless men's hosiery, began business in a modest way in the City of Philadelphia. Shortly thereafter it removed to Reading, and later established an additional plant in the nearby community of Womelsdorf.

In these two plants it employs 2,500 workers, at an average annual payroll of approximately $2,000,000. Last year it built an additional plant in Tennessee and removed a part of its Pennsylvania equipment to the southern mill.

To avoid unnecessary trouble with its present employees, the Company is reluctant to reveal definitely its plans. But in view of the action already taken, and in the light of the data that has been set forth in this report, it is not difficult to guess the nature of those plans.

We have felt that these specific cases—produced within the short period that your Committee has been at work—should be presented to the Legislature at once, although they cannot be considered to comprise anything like a complete report.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I deeply regret at this time, when I know the calendar is so heavy and there are so many things to be done, to arise on this question of personal privilege but the matter is of such character that I feel in justice to myself and to others, that I should arise to this question. If the matter were purely personal with me, I might be inclined to ignore it, but as it involves a group of citizens in my county who have given unstintingly to the work of their time and service in a great public enterprise, I would be shirking my duty did I not arise at this time.

Last Saturday when I arrived at my office I was advised by several people that there was an article appearing in a local newspaper which said that a resolution had been introduced in this House to investigate my relations and activity with Sewer Boards in the County of Delaware. I was extremely busy and had no chance to pay any attention to it during the day. On Sunday morning one of the sewer boards met to inspect one of the projects because it is nearing completion, and a number of them referred to the article which they said they had seen in the newspaper. I advised the board for which I am solicitor, and I might say I am solicitor for three boards in Delaware County, I advised the board that if such a resolution were introduced I would demand an immediate investigation because I have nothing to fear from such an investigation.

On my return to Harrisburg on Sunday I could not get a history to ascertain whether such a resolution has been introduced, but the first thing Monday morning I inquired both at the Chief Clerk's office and the Speaker's office to ascertain whether such a resolution had been introduced. I was assured that no such resolution had been introduced. I checked the history when I received it on Monday, and found no such resolution had been introduced.

As the resolution was purported to have been introduced by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Rush, last night during the proceeding I asked him concerning it, and he told me he had not introduced any such resolution nor prepared one. Today I received from my office a copy of a local newspaper published in Delaware County, called "The Post Delaware County", successor to the Marcus Hook Press and Chonicle. Across it in large headlines appears this "Turner Faces State Investigation for Activities on Sewer Boards. Rush Introduces Resolution Citing Political Corruption", and then the following resolution is quoted:"

RESOLUTION

"Whereas, three Sewer Boards were established in Delaware County for the purpose of utilizing Federal funds in producing modern sewers and sewage disposal plants for numerous boroughs and townships in that county; and

"Whereas these Boards have spent considerable amounts of Federal and local funds and have taken many people off the relief rolls through the sponsoring of W. P. A. projects; and

"Whereas, this work is suffering and these Boards are being brought in disrepute through the actions of certain of their employes and

"Whereas, the chief criticism is directed against Ellwood J. Turner, Esquire, Attorney for the Boards; and

"Whereas, it is currently charged that said Ellwood J. Turner is charging these Sewer Boards excessive fees for his service; and

"Whereas it is charged that said Ellwood J. Turner has attempted to force through the legislature bills relative to these Sewer Boards which would insure the continuance of his employment and would injure the average tax payer to such an extent that indignant labor and civic groups throughout the county have protested to his Excellency the Governor and to members of this Legislature; and

"Whereas, it is charged that corrupt McClure politics is creeping into these Boards to such an extent that the average citizen is losing confidence in their integrity and intentions; and

"Whereas, the said Ellwood Turner has long been a member of the corrupt McClure organizations; and

"Whereas, the said Ellwood Turner is a member of this House and serves as a Republican leader of the body:

"Therefore, be it resolved that the Speaker of the House shall appoint a committee of five whose duty it shall be to make a careful and impartial investigation of the charges herein set forth and to make a report as early as possible, together with such recomemndations as the facts may warrant:

And then it goes on to give the power of subpoena. In the first place let me say to you this, that none of the legislation that I have introduced in this session could by any stretch of the imagination be construed as legislation that would continue me as a member of these Boards. I think that anyone who will study the legislation will realize that that is a childish statement for anyone to make.

In the second place let me say to you that as far as these Sewer Boards are concerned, the chairman of one of these Boards is a Democrat, a life-long Democrat, a voting Democrat in the County of Delaware; that it is made up of representatives of some eight different municipalities. I would have to corrupt eight different municipal bodies of eight different municipalities if there was wrong in my action.

On another sewer board there are eleven municipalities, and on that board there are three Democratic representativs of different municipalities. At no time in the history of any of these boards have I ever heard of any question of politics entering into these proceedings. These are high minded citizens who are giving unstintingly of their time, who have expended their own time and effort, and in some cases money in order to promote a great civic project, and to try to besmirch them and throw mud on them is the cheapest and most puerile kind of politics I have ever heard. I called this to the attention of one of my colleagues in Delaware County and asked him to run this down, as Mr. Rush had said that he had not prepared this resolution and as no resolution was introduced. He talked to the editor of this newspaper; the editor said he received this information direct from Harrisburg, from a party who said he was sent by Mr. Rush to him, and that he was given to believe that this resolution had been introduced on Wednesday of last week. He would not reveal the party that gave this to him, but said that if this were untrue he would reveal it.

Again I say I do not care to take the time of the House on a personal question. If I alone were involved I would laugh it off and let it roll away, because it is too insignificant to even give it consideration. But where it involves my clients and these gentlemen in Delaware County of the type of which I have spoken, I cannot let it pass that way. I want to say here and now, Mr. Speaker, that if such a resolution has been prepared I now ask that it be introduced immediately. I ask the Speaker of this House to appoint a committee or to refer it to the Judiciary General Committee to appoint a committee to investigate. I have nothing to fear from any investigation of any of the proceedings of these sewer boards or my connection with them. The whole transaction, insofar as the W. P. A. insofar as the operation of the boards and my connection with them, is concerned is an open book. Their accounts have constantly been audited by certified accountants. The W. P. A. have constantly audited the books as far as they were concerned.

My relationship with these municipalities and with the sewer boards is definite and well-known. In the election last November some of the politicians in Delaware County tried to make political capital out of this and found it a futile field, and if they are now trying to throw mud at me because I have asked for an investigation of Democratic activities in Delaware County in connection with liquor licenses, then it is a poor trick and poor politics, and will get them no place. I stand here now and challenge them to introduce such a resolution, and I demand an investigation if such a resolution be introduced.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman on his question of personal privilege will bs spread upon the Journal.

STATEMENT BY MR. RUSH

Mr. RUSH asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in reference to the statement by the gentleman from Delaware Mr. Turner with reference to the resolution that was supposed to have been introduced in this House last week, he contacted me last night and told me about these articles appearing in the newspaper bearing my name as having introduced such a resolution. However, the records show that such a resolution had not been introduced, but I will say that I had been contacted by people from Delaware County asking me to introduce such a resolution and making such statements that there were certain things going on in the sewer boards that they felt an investigation by a committee of this House would be warranted.

However, I hesitated to introduce such a resolution, not because I felt that the investigation was not warranted, but because I was not sure myself; I wanted to find out a little more about it before I introduced such a resolution. There have been rumors in Delaware County about things going on in the sewer boards that should not be going on. As the gentleman from Delaware said when he asked me last night about this resolution, it was a surprise to me. Not going home over the weekend, I had not seen the newspapers and no one sent them to me, so I did not know that this was in the newspapers. However, there have been some articles appearing in our local newspapers in Delaware County in reference to a resolution introduced last week by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, asking for an investigation of the Democratic Party with reference to liquor licenses, the granting of liquor licenses. I believe that that resolution referred to the Democratic Party last year in Delaware County withholding certain liquor licenses until the applicants for those licenses had made contributions to the Democratic Party.

There has been no action taken by this House, and I rather suspect because of the actions of the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, in introducing the resolution there with the idea in mind of creating dissension in the Democratic ranks in Delaware County may have had something to do with the statements referring to those sewer boards. Those charges that were referred to in the resolution by the gentleman from Delaware Mr. Turner asking for an investigation of our county chairman and a member of the Governors Cabinet, Doctor Bogardus, I feel are totally unwarranted in Delaware County, and I too, like the gentleman from Delaware, will welcome an investigation of the activities of the Democratic Party there, and I do call upon this House to appoint such an investigating committee as this resolution calls for, to investigate the Democratic Party there.

This whole thing in my opinion was brought about because of his activities or the actions of the gentleman from Delaware in trying to cause dissension in the ranks of the Democratic Party by making the statements that he did in that resolution, and as I say, I hesitated to introduce the resolution asking for an investigation of sewer boards until I was sure.

I hope that the gentleman from Delaware did the same when he introduced his resolution that he was sure that the charges he made concerning Doctor Bogardus and the Democratic party were correct, and I do ask that the Speaker of the House appoint a committee to investigate charges made in his resolution.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a further question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the charges which I made in the resolution which I introduced were not instituted by me. They were made in meetings by Democrats and reported in the public press of Delaware County. Now, if those charges are untrue as they deal with the question of our liquor board, I would be pleased if they were found to be that way, and I certainly do not feel that there should be any charge laid to me to try to split the Democratic Party in Delaware County, in view of the fact that these charges were made by Democrats themselves in open meetings and reported in a number of newspapers in Delaware County. The gentleman from Delaware Mr. Rush has asked that a committee be appointed. He knows that the resolution has been introduced, and as a member of the Democratic Party he can bring his influence to bear upon the Rules Committee to report out my resolution, and we can go ahead with an investigation.

However, I am not in that situation; I will have no ill-feeling with the gentleman from Delaware Mr. Rush, if he introduces such a resolution, but I do not intend to have such charges made in the newspapers and such statements made by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Rush, on the floor of the House and then let it end there. If the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Rush, is sincere then he should immediately introduce this resolution to give me an opportunity to ask that this committee be appointed in order that a report may be made before the end of the session. The facts are so clear, they are so easy to obtain, it would take but a very few hours of the time of any investigating committee.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. SHEPARD asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Legislative Apportionment to meet during the session of the House.

STATEMENT BY MR. PERRY

Mr. PERRY asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, last night, this House listened to a speech read by his Excellency, the Governor, which created considerable doubt as to its purpose and implied a direct insult to the honesty and intelligence of many members of this body. Its only redeeming feature was the statement of his Excellency that in all likelihood it would be his last appearance before this honorable body unless an emergency arose in the future. To that statement, and in the words of the Chaplain I say, "God save the Commonwealth from such an emergency." I listened courteously and carefully to his speech. To me it appears as a mere childish tirade of an executive scold, using the dignity of his office and the permission of the House to voice verbal vengeance against those opposing his legislative fancies, whether they be legislators or public at large.

In his tirade, his Excellency included both friends and foes. As he was reading his speech, the halls were filled with men and women, many of whom were State employes, here to solicit votes on behalf of the Governor's Poor Board Ripper legislation. At these supporters, as well as at the general visitors, his Excellency pointed a finger of scorn and ridicule; these are his words: "They have come out of their hotel parlors, even to the very floor of the Legislature, fighting in sheer desperation to save their jobs and their fees. * * * These lobbyists have swarmed into both Houses like of plague of locusts. Even as I speak tonight, if you will look about you you will see that they have overflowed the seats and the aisles, pushed and elbowed the general public out of the Chamber and up into the galleries."

Like many others in this House, I stand opposed to the presence of unscrupulous lobbyists, but I say to the Governor that if there are unscrupulous lobbyists in our midst then their presence is due entirely to the breach of faith upon the part of his Excellency himself. During his campaign the Governor promised and pledged a lobbyist registration act to control the presence of those whom he now attacks. Having broken faith and forgotten promises his tirade now comes with poor grace. Personally, I have not been bothered much by the Governor's so-called "political fixers." I have not been approached nor have I been called upon either to accept or reject any of these so-called "fees and favors of many kinds."

Among the most active lobbyists infesting this House has been Mr. "Davy" Lawrence, as he passed from side to side, even passing back of the Speaker's desk, jotting down, apparently, the names of the unfaithful; of deputy attorneys general, fluttering back and forth with their orders; of Mr. "Jack" Kelly out frowning his western opponent; of the Secretary of the Department of Labor, apparently seeking more proper labor proposals to appeal to the labor followers of the gentleman from Pittsburgh. These and many others of their same kind, as says the Holy Writ: "We have with us always," and surely, even the Governor does not intend to call these men "well-paid lobbyists, paid fixers on payrolls who swarm both Houses like a plague of locusts." Why, even I, disturbed as I have been by their legislative activities, would hesitate to call Mr. Kelly, Mr. Bashore, or even Mr. Lawrence a "plague of locusts." Locusts come once only every seventeen years.

And the idea of the Governor of this Commonwealth inferring to men and women, sworn to uphold the Constitution, that they need to be complimented and flattered for "resisting the temptation of bribes, fees for service and financial pressure"!

Can it be that the Governor has been absent so much from the Capitol that he does not realize that this is indeed, an honorable body, the members of which do not relish his insinuating flatteries. And does the Governor draw a dividing ilne between cash bribes and the offering or withholding of State jobs, personal favors and State contracts?

The intelligence of this House revolts at such cajolery, for we have been taught to "beware of Greeks bearing gifts."

The time is here when the people of Pennsylvania should invade the halls of this House as defenders of their rights. Not only should they voice their dictates to the legislature, but even more to the Chief Executive himself, providing they can find him at home.

We have pledged our people reduction of taxes, economies in government, a solution of the coal problem, a breathing spell for business and industry; instead this Administration has increased their taxes, enlarged their government and its costs and has failed utterly in its task of industrial rehabilitation.

While the Governor, in these crowded closing hours of the session, indulges in a puerile tirade against imaginary lobbyists, our own legislative investigating committee lays on our desk a non-partisan report of 24 industrial plants, representing more than 6,720 jobs, and a payroll of $9,828,00, which have removed from this State because they cannot bear the tax load laid upon them by the Earle Administration.

Of a hosiery mill in Quakertown, about to liquidate, which will throw out of employment about 40 workers whose total annual wage has amounted to approximately $70,000.

Of the permanent closing of the Ajax Hosiery Company, at Phoenixville, eliminating about 630 jobs, and a payroll of $20,000 a week, or $1,040,000 a year.

That current State taxes caused a large third class city in Pennsylvania to lose a bona fide industrial prospect, which would have given employment to 1,500 workers, at an annual payrol lof approximately $1,500,000.

Of a plant in Lehigh County, employing 2,000 workers, that already has invested more than $1,000,000 in the erection of a new plant in another State.

Of another Pennsylvania concern, originally employing 1,000 workers, that is progressively transferring its activities out of this State.

Of still another, employing 500, preparing to expend its Pennsylvania plant. Two hundred additional jobs would have been created. Pennsylvania taxes caused a change of plans, and New Jersey got the 200 jobs.

Of specific migrations, liquidations, transfers and closings accounting for a total annual payroll, lost or displaced, of more than $116,000,000 a year.

Of a condition which has arisen at least in large part from placing excessive taxes upon production, operating to make more taxes necessary, and thereby driving more industries out of our State.

These and many others appear in this report to challenge openly the policies and actions of an Executive who wastes his time and our time tilting at wind-mills, while the people of Pennsylvania "pray that we uphold them in this crucial hour."

The Republican minority has opposed and will continue to oppose many of the idle whims and fancies of the Governor and his "must" legislation. We stand opposed to subjecting to petty politics relief and the needs of our people. We stand opposed to the insatiable desire for an autocratic bureaucracy; to policies that drive honest business and industry to other states; to class legislation designed to perpetuate political office holding; to legislation ripping the ins out to put the out in; and I desire to tell his Excellency that we do this not because of lobbyists, but because in our sincere and honest belief we believe such whims and fancies spell disaster for this Commonwealth.

And so, Governor, in your own words, I close with your own concluding paragraph: "You all know where I stand. In the next few days you will show where you stand." Can the hard-pressed people of Pennsylvania, now in many communities facing unemployment and bankruptcy, depend upon YOU?

STATEMENT BY MR. HERBERT B. COHEN

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am somewhat reluctant to infringe upon the time of the membership in the closing hours of the session. I feel rather hesitant in so doing, because as the gentleman from Delaware has indicated, we have quite a heavy calendar before us and we have work that will possibly carry into the wee hours of the morning.

Nevertheless, the remarks that came from the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Perry, are such that should not remain unchallenged by this House. I resent those remarks, I resent those remarks personally, and I resent those remarks as a member of the Administration. I resent those remarks because the gentleman from Blair has taken it upon himself to indicate that the innuendoes expressed by the Governor of this Commonwealth were directed at the entire membership of the House rather than speaking for himself alone. I resent those remarks on account of the implications that the gentleman from Blair makes relative to the sincerity of the Governor of this Commonwealth in the making of those remarks. And I further ressent those remarks because the gentleman from Blair has failed to draw a very apparent distinction. The distinction is simply this, that those individuals who come upon the floor of this House exercising their ability in order to promote legislation of benefit to the people are very distinct from the individuals who come upon the floor of this House in an attempt to thwart legislation of benefit to the great mass of the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I resent those remarks further because the gentleman from Blair has failed to draw further distinctions upon the presence of those so-called legislative lobbyists that the Governor so aptly indicated are infesting this House like a swarm of locusts. We in the closing hours of this session have before us a great number of controversial bills. In the closing minutes of this session it will be necessary upon the floor of this House and the Senate to enact legislation that is of momentous concern to all the people of the Commonwealth. Let us reiterate that: The utility regulation bill, the full-crew bill, the labor legislation, the Chain Store tax, all other types of legislation that the people of the Commonwealth have fought for and that the Republican Party have denied them.

Does the gentleman mean to tell the membership of this House that for the first time in over three or four generations, with the Democratic Party in control, with victory for the people in its grasp, that we should be denied that victory of the people by remarks coming in the nature of those made by the gentleman from Blair? Should we be denied the opportunity to enact the legislation that the people have elected us to enact and because of those insidious individuals who come here in the interests of the industries that they represent, who have been successful in their representations up until now, who would have that victory for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania snatched from our very grasp.

I compliment the Governor of this Commonwealth, I compliment the people of this Commonwealth in having such a Governor who will come on the floor of this Assembly and insist that the mandate of the people shall not be denied.

Does the gentleman from Blair mean to intimate that with the enactment of this progressive and liberal legislation that the corporations will fly from Pennsylvania? No. If that is his implication, the answer is only too apparent. These very industries whom the gentleman from Blair indicates are fleeing, are not fleeing from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania but are coming into the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

In 1934 over 6,308 corporations left the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In 1936 with the inception of the workability of both the Roosevelt and the Earle programs but 4,594 corporations left the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and today, in 1936, rather, under the Earle regime, in view of that unsurmountable tax program to which the gentleman from Blair refers, but 2,961 corporations have left this Commonwealth.

The gentleman from Blair does not indicate that in the report submitted by the so-called tax committee, that the statement referring to the Curtis Publishing Company has just been denied by the Curtis Publishing Company. Why didn't the legislative committee mention the fact that during the same period 433 new firms, employing over 10,000 workers have come into the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to be part and parcel of this great Commonwealth, under this great Administration?

I do not wish to take the time of this House at this particular moment.—I didn't come here prepared with an insidious attack to level at the Administration or to level at the Republican Party. I come here calling attention of the membership, calling the attention of the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, calling the attention of the people of the Nation that under a free, liberal, honest form of government legislation of that type will not be denied, recovery will not be thwarted, enjoyment of the possibilities of life will not be stopped, and the Commonwealth, even though individuals such as the gentleman from Blair and those whom he seeks to speak for, want to thwart the program of this Administration, of the Democratic Party, it will be enacted into law, to the entire credit of the Democratic Party.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 24, 1937.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that House Bill No. 150, Printer's No. 89, entitled "An Act to amend section three of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 831) entitled 'An act providing for the appointment of a board of examiners to examine applicants for the office of inspector for the anthracite mines of this Commonwealth prescribing the qualifications defining the powers and duties and fixing the compensation of such examiners providing for the appointment and removal of inspectors of anthracite mines prescribing their qualifications and regulating their salaries and term of office and abolishing the terms of office of the present mine inspectors of the anth racite mines' by defining the term 'coal miners'", be recalled from the Governor for further consideration.

MOTION TO TAKE BILL FROM TABLE

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 500, Printer's No. 635, which was laid on the table on April 26, 1937, be taken from the table.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of inquiry.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, is House Bill No. 500, the bill that is commonly known as the Moomaw-Moran bill, that would abolish tax collectors throughout the State of Pennsylvania.

The SPEAKER. That is correct. It is the Moomaw-Moran bill to abolish most of the tax collectors.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask the members to oppose the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of order.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, this motion is not debatable.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken.

Mr. BAINE. I yield, Mr. Speaker, to the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Rule No. 53, be suspended for the specific purpose of permitting debate upon the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran, which is a motion to take House Bill No. 500 from the table.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. I rise, Mr. Speaker—

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, to debate the motion now before the House, which I believe under the rules—

The SPEAKER. The motion now before the House is not debatable. There is nothing in order but the calling of the roll.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary injuiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Monroe will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, will you quote to me the rule of the House which states that a motion to suspend a rule is not debatable?

The SPEAKER. The motion made by the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, to suspend the rule is not debatable for the reason that it affects a motion that is not debatable. The rule to be suspended is Rule 53.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Franklin will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, does not the question on which the vote is now being taken to suspend the rule preclude the debate on the motion to lift from the table?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. VAN SICKLE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. VAN SICKLE. Mr. Speaker, under what order of business is the motion to take from the table?

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman will read Rule 53 "On the call of a member for bill or other subject on the table of the House, the question shall be decided without debate or amendment." The rule does not specify when the call may be made.

Mr. VAN SICKLE. Mr. Speaker, does that supersede the order of the day?

The SPEAKER. It appears from the Rule that the motion may be made at any time during the proceedings.

Mr. VAN SICKLE. Mr. Speaker, should that not properly come under "unfinished business"?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that the motion has been properly made.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I don't think that this question is necessarily debatable, and I ask the House to vote "no" on this motion.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is out of order.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. ACHTERMAN and Mr. LaRUE and were as follows:

An Act authorizing cities of the third class to surrender their charter and be constituted a borough or boroughs providing the procedure therefor and terminating the terms of officers of such city when the borough government or governments are organized

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That a city of the third class may surrender its charter and be constituted a borough in the manner hereinafter provided

Section 2 The council of any such city of the third class on its own motion may or within fifteen days after receipt of a petition signed by electors at least equal to five per centum of the highest total vote cast for a candidate for office in such city at the last preceding election general or municipal shall pass a resolution and record it upon its minutes submitting the question of whether such city shall surrender its charter and be constituted a borough to the qualified electors of such city Where a city was created by joining two boroughs the question to be submitted may be whether one borough shall be created or whether the former boroughs shall be reestablished The form in which the question shall in such cases be submitted shall be stated in the motion of council or in the petition as the case may be

Section 3 Such question shall be submitted to the electors at the next general or municipal election occurring at least sixty days after the passage of such resolution Notice of said resolution shall be given by publication in at least two newspapers published in the county and circulated in said city once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately prior to the election at which the question is to be submitted that such an election will be held

Section 4 The council shall verify such resolution to the county commissioners of the proper county who shall thereupon cause the question to be printed at the foot of the official ballot to be used at any general or municipal election in said city in the following form

Do you favor the surrender of the charter of the city of ..... and the government of said municipality as (one borough) (or as formerly two boroughs) under the general laws relating to boroughs	Yes
	No

The electors shall designate with a cross-mark (X) in the appropriate square their desire to vote for or against such surrender

Section 5 It shall be the duty of the election officers within the city to receive the ballot so marked and to count the vote cast for and against a surrender of the city charter and make return thereof to the prothonotary who shall lay the same before the return board The return board shall compute the return and certify the result of the election to the corporate authorities of the city and a duplicate return to the Secretary of the Commonwealth each duly certified in the manner required by law

Section 6 In receiving counting and making return of the vote cast inspectors judges and clerks of the said election shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth regulating general elections and all inspectors judges and clerks voting at or in attendance upon the election to be held under the provisions of this act shall be subject to the penalties imposed by the election laws of this Commonwealth

Section 7 Whenever by the returns of the election in any city of the third class as aforesaid it shall appear that a majority of the vote cast is against the surrender of the city charter no further proceedings shall be had and it shall not be lawful to hold another election upon that question in such city for a period of five years thereafter If it shall appear by the said returns that a majority of the vote cast is in favor of surrendering the city charter the Governor shall issue letters patent under the great seal of the Commonwealth reciting the facts constituting the same a body or bodies corporate and politic by the name or names of the borough or boroughs of the bounderies of which shall be the same as those of the former city or as the former boroughs as the case may be The letters patent issued as aforesaid shall be immediately recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds for the proper county at the expense of the municipality

Section 8 At the first municipal election occurring after the issuing of letters patent there shall be chosen in said borough or in each of said boroughs the borough officers provided for by the general laws relating to boroughs who shall begin their term from the first Monday of January of the year next succeeding

Council shall consist of two members from each ward unless such number shall be subsequently changed as provided by law to be elected by the qualified electors thereof Provided however That where two boroughs are created if either of said boroughs were not divided into wards then councilmen shall be elected at large as provided by the general laws relating to boroughs in such cases At the first election where boroughs are divided into wards one councilman shall be elected in each ward for a term of four years and one for a term of two years and thereafter at each municipal election one councilman shall be elected in each ward for a term of four years The three auditors shall be elected one for six years one for four years and one for two years and at each municipal election thereafter one auditor shall be elected for a term of six years All other officers including councilmen at large shall be elected for long or short terms so as to coincide with the terms as fixed by the general borough laws Until otherwise changed the wards of the city shall continue as the wards of the borough except where two boroughs are created in which case the wards shall be in each borough if there were wards as they were before the city was created

Section 9 All property and estate whatsoever real personal and mixed of the city are hereby upon the organization of the borough government severally and respectively vested in the corporation or body politic of said borough and for the use and benefit of the citizens thereof forever

All suits prosecutions debts and claims whatsoever shall upon the organization of the borough government be transferred to said borough or boroughs In all suits by or against the city pending at the time of organization of the borough government under this act the borough or boroughs shall be substituted as a party and the suit shall be under the management and control of such borough or boroughs as fully and completely as if no alteration had been made in said charter All claims and demands of whatever nature whether payable presently or in the future existing against the said city when the borough government or governments shall be organized shall be recoverable from or against the borough or boroughs The debts and assets of the city shall become the debt and assets of the borough or boroughs and where two boroughs are created the councils of said borough shall by agreement determine how much of said debt each borough shall bear and what part of the assets of such city each borough shall receive and where no such agreement can be reached within thirty days after such boroughs are organized the said division shall be determined by the Court of Common Pleas of the county upon petition of either borough or of any creditor of the city The decision of the court on such division shall be final

Section 10 A borough constituted and created under the provisions of this act shall have the same powers and be governed by the same laws as a borough incorporated and formed under general law

Section 11 The charter of the city shall continue in full force and operation and all officers under the same shall hold their respective offices until the first Monday of January following the municipal election next succeeding the issuing of letters patent to the said borough at which time the officers of said borough chosen as hereinbefore provided shall enter upon their respective terms of service the borough government shall be duly organized under this act and the terms of all officers of the city government shall cease and terminate

On the question.

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1, page 23, by inserting between lines 4 and 5, the following: "Route 32125. Beginning at a point on Route 32033 at Luciusboro; thence in a northeasterly and easterly direction through Center and Brush Valley Townships to a point on Route [32019] 337, about [0.2] 0.7 of a mile [west of its intersection with Route 337] southeast of Mechanicsburg, in Indiana County, a distance of about [3.6] 4.5 miles.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, what I have to say will apply to all the six sets of amendments that have been introduced. I understand that the gentlemen who have introduced amendments on the Republican side have had certain representations made to them by the Highways Committee which led them to believe that their amendments were acceptable. I understand now that some difficulty has arisen. I would be only too glad to go along with the amendments of the gentlemen on the other side, but it would necessitate a reprinting of the bill, and this undoubtedly is the largest bill to be handled at this session, numbering 228 pages. The bill undoubtedly will have to be reprinted in the Senate for the amendments that will be inserted there, and I wish to assure the members who have introduced amendments that I will be only too glad to make arrangements with them whereby they can meet with the Secretary of Highways and the Deputy Secretary of Highways in order that the amendments may be considered and placed in the bill when the bill is amended and printed in the Senate. Under those circumstances, the time element that is involved, necessitates the passage of this bill on second reading at this time, otherwise there would be no bill.

And in view of the expense that would be involved in reprinting it, in view of its size, I have to object to all these amendments that have been offered by the gentlemen on the other side.

STATEMENT BY MR. STEWART

Mr. STEWART asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, before I introduced my amendments, I had a bill ready to introduce. I went to the Highway Department in Indiana, as I did two years ago and with them went over the roads in Indiana county, and we prepared the descriptions,—they have made many descriptions for me, and I brought them down here, and I presented them to Mr. Van Riper, and he made the descriptions and entered bills that would take care of the roads in Indiana county. Now, about a week ago I went into Mr. Van Riper's office, and I found that a new set of bills had been prepared, or an omnibus bill, and he showed me the map, and the roads were quite different from the ones that I had arranged with the Highway Department of Indiana.

I might say that the Senator from Indiana county and my colleague Mr. Sloan both agree with me that these should be the roads. I think I know the roads in Indiana county, and I took into consideration all the things that should be taken into consideration in selecting roads.

Having been Superintendent of Schools of the county, I knew the roads and I knew the connections. We tried to put the roads in that would benefit the greater majority of the people. We made connections, connected main highways,—we didn't run a road into a dark alley or anything of that kind, but we made the roads that would help the people in all walks of life. It was my duty to serve as State Deputy of Weights and Measures in Indiana County for seven and a half years, and I knew the roads that were necessary for the people that worked in the mines, and I knew the situation, consequently I think that we put the roads on that should be placed in Indiana county. The Democratic Chairman of Indiana county was here on Monday, and I spoke to him about these Indiana county roads, and he said that he was instrumental in doing this. I said "Do you know that one of your neighbors asked me to put a road in that would pass your old home?" and he said "I do." And I said "You took off that road that went past my old home", and I want to say to you that I did this in all fairness, and I do not believe that the members of this House will be against the roads and against the amendments that I have introduced.

On Monday evening I went into the meeting of the Committee on Highways as a member, and I explained it to the committee, and by motion of that committee by a Democratic member, it was passed unanimously that I should prepare my amendments and place my amendments before the House at this time. Gentlemen I want to be fair, and I do not want to be responsible for incurring any extra expense, and whatever is your will I shall be glad to abide by.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendments?
They were not agreed to.
On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. TERRY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1, page 33, by inserting between lines 21 and 22 the following: "Route 65045. Beginning at a point on [township road approximately six-tenth of a mile southwest of Kasson Brook in Forkston Township] the Sullivan-Wyoming County line, about 2.3 miles southwest of the North Branch-Forkston Township line; thence easterly, northeasterly and northerly through Forkston Township, intersecting State Highway Route 217 at Forkston; thence northwesterly through Forkston Township; thence northeasterly through Forkston and Windham Townships to a point, where it intersects Route 65045 approximately one-quarter mile southwest of Jenningsville, Windham Township, in Wyoming County, a distance of about [8.87] 14.87 miles."

Amend sec. 1, page 34, lines 1 to 7, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like the opportunity of saying just a word. First I want to say to the Democratic leader of this House thanks for being so kind in his explanation of the circumstances of what the printing of this bill is going to cost, and the only reason I shall take time for a word now is to explain that we introduced bills to take care of requests of the Democrats and Republicans, and those bills were offered early in the session, and if I didn't at least make an effort to protect those bills I would not feel that I was doing my duty, and therefore I am rising here to explain how that happened. I believe that these amendments that have been introduced are very deserving amendments. However, I have prepared those that I prepared at the request of the gentleman in charge of this omnibus bill in the first instance. I followed out his request, and did everything that I could but nobody conferred with me. I am not against these amendments that are in this bill, but I have to defend my own, and I want to go on record here by saying I know that I will be voted down. I want it strictly understood that I am not opposing the roads that are proposed here, but I want it understood that the gentleman who represents the county is a Republican, and he went to considerable expense to go to the supervisor of roads, and had the Department itself mark it up, and we do not feel sure we have been well treated by someone. It does not mean in these circumstances necessarily the members of this House, nor does it mean that I am not grateful to Mr. Cohen for his polite way of straightening these things out.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments.

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. TERRY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 2, page 192, lines 21 to 27, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

Amend sec. 2, page 193, lines 13 to 22, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

Amend sec. 2, page 194, lines 3 to 6, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. FRANCIS T. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 2, page 205, by striking out all the lines 18 to 23, both inclusive, and inserting in lieu thereof:

"Route 59044. Beginning at a point on Route 59016, about 1.0 mile south of Route 26; thence southwesterly and northwesterly through East Buffalo Township to a point on Route 24, about 0.7 of a mile south of Route 26, in Union County, a distance of about 1.3 miles."

Amend sec. 2, page 205, by inserting after line 1, the following: "Route 59046. Beginning at a point on Route 59013 about 1.0 mile north of Route 59012, thence extending in an easterly direction through East Buffalo Township to a point on Route 59016, about 1.0 mile south of Linntown, in Union County, a distance of about 1.50 miles."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The third section and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 3 The highways established as State highways under the provisions of this act may be taken over for construction and maintenance at any time subsequent to the final enactment of this act when the same shall become effective and shall be taken over not later than January first one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 594) entitled "An act establishing certain township roads as State highways authorizing their construction maintenance and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities persons associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act" as amended by changing certain routes and adding certain new routes

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 155, as follows:

An Act to repeal the act approved the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws six hundred thirty-nine) entitled "An act defining sedition and prescribing the punishment therefor" and its amendments

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the act approved the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws six hundred thirty-nine) entitled "An act defining sedition and prescribing the punishment therefor" and its amendments is hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is an anti-sedition bill which attempts to repeal the Flynn Sedition Act of 1919 .

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Bedford will state his point of order.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is speaking on the bill and not on the motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The gentleman will confine himself to the motion to recommit.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill has been before the Committee on Judiciary General for some time. The committee paid proper attention to the bill, studied the bill and reported the bill out, so I do not feel that the bill should now be recommitted to a committee that has already given it due consideration. I think that this bill should be allowed to pass on third reading, and then the membership should be given the right to vote either for or against the measure.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. TRONZO and Mr. WALSH.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1, (sec. 2), page 4, lines 13, 14, and 15, by striking out the words "except the furnishing of any service, the furnishing of which is subject to regulation by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission"

Amend sec. 1, (sec. 3), page 6, line 11, by striking out with light-face brackets the word "object" and inserting in lieu thereof "purposes"

Amend sec. 1, (sec. 10), page 14, line 9, by inserting after the word "thereof" the following: "Provided, however, That the indebtedness of the corporation other than in the usual course of business shall not be increased until the board of directors of the corporation shall adopt a resolution setting forth the desired increase and directing that the question of the proposed increase be submitted for the consent of the members at a meeting to be held after sixty days' notice, which notice may be waived in writing and upon such consent, the board of directors may proceed to increase the indebtedness"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time ad agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2338, (Senate Bill No. 606), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to gether with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" providing for sabbatical leaves of absence for certain employes of school districts

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" is hereby amended by adding thereto after section one thousand two hundred and fifteen a new heading and section to read as follows

Sabbatical Leaves of Absence

Section 1216 (a) Whenever any person employed in the public school of this Commonwealth shall have completed ten years of satisfactory service as a teacher or in first class school districts as a member of the instructional staff or department of instruction as now defined by the local board of education such person shall be entitled to a leave of absence for restoration of health study or travel or at the discretion of the board of school directors for other purposes for a half or full school year at the option of such person Thereafter one leave of absence shall be allowed after each seven years of service

(b) No leave of absence shall be granted unless such person shall agree to return to his or her employment with the school district for a period of not less than one year after such leave of absence

(c) No such leave of absence shall be considered a termination or breach of the contract of employment and the person on leave of absence shall be returned to the same or positions in the same school or schools he or she occupied prior thereto

The person on leave of absence shall receive the difference between his or her regular salary and the salary paid to any substitute employe temporarily engaged because of such leave The salary paid to such substitute shall be the salary for substitute service according to the salary schedule established by the local board

(e) Applications for leaves of absence shall be given preference according to the years of service since the previous sabbatical leave of the applicant and in accordance with regulations adopted by the board of school directors pursuant to the provisions of this section

(f) No school district shall limit the number of leaves of absence granted in any school year to less than ten per centum of the number of persons eligible for such leave of absence regularly employed in such district Provided however That schools which have a staff of seven or less teachers shall be permitted at least one leave of absence each year

(g) Every person on leave of absence shall retain the right to make contributions as a member of the School Employes' Retirement Fund and continue his or her membership therein

(h) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent any person on leave of absence from receiving a grant for further study from any institution of learning

(i) A sabbatical leave granted to a regular employe shall also operate as a leave of absence without pay from all other school activities

(j) Every employe while on sabbatical leave of absence shall be considered to be in regular full-time daily attendance in the position from which the sabbatical leave was taken during the period of said leave for the purpose of determining the employe's length of service and the right to receive increments as provided by law

(k) A member of the teaching or supervisory staff while on sabbatical leave of absence shall for all purposes be viewed in law as a full-time teacher supervisor principal or other full-time member of the teaching and supervisory staff as the case may be and while on sabbatical leave he or she shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of an employe in regular full-time daily attendance in the position from which sabbatical leave of absence was granted and during the period of said leave the Commonwealth shall pay to the school district for each member of the teaching and supervisory staff thereof who is on sabbatical leave of absence the same per centum or share of salary provided for by law as if the employe was in regular daily full-time attendance in the position from which the sabbatical leave of absence was taken and in cases of employes of approved local or joint vocational industrial vocational home economics and vocational agricultural schools or departments who are on sabbatical leave the school district shall be reimbursed as provided by law for each of their full-time salaries just as though such employes were in daily attendance upon their respective duties

(l) The board of school directors or board or public education shall have the right to make such regulations as they may deem necessary to make sure that employes on leave as provided by this act shall utilize such leave properly for the purpose for which it was granted requiring reports from the employe or employes on leave in such manner as they may deem necessary

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 1216), page 3, line 21, by inserting after the word "leave" the following: "Provided, That the employe who is absent on sabbatical leave shall not receive more than one thousand six hundred dollars ($1,600) if the employe's absence on sabbatical leave is for a full year, and not more than eight hundred dollars ($800) if the employe's absence on sabbatical leave is for a half school year as defined in this act.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 1216), page 2, lines 17 and 18, by striking out the following: "the public school system" and inserting in lieu thereof: "any school district of the first class"

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 1216), page 2, line 20, by striking out the following: "in first class school districts"

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 1216), page 2, line 24, by striking out the following: "school directors" and inserting in lieu thereof: "public education"

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 1216), page 3, line 5, by inserting after the word "district" the following: "of the first class"

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 1216), page 4, line 1, by striking out the following: "school directors" and inserting in lieu thereof: "public education of the school district of the first class"

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 1216), page 4, line 3, by inserting after the word "district" the following: "of the first class"

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 1216), page 5, line 19, by striking out the following: "of school directors or board"

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 1216), page 5, line 20, by inserting after the word "education" the following: "of any school district of the first class"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Harkins.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated

Mr. HARKINS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the amendments the gentleman from Allegheny offered, to eliminate the second, third and fourth class districts from this bill and thus leave only the first class districts?

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, that is the purpose of the amendments and the gentleman's understanding is correct.

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, for what purpose does the gentleman offer such amendments?

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I offered the amendments to accomplished the purpose that I just answered, as expressed in my reply to the gentleman.

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, why does the gentleman want to omit those three classes of districts?

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, in answer to that interrogation I would say that it is my opinion that this act if passed would be taken advantage of mostly by the first class school districts. I feel that the passage of this act would not be beneficial to the second, third and fourth class school districts, and I do not feel that this act, in its present form, is desirable or is desired by the second, third and fourth class school districts, and I therefore offer the amendments.

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose these amendments. This, I believe, is a good bill, and if it is good for the first class districts it is certainly good for all the others, and I would ask the members of the House to vote these amendments down.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, have the amendments which I offered been inserted in the bill?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is informed that they have.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, the bill now up for consideration is known as the Sabbatical Leave Bill, which would provide for a leave of absence, and as I recollect the provisions of the bill, this leave of absence would be mandatory, and, Mr. Speaker—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Fayette will state his point of order.

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, I believe the gentleman is discussing the bill, and should not do so in offering the amendments.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman must confine his remarks to the amendments to Section 1.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his question of information.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, inasmuch as I have not a copy of the amendments here, and inasmuch as the whole purpose of the amendments will be obvious, the only thing I wish to speak of is that it is my thought to speak on all the amendments offered and not only one.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman may discuss the amendments to Section 1, which covers all the amendments.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I wish to state for the benefit of the House that if these amendments are adopted they will change the provisions of this act so that the act will apply only to first class school districts which are large enough and rich enough to afford the cost that will be entailed, and if these amendments are adopted the second, third and fourth class districts will not be forced to pay out sums of money to school teachers who are not serving but who are away on leave of absence, who may be studying or may be traveling or may be away from the school district, and who will receive compensation for not being at school, teaching as they should be teaching. Mr. Speaker, I ask for the support of the House on these amendments.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, I would like to correct the statement made by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Harkins when he said that the first class school districts would have to stand the cost of this bill. There isn't any cost in this bill to any school district, whether it be first, second, third or fourth class. There would be no cost to the school districts whatsoever if this bill passed. I ask the House to vote down the amendments offered by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Harkins.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I wish to further state that I have offered these amendments because I view this bill as a bill that is destructive of labor standards, of professional standards among the teachers, and I feel that it will particularly be harmful to districts of the second, third and fourth class in our State.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate someone who can give me some information on this bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is not in possession of the information requested by the gentleman.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, there is nothing in order but the vote on the amendments.

The SPEAKER. The House did vote on the amendments, and they were defeated.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, if there isn't anyone who can answer an interrogation on this bill, I would like to move, due to the fact that this bill requires somebody to work and somebody else to collect the money, that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Aeronautics, because the bill seems to be up in the air.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman wish to have the bill pass second reading?

Mr. TUMELTY. I do not, Mr. Speaker; I do not think it should have passed first reading.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, I wish the gentleman from Philadelphia would recall his motion, because I was ready to answer any questions he had on the bill, if he will recall his motion.

MOTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw the motion for the purpose of interrogation.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Fayette, Mr. Brownfield, if a teacher making $2,400 a year decides to take a leave of absence to make a trip around the world, supposedly to gain knowledge, and a substitute teacher goes in, who is rated at $1,000 a year, who gets the other $1,400?

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, there would be no such case as that. It would not be possible.

Mr. TRUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, what would prevent it from being possible?

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, because $1,000 is a very low minimum, if a teacher would receive $2,400 he would receive that because of increment. Who ever heard of increments amounting to more than the minimum salary would amount to?

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask what the minimum salaries would be?

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, the minimum in fourth class districts is $800 where they have an eight months term; $900 where they have a nine months term, $1,000 in the third class school districts and a different minimum in other classes.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, what would the maximum in the third class school districts be?

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, the maximum might be anything that the Board saw fit to pay.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I do not know why the gentleman is evading the question.

Mr. BROWNFIELD. I am not, Mr. Speaker. I have answered every question that the gentleman has asked.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I would like the gentleman to answer what becomes of the difference in pay between the teacher who is running around Europe and the person who actually does the work?

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, if there is any difference, and there might be a difference sometimes but not frequently, the difference would go to the teacher who is away on leave, but it would not cost the school district a dollar.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Fayette. Due to the fact that he has admitted that some one would be paid by some school districts for traveling around Europe, I renew my motion that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Aeronautics.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "nays" appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, thirty-three members having voted in the affirmative and seventy-four in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The title was read and agreed to as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" providing for sabbatical leaves of absence for certain employes of school districts

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2370, (Senate Bill No. 758), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the fifteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws five hundred fifty-three) entitled "An act relating to the financial responsibility of operators and owners of motor vehicles and to make uniform the law with reference thereto requiring operators and owners of automobiles under certain circumstances to furnish proof of financial responsibility as herein defined providing for the suspension of operators' licenses and motor vehicle registration certificates in certain cases regulating insurance policies which may be accepted as proof of financial responsibility imposing duties upon the Secretary of Revenue the State Treasurer and prothonotaries and prescribing penalties" by further requiring operators and owners of automobiles under certain circumstances to furnish proof of financial responsibility and further regulating insurance policies which may be accepted as proof of financial responsibility imposing further duties upon the Secretary of Revenue and the prothonotaries and clerks of the various courts of this Commonwealth imposing further duties upon owners and operators of vehicles providing exceptions imposing duties upon insurers and upon brokers agents or representatives of insurers providing for the payment of judgments in installments prescribing additional penalties and adding new sections

The Auditor General shall from time to time certify to the Department of Revenue the names of mercantile appraisers appointed by him [in conjunction with the city treasurer in cities of the first class and by him in other counties] the salaries or rates of salary payable to such appraisers the number names and compensation of clerks or assistants approved by him for appointment by mercantile appraisers and all expense accounts which he has approved

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

QUESTION OF INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his question of inquiry.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, why does not the name of the other member and the other Senator appear on this report? Why is it that only four names appear?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will have to interrogate one of the members of the Conference Committee from the House. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blank, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLANK. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman why this report was made with only two members of the Senate and two members of the House signing it.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Delaware, the bill is a partisan measure, and for that reason the Republican Conferees did not desire to sign the report, consequently it is only signed by the majority members of the House and Senate.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in other words, as I understand it, the two Republican members of the conference, one in the Senate and one in the House, refused to sign the report, is that correct?

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, I wouldn't say that. I would say rather they asked to be excused from signing it.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, that is a good enough reason.

On the question recurring.

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

RESOLUTION

Mr. MURRIN offered a resolution which was filed with Clerk under the Rules.

STATEMENT BY MR. SCANLON

Mr. SCANLON asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, with reference to the bill which I am going to report, I would like to read the following letter:

3517 Kipp Street,
Philadelphia, Pa.
May 22, 1937.

Friend Marshall:—

I take this opportunity of writing you on behalf of the forty-four hour bill. There are 8,500 people on strike at the Philco Corporation who have told me this bill an outrage.

These people are on strike against a forty hour week. They have been working thirty-six hours for the last four years, and cannot understand a Democratic House and Senate proposing a forty-four hour week when they are fighting against a forty hour week.

I think this bill should be given grave consideration and be amended to appease these people, for if it goes through in its present form I fear it will do our party no end of harm. So, Marshall try your utmost in behalf of these people.

Good luck. See you later.

BILL CRAWFORD
Democratic Committeeman
27th Div., 33rd Ward.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. SCANLON, from the Committee on Labor, re-reported as committed, House Bill No. 1393, entitled:

An Act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of persons in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry and others by prescribing penalties for violations thereof by defining the procedure in prosecutions and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1301, as follows:

An Act authorizing vaudeville exhibitions in conjunction with moving picture exhibitions in certain cities boroughs towns or townships where the voters have approved the exhibition of moving pictures on Sundays providing for a referendum to ascertain the will of the electors and providing penalties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That if the voters of any city borough town or township shall have voted in favor of motion picture exhibitions on Sundays under the provisions of any act of this Commonwealth then in such city borough town or township any person copartnership association or corporation engaged in conducting staging managing or operating a motion picture exhibition may in conjunction therewith conduct and stage a vaudeville exhibit providing such exhibit does not exceed the length of time given to the exhibition of motion pictures and that such vaudeville exhibition shall be given alternately with motion pictures during each and every performance Provided That a majority of the voters of the city borough town or township shall have first voted in favor of vaudeville exhibitions on Sundays as hereinafter provided

Section 2 At the primary election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven there shall be submitted in the manner provided by the election laws of the Commonwealth upon petition to the county commissioners by the city or borough council or by the township commissioners or supervisors or upon petition to county commissioners by electors equal to at least five per centum of the highest vote cast for any candidate in the municipality at the last preceding general election a question to determine the will of the electors of each municipality in this Commonwealth so petitioning with respect to vaudeville exhibitions Such question shall be in the following form

Do you favor the conducting staging operating and exhibiting of vaudeville regardless of whether an admission charge is made or incidental thereto or whether labor or business is necessary to conduct stage operate or exhibit the same after two 'oclock postmeridan on Sunday	YES NO

The said question shall be printed on separate official ballots in bound form by the county commissioners of each county and sufficient number of ballots shall be furnished to the election officers in each election district of each municipality so that one ballot may be supplied to each voter at such election In districts where voting machines are used such question shall appear on the face of the machine where the machine is properly equipped for such purposes

Section 3 The votes cast on such question shall be counted by the election officers and returns thereof made by them and by election officers where voting machines are used to the prothonotary of the county who shall lay the same before the return board for computation at the same time and in the same manner as other returns Such election shall be governed by the election laws of the Commonwealth and all penalties provided by said laws shall apply to such elections The return board shall compute the said returns by municipalities and certify the results of the vote cast on the question to the acting chief executive officer of each municipality affected

If at the election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven where any such election was held as herein provided a majority of the electors in any municipality voting at said election vote in favor of vaudeville exhibitions on Sunday after the hour of two o'clock post meridian then upon the certification of such election return to the acting chief executive officer of such municipality as is provided in this section it shall thereafter be lawful to conduct stage manage operate or engage in vaudeville exhibitions from and after the hour of two o'clock post meridian on Sunday

The right to conduct stage manage operate or engage in such vaudeville exhibitions shall be subject only to those rules and regulations which govern vaudeville exhibitions on days of the week other than Sunday

If the vote of the electors in the municipality was not in favor of vaudeville exhibitions or if no such election was held then it shall be unlawful to conduct stage manage operate or engage in such vaudeville exhibitions to which an admission charge is made or is incidental after two o'clock post meridian on Sunday

Section 4 In any municipality the will of the electors with respect to the conducting staging and exhibiting of vaudeville on Sunday may after the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven but not oftener than once in five years be ascertained and the question as provided in section two of this act shall be submitted to the electors of any municipality upon demand in writing of petitioners equal to at least five per centum of the highest vote cast for any candidate in the municipality at the last preceding general or municipal election Such petition shall be filed with the corporate authorities at least thirty (30) days before the day of any primary general or municipal election at which the question is to be submitted and if the petition is signed by the requisite number of petitioners it shall thereupon be certified to the county commissioners who shall cause such question to be submitted in the same manner as is provided in this act for the primary election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven

If the majority of the voters in any municipality are not in favor of such exhibitions then upon the certification of such election return to the acting chief executive officer of such municipality as is provided in section three of this act it shall thereafter be unlawful to conduct stage manage operate or engage in such exhibitions after two o'clock post meridan on Sunday but if a majority of the electors in any such municipality which has not heretofore permitted such vaudeville exhibitions after two o'clock post meridian on Sunday or which has not theretofore voted on such question are in favor of such exhibitions then upon the certification of such fact to the acting chief executive officer of such municipality as is provided in section three of this act such exhibitions shall thereafter be lawful

Section 5 It is the intent of this act to provide a method whereby the will of the electors of each municipality with respect to vaudeville exhibitions together with orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection in connection with or incidental thereto after two o'clock post meridian on Sunday may be ascertained

Section 6 The provisions of this act are severable and if any of the provisions hereof are held to be unconstitutional the decision shall not be construed to impair any other provision of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included herein

Section 7 Section one of the act approved the twenty-second day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four (3 Smith Laws 177) entitled "An act for the prevention of vice and immorality and of unlawful gaming and to restrain disorderly sports and dissipation" be and the same is hereby repealed in so far as it prohibits vaudeville exhibitions and any orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection in connection with or incidental thereto All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Aeronautics.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I know it is very late but with your kind indulgence if you will just permit me one hour and fifteen minutes I would like to make a brief statement.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection and the gentleman will speak on the Chiropractor's bill.

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I wish to yield to my colleague from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I just want to make a brief statement this evening concerning the Bendicts and the Freelancers:

In a closely played game today, the Shackled team of the House administered a severe drubbing to the Freelancers by the score of 22 to 19.—

The game was featured by the continuous beefing of "Pop" Elpern,—the vicious slugging of the victors,—and the alleged fielding of the Freelancers. Constanzo was particularly difficult to retire, inasmuch as the umpire was a co-committeeman of his from Philadelphia. "Hot-seat" Falkenstein, who had the only uniform on the field, electrified the crowd by muffing the first ball hit to him. "Long Elmer" Holland was in Dutch several times, complaining about the bread basket catches made by "Rabbit" Thomas. By the time the sixth inning rolled around the Freelancers outfield looked like a wooded glen. However, the fact that they had about twenty-nine outfielders only added to the general confusion and the Shackled team profited. "Deacon" Decker cavorted like a veteran in the outfield, and contributed the star catch of the game, much to the disgust of pinch-hitter number three hundred and twenty-four of the Freelancers. "Killer" O'Keefe stood up well at third base,—that was the trouble, he stood there. Before the game was over, "Hefty" Haberlen, who caught for the Freelancers, looked like a sewer inspector from the land of Sewers, Delaware County. "Six to one" Marino still wants to know why three strikes makes an out—he feels a resolution should be adopted to reconsider the vote by which he struck out in the fourth inning. He wants the vote to be unanimous in the future.

A challenge has been issued by the Freelancers for a return game in 1947. They feel that the Shackled men will be easier to beat by that time.

		Runs	Hits	Errors
Freelancers	0 4 2 0 0 0 0 4 9	19	1	342
Shackled Men	6 0 0 0 1 12 0 3 x	22	13/4	341
